Triangle Mass Meeting To-night, 7.30 O'clock

VARITY AT WINSLOW JUNCTION

SOPHOMORES DEFATE FRESHMEN

IN PUSB BAIL BY SCORE OF ONE GOAL TO NOTHING

First-Year Class, Demoralized by the Loss of Their President, And
No Math for the Second-Year Men.

Once again the Sophomore Class triumphed over the Freshmen by winning yesterday's Push Ball Fight on Franklin Field, securing one goal in exactly eight minutes after the referee's whistle called the opposing classes together.

A fair attendance of the student body, anxious to witness the inauguration of the new fight at Pennsylvania, and hoping to see the first-year men demonstrate their class spirit in their first opportunity before the Bethel Fight, was scattered in the south stand long before the rival contestants came upon the field.

The Sophomores, led by President Hargrave, were the first to enter the scene. They proceeded to the east goal, the defense of which they had been assigned. The Freshmen were not far behind, their slight delay being caused by lack of endurance, since the Sophomores had captured President Morrice near the goal post, and spirited him away in an automobile. Laere and Shoemacher led the class.

The mass-minded ball occupied the center of the field, and the two classes lined up on the fifty-yard mark, the Sophomore defending the east, the Freshmen the west goal. The opposing classes appeared very evenly matched, a slight advantage in point of numbers perhaps resting in favor of the Freshmen in view of 1912.

At 7:45 President Corkran, of the Junior class, threw the referee's whistle and the ball was on. The Sophomore, after a few minutes of sharp scrimmage, raised the ball in the air and several yards before, climbing upon the shoulders of classmates, pushed the ball over the heads of the Freshmen, and the rapid progress toward the goal. On the forty-five-yard line it was put out of bounds for the first time. This occurred again at the seventeen-yard mark and once more in the three-yard line. The Freshmen were unable to check the Sophomore advance, and the ball was pushed over their line, exactly eight minutes having been taken in gaining the goal.

Again the ball was placed in the center of the field, and the classes, this time defending different goals, lined up as before. For the remainder of the twenty-minute period the Freshmen fought desperately, keeping their opponents in the center of the field. Time was twice called when the ball was forced out of bounds, again in order to extricate two Freshmen whose position beneath the feet of the opposing class threatened gassing.

In the final moments of the fight the Freshmen weakened, and were only saved from being again scored upon by the referee's whistle, which called time with the ball resting on their fifty-yard line.

The struggle was clean and exciting. The band played successfully, the crowd was thoroughly entertained, and everyone seemed thoroughly satisfied with the display of the Push Ball Fight as an annual encounter between the two underclass.

Five Hundred Megaphones to Be Placed on Sale To-Morrow Morning.

One of the most important mass meetings of the year will be held tonight in the Devlinnity Triangle at 7:30. It is the earnest wish of the coaches and cheer and song leaders that every member of the student body should make it his duty to be present, for unless the team feels that the undergraduates are behind them, their chance for a victory tomorrow will be severely curtailed.

Although the majority of the football team and coaches will be at Window Room, do not let that in any way dampen your ardor.

The University Band will be on hand at the meeting, and part of the time will be spent practicing cheers and songs, in which as yet the students are by no means perfect. There will be a men's division from the coaches and members of the team. Every man in the University should turn out and make the meeting a success, and prove in the hands of time how good can win unless supported by the general student body.

The cheer leaders wish to state that there will be five hundred megaphones for the students to use at the upcoming to-morrow morning between nine and eleven o'clock.

reasons only second in Importance now to the Cornell game. Indeed, we feel It Is a game which stands on our schedule the fact that It Is held on the eve of the Push Ball Fight. No one in the University will miss see-from the Indians tomorrow the help of every man in the cheering section is needed. The cheering and singing at the Brown game on Saturday was not up to par for Pennsylvanias, and It was not due to any lack of energy or work on the part of the cheer or song leaders. There was a certain Sehargy and lack of spirit in the stands which was distinctly noticeable. This we hope will not occur again this year. The cheering and singing at tomorrow's game should eclipse any previous attempts of the stands this season, and we believe they will.

At to-night's meeting the different cheers and songs, together with some new songs, will be practiced. Turn out and make the meeting a success, and thereby make sure the success of the cheering and singing at tomorrow's game.

Next Sunday's Press is going to have so many good exclusive features that it is hard to tell about them all in this restricted space. But here is an outline of the principal features:

COLLEGE ATHLETICS

Professor LeBaron R. Briggs, of Harvard University, sides with Mr. Roosevelt against President Eliot of Harvard in favor of football. He says that "the coach is the element in football, that needs closest scrutiny today," argues for clean sport in all branches of athletics, and adds: "There is in the purification of college athletics noble work for large mind- ed men—the purification, not the abolition."

There are at present on the A. A. rolls as upholders one hundred and fifty men. The addition of six thousand seats to the seating capacity will necessitate an additional one hundred upholders. All men, both new and old upholders, who wish to act in that capacity to-morrow must sign their names, addresses and departments in the roll in the A. A. office. All who have served at any of the games this year will get the preference. Experience is not necessary, but good common sense is, and we want such men to handle the crowd.
