KENNETH, KIEFETER, MUNCHOL, AND MCADOOEN ON HAND.

Chances for Winning Five Exceptionally

K of the last season's team.

With fifteen varsity candidates and nineteen Pennsylvania reporting at the first call, the coming basketball season for the Pennsylvania looks very bright. The chances for a winning "Vandy" first are exceptionally good as only one man-Filgaret-is lost from last year's team. Kenneth, Kelvin, though and Included, the first two being All-Americans last year, with Bill and Todd in the strong positions.

A spirited practice was held last night in Westington Hall. The full varsity team met up for a prac-

Ruediger and Carron, forward positions; Denna, center; Toby and Dunham, forwards.

The following is a complete list of those reported last night:

B. Brown, 5; T. Robinson, 5; R. Demanyi, 5; W. Blakeman, 5; R. Hooleman, 5; J. adjusting to the playing.
The game at Ann Arbor was a marvel to the on-lookers. It heralded the same, and their supporters. They played an almost faultless game, and their work in all departments of the game was superb. A victory over Cornell will certainly place Pennsylvania in the game and study the comparative strength of the two elevens. On account of the crushing defeat administered to Coach Yost's men, we have no doubt but that Pennsylvania will be robbed of her glorious performance. The minds of many by the argument that Michigan is not so strong after all and cannot be compared in strength to any of the big Eastern teams. This argument is natural to anyone who did not witness the game. Those who were at Ann Arbor on Saturday have an entirely different feeling. Captain Shults and his men we firmly believe are worthy opponents of any Eastern eleven. They are a large, heavy and fast combination, with plenty of fight and spirit. They are thoroughly drilled in their repertoire of plays, and their attack is varied and powerful. They understood the game under the new rules and many of their formations are built upon this style of play. To a team less resourceful and less powerful than Pennsylvania they would prove more dangerous. We sincerely believe and we know that impartial critics who witnessed the game at Ann Arbor on Saturday feel that Michigan has a team which is as strong as either Yale or Harvard and far superior to Princeton.

Pennsylvania has the greatest team in the country. It is not a one-man team, although Captain Hollembiek in as great a star as either Coy or Schults is individually. Our team is built up into a symmetrical whole. No man who represents Pennsylvania on this year's football eleven is a giant or on extraordinary human being in any other way. They are all ordinary beings, coached by a board of graduates, who work hard and think and who have evolved the greatest system of defense and offense in the country. As a further asset, which is not the least by any means, the team and coaches are chock full of Pennsylvania spirit, and this means success wherever Pennsylvanians go.

The boxes for the night will be opened Saturday at 5 p.m. Some of the features of the Salome dance and many other parties will be scattered throughout the house.

SALE OF THEATRE TICKETS

On Monday evening, November 27th, at 9 o'clock, the Junior Class will give their annual theatre party at the opening performance of "The Mimic World" at the Adelphi. Arrangements have been made for introducing many Pennsylvania specialties in the acting and for decorat- ing the boxes. The "Song of the Colleges" and Gertrude Hoffman's wonderful rendition of the Salome dance will be among the features. The boxes for the night will be occupied by the various college fraternities, and many other parties will be scattered throughout the house.

The Committee is making great efforts to make the production a great success, and we hope their efforts will be repaid by a larger attendance. It has been some time since the Junior Class has given a college a truly Pennsylvania night, but this year great strides are being made in that direction.

The seats will be put on sale to-day and may be procured at the Box Office or at any of the box offices in the University. The Committee regrets that they were not able to have the names of the committee forwarded to the bookellers in time to have these names on the tickets. All who are interested are asked to secure their seats at once through any of the bookellers or box offices.
