PRICE, TWO CENTS

SPECIAL TRAIN FOR ANN ARBOR

WILL LEAVE BROAD STREET STATION ON FRIDAY AT 4 P. M.

Athletic Association Will Send the Train—Subscription List Not Yet Complete—More Men Are Needed.

Now that the team has left for Ann Arbor, where it will meet the strong Michigan eleven next Saturday, several committees are arranging for special trains to carry the undergraduates to the game.

The Athletic Association has decided to send the Special team to the game, as they were registered faithfully in developing Pennsylvania's team. President C. W. Sheller, of the Junior Class, has appointed several men to the various departments to collect money to help send the University Band to Michigan, and it is almost certain that the Band will go on this special train leaving here on Friday.

The committee in charge of the special train is composed of Ralph Waite and J. Shipley Dixon. Arrangements have been made for a special train, which will leave the Broad Street Station Friday at 4:45 P. M. Allons will be the first stop and supper will be served at the Logan. The Logan will be Toledo, where the party will get breakfast, arriving at Ann Arbor about 9:30 A.M.

Returning the special train will leave Ann Arbor at 5:30 P.M., reaching Detroit in time for supper. Sunday will be spent at Niagara Falls and Buffalo. Leaving Buffalo Sunday night the train will arrive at Broad Street Station Monday morning at 7 a.m.

The rate of the trip will be $12.50, which covers railroad transportation, single berth in Pullman car and meals. There will be no special train for the alumni this year, but those who wish to go can secure accommodations on the train for the undergraduates at the same rate. Tickets must be purchased earlier in the season, and the following players have been named to represent the University association and go on the special train: Carl Olin, Taylor, Campbell, Burdick, Chandler, Davis, Keller, Twining, Wilson, Leonard, Malone, Mehlert and Elder. The number of persons that can be accommodated is limited, and all who wish to make the trip should communicate at once with the committee in Room 144, College Hall.

SUPPORT REPRESENTATIVE MEET.

The Dormitory Representatives held a special meeting last night to take action on the poor service of the telephone. The Dormitory attendants are giving the rooms. It was decided that not enough women were present to take care of the rooms, and a committee, consisting of Schaefer, Wilder, and Bloody, Chairman, was appointed to take up the matter with the proper authorities. The matter of the telephone service was also brought up. At present there are only two phones for the dormitories and this has been a serious inconvenience, especially when relatives or friends have tried to call them on the long-distance phone. A committee, with Flanagan as Chairman, was appointed to take care of this.

It was also decided to call attention to the attention which the shower buckets and toilet rooms are receiving in present.

THE MICHIGAN PARTY IS NOT YET COMPLETE

The committee in charge of the trip reports that thirty men are still necessary in order to make a special train, who are doubtful must decide to-day.

COMMITTEE WILL SIT FROM 12 TO 2 IN ROOM 355, COLLEGE HALL

Send the University Band to Ann Arbor

Collections are coming in rapidly, but the University undergraduate should feel it a duty to contribute to this fund. The University Band will help materially in arousing spirit at the game.

TO GO TO MICHIGAN

The Pennsylvania football team arrives at Ann Arbor today. On Saturday they will play Michigan before a crowd that will probably reach forty thousand. There is going to be a Red and Blue cheering section of one hundred men there whose spirit will surpass all the rest of the forty thousand. Just as the spirit of the Red and Blue team will completely overcome any team that Michigan can put in the field against it. Seventy of that hundred have signed their names to go on the trip. The other thirty have not signed today. Will you be one of those men to carry Pennsylvania spirit to Ann Arbor and see "Bill's" team beat Michigan for the second time on their own field?

You can go on the trip for $7.50—the price of a suit of clothes or a couple of theatre parties downtown. This University has got to show to the West that there are a hundred men in it whose loyalty can be measured by dollars and cents as well as by educational or athletic successes. Five were of the cheerers. You yourself can go if you will give us something else. Sign up!!

THE DEMONSTRATION

The greatest demonstration of loyalty and backing ever accorded a college team. This is what we term the good-bye given the Pennsylvania squad of players and coaches yesterday morning as they departed for Michigan. The overwhelming and spontaneous expression of devotion and loyalty to the team which is to wage a mighty battle at Ann Arbor next Saturday was the most inspiring sight ever witnessed at the University. The great body of Pennsylvania undergraduates did their duty almost to a man. Within fifteen minutes of the hour set more than three thousand had left their classes and were in marching order. The march from College Hall to the Reading Terminal was triumphant and orderly and the tremendous crowd to the team and inspiring. That every Pennsylvania man believes in the team and is proud of every man on it was shown decisively, Pennsylvania will win if it is possible for any eleven men to defeat the Michigan team.

The Pennsylvania wants to convey the undergraduate spirit for making the mass meeting such a titanic success, as we believe the remarkable spirit shown will sweep the team to victory.

To Organize Spanish Club

Among men who are taking Spanish in College a movement is on foot to organize a Spanish Club, to be known as "Societa Expana." Features of the new organization will include monthly speakers in Houston Hall, which will be addressed by prominent men, and a conversational class, meeting on Tuesdays at 5:15 o'clock in Room 117, College Hall, under the instruction of Dr. J. P. W. Crawford. No dramatic attempt is contemplated by the club because of the difficulties involved in obtaining an audience. Organization has not as yet been perfected. In all probability this will take place at the next regular meeting, scheduled for Wednesday evening, November 18th, in Houston Hall.

Course in Universal Literature

Dr. J. P. W. Crawford, of the Romance Language Department, this year offers as his subject in Universal Literature a course in "The Modern Novel." a treatise of the works of the nineteenth century novelists of France, Spain, Italy, and possibly Russia and Norway. The course consists of lectures and readings in English translations, and counts as a free elective or an English group subject. It comes on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 12:15 o'clock.

Gymnastic Team Practice

Nine candidates reported at the Gymnasium yesterday afternoon in response to a call for candidates for the Gymnastic Team. Five were of last year's "Varsity" gymnastic team. The other four were new men. The list of candidates are Kelly, Blacikia, Hemporn, Laird, Lewis, Captain Bradford, Neuring, Shilling, Dizer, Wyse, Perkins, O'Brien, and Wells. All will practice when required.

Garick—"Fluffy Ruffles." "Fluffy Ruffles" at the Garick Theatre has made a complete and solid success. Any time a bright, attractive musical play with timeless music and totally without that quality which some people term stage, comes to Philadelphia, it is sure to receive the patronage of that army of people who like to go to the theatre to be amused, and not shocked. Such is the entertainment offered by Harry Will iams and his very capable company, and this week being the last, it is almost sure to result in audiences that will pack the theatre.

Coming, "The Ginger Bread Man." The demand for seats for "The Ginger Bread Man" for Thanksgiving Day and Army and Navy Football Night at the Garick Theatre has been so great that it has been decided to place seats for these two days on sale at the box office on Monday morning.

Wanted—"Paid in Full." Seats for "Paid in Full" for Thanksgiving Day and Night will be placed on sale Monday morning at the Wal mart.
