TEN COLLEGES HAVE ENTERED TEAMS OF SEVEN RUNNERS.

Prospects of Fencing Team

McClintock, '11 M., a Former Princeton Star, Has Joined the Squad.

it now seems a certainty that Pennsylvania will have a stronger fencing team than she has had for some time. When practice began last week, Robert W. Phy.

TEN colleges, represented by seven runners, will compete in the inter-of these Mhihan and Herrmann will probably be present.

Up to the present year the meet has been held under the auspices of the old I. C. C. C. A. However that association was taken over by the I. C. C. C. A. last October so for the first time the latter association will hold the meet.

New rules have been found for this year's competition. The order in which each team seven instead of five men will enter and five instead of six will score. On account of these changes and because the I. C. C. C. A. has been in existence for only one year it is expected that all teams will be held for next year.

The meet will be held every year since its foundation. However the large number of entries this year, and particularly the entry of Michigan, with its strong list of distance men, will cause the Ithacans to do some hard work to retain their position.

Pennsylvania's team consists of Captains Foul, Doo, Brennan, Wilson, Whitt and Johns, and Tyson are substitutes.

These four teams are Democrats and their captain, their majesty and their tutor. Dool was a member of the Olympic team and in the trials May and Tower finished close to him.

The cross-country meet between the University of Pennsylvania freshmen and Central High School, which took place yesterday afternoon, was won by the Freshmen by the score of 25-26.

The team was three and one-half miles, starting from the Boat House. The first ten men finished as follows: Hoiver, C. H.; Horton, Freshmen; Morgan, Freshmen; Mcderry, Freshmen; Mcderry, Central High; Church, Freshmen; Weir, Freshmen; Roster, Central High; Givven, l. H.; Morgan, C. H.

The following meet at the training table for lunch at 11.30. The team will again West Wall, the station for Princeton at 12.37. Captain Foul, Kau, Kall, Gunn, Wilson, Tyson and Griffiths.

Signed: A. S. Greer, Manager.

CHAPEL ATTENDANCE

There has been for a time a disposition on the part of some members of the Faculty, and particularly among those of the Engineering Department, to discourage students' attendance at the Chapel exercises.

It is maintained that this extra quarter of an hour might be used more profitably in the classroom, as a great majority of the students never attend Chapel services on the occasion of some special event.

This would of course allow the classes for the day to be dismissed a quarter of an hour in advance of the regular time.

We, however, are opposed to any such scheme. More than that we do not see why Chapel should not be made compulsory with the students of every department of College.

No man can find anything in the Chapel exercises in opposition to his religious beliefs. No man can derive anything but benefit from them, and this benefit is not only in a religious sense. The few minutes of quiet are almost certain to put a man in the mood for study and thought, and if they do not affect him, he still is no worse than before.

The tendency of the day is to get away from these old customs. We have no time to think, or to meditate.
We are essentially materialistic and for some reason take a pride in it. It is the duty of the colleges and universities in this country to offset this influence of an industrial age, preserve high ideals, and send out men who will live these ideals in the world as nearly as it is possible for human beings to do so. It is the duty of the University of Pennsylvania to be foremost among the universities of the country in this respect as it is in others. One of the ways to do this is to make attendance upon Chapel exericises as important, if not more important, than attendance at Gymnasium.

FRESHMEN, WAKE UP!

Where are the Freshmen posters?
From time immemorial the Freshmen have been given until the Fifteenth of November each year to put up their posters. No entering class in the last decade has ever procrastinated on the date, as years ago it became a custom to accept this date as final.

The Class of 1912, however, in its customary excess, have evidently decided to change a college custom for its own convenience, and will evidently put up a few pieces of colored paper with a few notes of paste when it suits them—probably in their drill and Senior year, if they should happen to feel like it by that time.

The class cannot plead ignorance of the date. It is their business to find out such matters from the Undergraduate Committee. However, it seems to us incredible that every man in the Freshman Class should be ignorant of this fact.

The Pennsylvania does not posses a leisure of scraps. We do not be-though in keeping the two lower classes at dagger's points throughout the year, and we are hardly sick of being compelled every few days to become the Freshman Class as regards its duty in respecting Pennsylvania customs.

The entering class in College this year is the largest in the history of the University, and it is safe to say its members have shown less spirit in going out for teams, in entering the other forms of college activities, and in respect for University customs than the Freshman Class in the last fifteen years.

The Class of 1912 must wake up.
Find out from the Undergraduate Committee and your friends what is expected of you and do. Don't fall asleep and be advertise in everything you attempt to do, but wake up and keep wide awake and work for the honor of your class, which carries with it the honor of Pennsylvania.

News of the Dormitories.
The Dormitory authorities have at last decided to tear out the two steps in the second-story hallway of North House, and to put an inclined plane in their stead. These steps are situated in a dark recess of the hall and have been the cause of many a bruised shin.

Musical Club Concert.
All members of the Musical Club report at the University House, Twenty-fifth and Lombard streets, at 9:45 tonight. Strictly full dress will be worn. Take Lombard street cars on 9th street, signed "J. A. William, President and Manager."
