VARSITY LEAVES FOR ANN ARBOR

WILL PRACTICE ON DETROIT COUNTRY CLUBS GROUNDS.

Two-twenty in Party Accompanied by Three Coaches and Manager—Light Work Yesterday.

Twenty-two members of the Varsity football squad—Hollenback, Bellatt, Gaston, Draper, Keenath, Miller, Brad- den, Pills, Dietrich, Marks, Means, Mandor, Courat, Lamberton, Irwin, Burns, Parrott, Crooks, Fawcett, Num- mens, Young, Reagan—will report at 12.15 o'clock this morning at the Reading Terminal to take the train for Ann Arbor. The team will go direct to Detroit, where they will stay at the Detroit Country Club. Practice will be held every afternoon on the 1909 grounds until the day before the game, when the trip to Ann Arbor will be made.

It has not yet definitely been de- cided whether or not Keenath will start the game, but from his excellent exhibition in the Lafayette game, the latter has shown himself an able man at the quarter-back position.

Coaches Metzger, Mitchell, Stallard, Traher Murphy and Managers Sendly and Cheesman will accompany the team.

Empire State Club Meets.

The Empire State Club held its first meeting last night in Houston Club. A committee was appointed for a smoker, to be held Christmas week, and arrangements were made for a meeting the week before Christmas.

"HURRY UP" YOST.

Coach of the Michigan Eleven.

ever before upon the brains work of our eleven, as we feel that victory can only be obtained by outwitting the Ann Arbor eleven, which is so splendidly coached by Yost. Last year this same coach surprised us with some wonderful resolutions along the lines of new football, and it was only after the hardest of struggles that we won out.
This year our eleven will get into the game fully prepared to cope with such a crash, and it is more probable in its knowledge of modern football than any eleven of recent years.
Furthermore we place great dependence upon the fighting spirit of the men who compose the team, as no manucher or other players ever won the Red and Blue.

The reason has been a hand one to date, and many of our games were won only because of this same fight-less spirit of the eleven. The contest with the Harvard did not result in an overwhelming victory for Pennsylvania, as the men were physically unfit to play through the entire as ferociously as they started it, a condition due to the great number of injuries we received through the first day of the season. Following that game we had to labor to get the men in better condition, and the Lafayette site proved beyond a doubt that the train will be able to stand the hardest kind of a campaign. We will go out any lid down in its play. Fortunately the men came through this time without injury, and we should be able to play our best eleven against Michigan, and we look for a victory even though Michigan the great

GOOD-BYE AND VICTORY.

The Pennsylvania voices the sentiment of every undergraduate in wishing Captain Mohlman and his team: Goodbye and a glorious victory.

ATTEND THE MASS SHIPTEN. We hope to see the largest mass meeting in the history of the University gathered in front of College Hall this morning at 11:15. Every man from every department should assume his place in the campus promptly after the second hour. The procession of undergraduates, headed by the University Band, will march from College Hall to the Reading Terminal, and should reach there at twelve o'clock. As the team leaves at 12:30, there will be plenty of time to give them such a send off that the cheers and good wishes of the undergraduates will be still ringing in their ears when the whistle sounds for the game at Ann Arbor on Saturday. Many of the undergraduates who find it impossible to go to Michigan can do their duty to the team by attending this mass meeting this morning. In 1904 the team that went to Harvard was given a wonderful send off. Last year the squad was given a still more enthusiastic good-bye when it left for Ann Arbor. Let us make the send off of this morning the greatest in our history and see that the members of the team will never forget.

PROVOST'S RECEPTION. The Provost and Mrs. Harrison give their annual reception to first-year men on Friday evening, November 15th, at eight o'clock. This function, given each year in the Museum of the University, is one of the most delightful and pleasant social events of the year. The Provost and Mrs. Harrison are vitally interested in every man who comes to Pennsylvania, and they urge you to come in and meet them and to eventually receive them into the great Pennsylvania family. The first-year man at this reception meet the members of the Faculty and others who are interested in Pennsylvania. They are made to feel that the Provost and Mrs. Harrison, the heads of departments, and the professors and teachers with whom they daily come in contact are their friends and are really interested in their welfare. Each man of the entering classes should consider it an honor and a duty to attend this reception.

that it is possible for the eleven to play, and with captains sometimes for each position. If the worst comes to the worst, we shall be able to keep fresh men in the game without weakening the team, a point we were not quite sure of a week ago.

The eleven has had the benefit of some splendid individual coaching from such men as Charles Wharton and Clark Mitchell on the line; Jack Bridges for the ends; and Andy Smith, George Weed, Howard Street and Bob Petelos for the back field. While the final touches to the team work have been added by Carl Williams, whom everyone connected with football at Pennsylvania believes to be the best backer in the college world today. Each man has been permitted in his individual play and the team work has been brought to a high point of perfection by Williams.

Nothing in fact has been neglected, and we are ready to meet Michigan, believing that our men are able to win by a small margin after the hardest of games, which the contest is likely to prove.

One thing I cannot urge too strongly is the attendance of every Pennsylvania man who can possibly do so at this game. The eleven needs the moral support of every undergraduate, and we feel that our position in the inter-collegiate football world is greatly dependent on our presence; so we beg of you to come to Michigan and aid in giving Pennsylvania a great victory and a great team. Support of this kind is as necessary as the fighting spirit of '76, which this eleven sorely possesses, and if it is given by a sufficient number, then there can be but one result.

and Adams, the 1912 men. The race was won by Herbert Church, '22, in the remarkably good time of 22 miles in 2 hours and 24 minutes. The course was very close to seven miles. Both made an approximate average of 6.07 minutes to the mile. Pauli, '21, was a very close second, his time being 27 minutes 27 seconds. Church at the same time won the cross-country trophy for securing the most points in the three races which have been held. Previous to yesterday's race Brachman, '20, and Church were tied at four points each for the cup, but Church surpassed Brachman by about seven yards at the finish, the latter coming in third.

Coach Oriel feels very much encouraged at the decided improvement many of the men have made, and he now thinks that prospects are bright for a successful team.

The race with the Indians will be held at Fairmount Park on Saturday morning. The length of the race will be six miles and there will be nine men entered, seven of whom will count. The first seven Varsity men finished in the following order: Paulis, Brachman, Wilson, Wells, Deo, Gurn and Triflet.
