VARSITY OUTPLAYED BY SCRUB

SECOND TEAM MAKES BIG GAINS THROUGH OPPONENT'S LINES.

All Members of the Squad in Excellent Condition After the Carnegie Game. Exempt Manley—Keinath in Line Up.

Franklin Field was the scene of the most strict severe practice of the last two years yesterday afternoon. Only coaches, trainers and a few cross country runners were allowed inside the gates.

The Varsity team has returned from its Pittsburgh trip in excellent shape with the exception of Manley, whose return has been added to the list with the aid of Captain Halloran and Keinath. All these men are on their way to recovery, and it is not thought that their injuries will prove a serious handicap in the final struggles of the season.

The work of the Varsity yesterday was of a very light nature. Handling of points and forward passes, a snappy signal practice and drill were the only new formations constituted the preliminary practice, after which a fifteen-minute scrimmage was indulged in.

In view of the fact that Lafayette has such a strong eleven this year the Varsity practices will be in order all this week in preparation for the game on Saturday.

The Scrub caused quite a surprise to the coaches yesterday by playing havoc with the "Varsity line. Rams dell particularly seemed able to gain five yards at will through the line, and had the Scrub been allowed time, a score would have doubtless resulted. Manley and Scarlett were the only members of the regular Varsity not in the line up, but even then these men taken part in the scrimmage. It hardly seems that they could have checked the onslaught of Traitor Murphy's puppets.

University Political Club Rebels Do Their Part for Their Candidates

Interest at Pennsylvania in the Presidential election centres at the Law School. The leaders of the University political clubs are all law students, and a large number of the club members are from the Law School. Preparations have been made by the Republican and Democratic clubs and Bryan men to the polls to-day. W. F. Kelly, President of the Republican Club, has secured in excess of thirty thousand votes for Bryan. The Bryan group is to backward with the aid of the Law School and several other Pennsylvania Democrats who report to Dr. W. H. Burns today at the Democratic headquarters ready to work for Bryan.

The actual time in minutes and seconds required by the candidates to follow this order are:

T. Huntby, 21, 28.06; W. N. Keating, 21, 30.88; D. Alexan- der, 22, 30.21; K. W. H. Megnall, 23, 30.15; Welfie, 24, 30.16; O'Neill, 22, 30.54; Cus Ka., 21, 30.19; Ponton, 21, 30.90; Adams, 21, 31.17; Kletos, 21, 31.30; Romel, 21, 31.25; Moore, 21, 31.28; Hershel, 21, 33.19; Sheehan, 25.01.

Bible Study Classes.

Beginning with last week the Dormitory Bible Study Classes started their work for the year following the suggestions of the University Christian Association. A number of the fraternity freshmen have commenced work both men and women. Several of the Dormitory houses are taking an active interest in the work. In fre- quency of attendance and in the interest to have as leader one of its members, trained by Dr. J. H. Hille- rbrand, in Chicago, Prof. H. W. Fullwelker, '88 G, is to have charge of the fraternity work.

An offer is to be made to induce the Bible group into each Dormitory, the leaders being resident upper class men. The work will take the nature of a thirty to forty minute informal weekly discussion on the principles of the life of Christ. This work is to be under the direction of G. V. Aldrich, Bse. '07, who had charge of this branch of the association activities last year.

University Band Rehearses.

The University Band had its first re-hearsal last night in the Law School. Next Saturday the members of the band will have their second appearance in their new uniforms at the Lafayette game. A new drummer is needed. Anyone who can play the same is asked to report to Mr. H. W. Biddle, 21, 147 Liptonstr., Dormitories, to-morrow afternoon at 3.60 o'clock. There will be no practice of the University Band on Thursday at the usual time and place.

Medical Classes To-Day.

All classes in the Department of Medicine will be held to-day as usual. Signed: James T. Young, Director.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1908.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.
To-day the people of this country will choose their President for the next four years. The Pennsylvania is not a political paper. It does not wish to take sides on the questions at issue; but the University of Pennsylvania is an American institution and its members should stand for all that is best in American citizenship. It is the collegial men of the country that must be looked to, to guide public opinion into safe and sane channels.

