Football Mass Meeting To-Morrow

SEND OFF IS PROPOSED

There will be a monster mass meet- ing to-morrow morning, at 11.30, in front of College Hall, in connection with a "Trip of Honor" to New York to be given by the student body. A generous send-off is proposed for the team, and students are invited to gather at College Hall at 11 a.m. and proceed with the team to New York. The meeting will be held in the College Hall Assembly Rooms. The program will include addresses and music by student bands and choirs. The team will leave at 11.30 a.m. and proceed to New York via the Pennsylvania Railroad. They will arrive in New York at 6 p.m. and will be entertained at a banquet in the evening. The trip will end on Sunday morning, when the team will return to college via the same route. The trip is open to all students, and those interested are encouraged to attend.

MICHIGAN GAME

The Michigan Game Committee will be on the first floor of College Hall at 11 a.m. to-day and to-morrow to receive names of those who wish to make the trip to Michigan. The committee will be stationed in the lobby of College Hall, and students are encouraged to sign up for the special train to the Michigan game. Sign-up today.
brilliant and spectacular game of his life. He prevented Lafayette from making a touchdown by a brilliant run and a flying tackle; he made frequent long runs, at one time carrying the ball fifty-five yards before being downed; he kicked well and made three of the six touchdowns. From the moment the game started until he was taken out, late in the second half, he was a marvel of strength, courage and football brains. No team can boast of a better captain, and he is without doubt the greatest full-back in the country. Pennsylvania grade-students and undergraduates are proud of him and his team, and feel cool of the outcome of the Michigan and Cornell games.

ON TO MICHIGAN.

Today and to-morrow are the only two days left for undergraduates to sign up for accommodations on the special train to Ann Arbor for the Michigan game. The committee in charge of the trip will be on the first floor of College Hall at noon to-day and to-morrow to receive the names of those who intend to go and who have not yet signed for the trip. This train of one hundred men must be gotten. Pennsylvania must have a cheering section at the Michigan game—large enough to do some use to the team. The cheering and singing of a hundred Pennsylvania men at this game will infuse into the team a spirit which will be unequalled. Then the very fact that a special train of a hundred undergraduates are accompanying their team to Michigan will show to the West the kind of loyalty that Pennsylvania men have for their teams. Michigan has a great team this year and they are bending every effort—even practicing by daylight—to win from us this year. The sting of defeat from last year, when they were beaten on their own grounds for the first time in their history, is still fresh in their minds, and they are going to play the game of their life, to wipe out that defeat. But they are not going to succeed. Pennsylvania is going to win. With the proper support no team in the country can win from Captain Rollback and the men who played with him in such remarkable style on Saturday.

Do you want to be part of this support and see Pennsylvania win this game? If so, sign up to-day without fail.

THE LAFAYETTE GAME.

At Pennsylvania there is a real football team. If this fact has been obscured by any new-hearted烘样, this season his double has certainly been changed by Pennsylvania's masterly exhibition on Franklin Field Saturday. No championship teams in years gone by ever played in more perfect form than did our team against Lafayette's unbeaten eleven. Any aggregation of football brains and brains which can hold Princeton to a tie and win from Brown—the team which outplayed and really won from Yale on Saturday—is certainly a worthy foe. There is no doubt about it, but Lafayette has one of the strongest teams ever developed at Easton. Captain McCaa and his men from their powder room until Saturday felt that their team was worthy to be pitted against the best, and went into the game on Franklin Field with the confidence and courage which an unbeaten team always has as an extra asset. But Lafayette has no team! A different proposition when she faced Pennsylva-
