PUT THROUGH SHORT PRACTICE AND HAS TWO-MILE WALK.

Men Cleared All Along Route and Are First—Go In Two to One in Favor of Pennsylvania.

[Special to The Pennsylvania.

Detroit, Mo., Nov. 11.—After beating all along the route the Pennsylvania football team arrived here in good condition and the best of spirits and was surprised to find an hour of snow on the ground. They were immediately taken to the grounds of the Detroit Country Club, which were entirely given over to their use. The squad was at once put through short practice, but as a crowd soon gathered, only rudimentary plays were made.

Weather is still poor condition and killer may yet go in at quarterback back. Pile and Lamberton are being constantly shifted at guard. The backfield are now in the quarter-play, the afternoon the team had a running walk and another short practice. Michigan outweighs our team by pounds in team, but wants odds of two to one on Pennsylvania.

Reports from Michigan's camp are in the fact that Yost has caused a great shake up in the Blue and Maize organization by several shifts in the line, putting in Linaham and Davidson, two practically green men, at end.

Parnall opposition, which kept Watkina, the Wolverine star, out of the Kentucky game, has been again brought to bear on his playing in Saturday's contest, and his appearance against Pennsylvania is a matter of doubt and anxiety in Michigan support. Michigan, however, is full of confidence in Von, who, it is claimed, has at least ten tricks up his sleeves, everyone of which is as good as the double forward paae sprung last season and which so nearly netted the Blue and Maize a touchdown.

The report has also been given out that at the last secret practices, using Blue and Red formations, the Michi-

JUNIOR WEEK ARRANGEMENTS

Plans Are Completed for Tea and Ball. University Night at the Adelphi.

Work of the Junior Week Committee is nearing completion and arrangements are nearly perfected for what promises to be the greatest social week in Pennsylvania history. Chairman Bailey has announced that the theatre party will be held on Monday evening at the event of "The Unkle World" at the Adelphi. A gala Pennsylvania Night is expected. The house in to be decorated in Red and Blue and the boxes are to be occupied by the various fraternity with the exception of one, which is to be reserved for Mrs. C. C. Ham.

Dr. Woolley to Lecture.

To-morrow evening Dr. Woolley, of the University Museum, will address the Junior classes on his subject, "Recent Excavations of the University in Nubia."

BAND WILL GO TO ANN ARBOR

SUBSCRIPTIONS INCREASED BY DORMITORY COLLECTIONS.

The University Band will go on the trip to Ann Arbor to help the team to victory on Saturday. The subscriptions for this purpose were greatly in- creased last night by collections taken in the Dormitories and the different fraternity houses.

At the meetings of the Michigan Game Committee yesterday it was an- nounced that at least fifteen more men are needed at the special $25.50 rate to secure the special train. It is suggested by the Committee that men at examinations and holding houses organize pools to send one of their members to the game. In this way all men entering the pools are doing something to help the team to win.

The itinerary of the trip is as fol- lows: Two o'clock tomorrow, at 7.45 from Broad Street Station; arrive at Allston over evening special at two o'clock. Saturday—Arrive at Toledo in the morning at 8.45 o'clock, where board for train; arrive at Ann Arbor; via Ann Arbor Railroad, at 2.25 in the morning. Sunday—Leave De- troit at 2 A.M. (breakfast in the din- ing car); arrive at Niagara Falls at 9 A.M. (dinner at the Clifton Hotel); leave Niagara Falls at 4.30 in the afternoon, arriving at Buffalo at 5.30 P.M. (dinner at hotel); leave Buffalo, via Pennsylvania Railroad, at 7.30 P. M. Monday—Arrive at Broad Street Station at 7.50 A. M.

THE LAST APPEAL.
The Committee in charge of the Michigan trip will receive no more applications for accommodations on the special train to Ann Arbor after 2 o'clock today. Every man who intends to go must decide before that time and give his name to the Committee.