The Pennsylvania wants to see every student of this University vote to-day, and vote for the right as he sees it.

UNIVERSITY REGISTRATION.
Most remarkable are the figures showing the enrollment at the University this year. The number of students now registered in all the departments reaches the grand total of 4,556, which is an increase of 277 over last year.

These figures are most significant, from the fact that during a period of financial stringency and depression the immense enrollment of the University, instead of falling off somewhat, has increased more than 6 per cent.; and yet those general figures of registration, large as they are and showing this percentage of increase, do not show the real strength and popularity of Pennsylvania. This may be readily seen by an examination of the enrollment figures of the Freshman Class and of the entire College. The Freshman Class registers an increase of 11 per cent., while The College as a whole shows the remarkable increase of 6 per cent. over last year’s registration.

There is only one department of the University which has raised the number of its enrollment. This is the Medical Department, and it is due to the additional entrance requirements which have been put in operation for the first time this year.

The student body at the University during the last five years has increased 25 per cent., while the College as a whole has increased more than 20 per cent.; but the College of the entire University.

The Freshman Class figures of the Freshman Class readily show the percentage of increase, do not show the magnitude of that increase. Indeed, as large as they are and showing generally figures of the entire, there is an increase for the first time that the University of Pennsylvania has gradually increased at a greater rate than any other American institution of like character, that it is rapidly becoming a recognized centre of culture, learning and research, and, lastly, that its influence is being spread over this continent, and through its large body of foreign students is reaching the remotest parts of the world.

Keith's Theatre.

A bill of the most exceptional merits is the Keith offering for this week, which includes some of the strongest native talent, with some acts that have never been seen in Philadelphia before, and also some of the most important of imitations from various parts of the country. Mabel Harrington and Joseph Howard, who present an act that is entirely original in the line of songs, and take precedence, Carrie De Mac has been well known for so many years that it is not necessary to make mention of her name. As the dainty "Pluffy Ruffler," who sings her own songs in her own dialect, Miss De Mac certainly wins all hearts. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crane have an absolutely new act, which they call "Pisky's Prodigal Parents." Mr. Fred Lindsay makes his local appearance in the "Quaker City" with an absolutely novelty. Mr. Lindsay is the celebrated Australian cowboy and hunter, who comes to America to display his marvelous skill in various strange and unusual feats, including the twenty-foot whip, in which he performs with a dexterity which challenges the world. Charlie Cose is well known to Philadelphians as one of the best monologists in the business. The Wild Panther Trio is one of the most popular of the mechanical novelties. Among others may be mentioned: The Australian cowboy, instrumental and vocal soloists; Fred Zobedi, contortionist; J. Warren Renner, permissible Tom Bateman, the dancing sailor; The Worthleys in a sketch with Miss "The Hunch," Allen Morris and Nino Paulo are on the bill, with other important novelties. The Kinetograph series will be of importance and interest.

Park Theatre—"Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch." There is no gauging the extraordinary popularity of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," which enters upon the second week of its engagement at the Park, November 5th. It has proven an inexhaustible fountain of mirth for American amusement lovers. "Mrs. Wiggs" has charms that soothe the most hardened of theatregoers and almost all of the characters in the play are distinct and highly interesting types. Philadelphians in renewing their acquaintance with Mrs. Wiggs, Leavy Larry, Miss Hazy, Mr. Whittlin, Tommy and the other delightful characters of the play, find a common bond of sympathy and union. It is a piece which, because of its originality and humor, season after season maintains its vogue in the theatre world. The introduction of humor, gall and wit and whoopism philosophy, appeals to all classes. The play teaches clearly and distinctly its mission—that of sunshine and laughter, cultured with a wholesome and optimistic philosophy. Blanche Chapman, who appears as the editor, notably Mrs. Wiggs, is receiving the best of her career in this part, as well as entire heart interest. The same is true of Vivian Ogden, as Miss Hazy, the moody and mischievous neighbor of Mrs. Wiggs, and of Charles Carter, in the role of Hiram Stubbins. Pretty Mary McManus, the clever impersonator of Lucy Mary, whose runaway flight from the permissions with Little Tommy furnishes the central thread of the plot, makes the most of that highly sympathetic character. The usual Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday matinees will be given.