Fifteen men are still needed to insure this train. The Pennsylvania believes that this number will be made up by two o'clock this afternoon. We are certain that the undergraduates are not going to allow this project of sending a hundred loyal Pennsylvania supporters to the game to fall through. It means too much to the team.

The Pennsylvania-Michigan game is one of the really great contests of the year. Michigan has probably the greatest team in her history and they are being coached by one of the most noted football strategists in the country. That they have their hearts set on winning this game and are working night and day with that end in view there is not a doubt.

The following, from "The Michigan Daily," will give an idea of the attitude of the Ann Arbor university as the Pennsylvania game:

"* * * Since the time that Michigan secured relations with conference schools, the game with Pennsylvania has come to be looked upon as the really important contest of the season, and the entire energy of the players and coaches is bent toward developing a team that will be able to uphold the honor of Michigan against Pennsylvania of the West against the East. For two successive years the Eastorcers have been returned victors, and until yesterday it looked like a repetition of November 14th, as the team had failed to round to form as regards injuries it had received. Now, however, with the first three hard games of the season out of the way successfully, the turning point of the season appears to have been reached, and we believe once coach Yost and his men convinced Michigan's friends that they will be as likely represented on Ferry Field when the Quakers make their annual appearance."

The Pennsylvania is certain that the special train will be made certain by noon to-day. We want to take this occasion to congratulate those who have already signed up for the trip on the spirit they have shown, as we believe it will be through their example and initiative that the Pennsylvania section at Ann Arbor on Saturday will be made possible.

AN APOLOGY.
The Pennsylvania has devoted its columns for the last week to matters relating to the Michigan trip and the approaching game at Ann Arbor. We believed this to be our duty and have put all the enthusiasm we have been able to muster in our columns relative to these most important matters. Our work will be crowned with success, and predict that at 1:45 P. M. to-morrow the special train, carrying over one hundred undergraduates, including the University Band, will leave Broad Street Station for Ann Arbor.

We regret, however, that we have been compelled, on account of lack of space, during the last few days to withhold certain University news of importance. The Pennsylvania feels that the reason for this is understood by all undergraduates, and wants to assure every man in the University that its columns are open at all times for five news concerning any matter which concerns Pennsylvania.

Copy for "Punch Bowl." There will be a meeting of the "Punch Bowl" staff in Room 122, Michigan, at eight o'clock Monday evening. All copy for the football number should be turned in at the office, Law School, before noon to-morrow.

Deutscher Verein Elections. The Deutscher Verein last night elected the following officers: Voigt, K. Scholz; Vice-President, H. P. Elsner; Schreiber, J. D. Stem; Corresponding-President, A. H. Miller; Secretary, R. Rosenbaum.

Berks County Club Meeting. A meeting of the Berks County Club will be held-to-morrow evening, at 7:30 o'clock, in Houston Club. All men from Berks County are requested to be present.

Walnut—"Peggy Machree."
Joseph O'Mara, the famous Irish tenor, was given a genuinely Irish welcome at the Walnut Street Theatre on Monday night, when he presented for the first time in this part of the country the charming Irish comedy, "Peggy Machree." Mr. O'Mara has enjoyed a vogue in Great Britain as a leading tenor in English grand opera, and his work in "Peggy Machree" last Monday night fully sustained the good reports which have reached us on this side of his ability as a singer and actor.

"Peggy Machree" is out of the usual run of Irish dramas. The story is an entertaining one and works out in a most consistent way. It is filled with musical numbers and they all are above the average. The introduction of several of the Irish folk songs lends a quality of worth to the interpolations, and the music supplied by such capable men as Clarence Lucas, the arranger; Charles Wood and Michele DePorte, makes the whole score better than we are accustomed to in the Irish dramas professed by the singing comedian stars.

Mr. O'Mara was in excellent voice and rendered the fine old Irish melodies in the manner which has won for him the reputation of being the foremost interpreter of his country's music now before the public. He is an excellent actor, and knowing the Irish character as well as he does, gives an impersonation of the Celt in a most artistic style.
