PROFESSORS AT CONVENTION

Pennsylvania Men at Twenty-second Annual Association Gathering.

The Twenty-second Annual Convention of the Association of Colleges and Preparatory Schools of the Middle States and Maryland was held on November 27th and 28th at Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, Pa. The convention was presided over by Professor Edwin C. Crawley, Lightner Willmer and Professor Arthur H. Qahan.

On Friday afternoon Professor William A. Shipman, of Princeton, took the floor, in a discussion of the general topic, "Are We Educating the Rising Generation?"

On Saturday morning Professor Crawley gave the report of the Committee on College Entrance Certificate Board. This report was adopted by convention. In reference to this report Professor Qahan commented as follows: "The result of the action of the work of this committee will probably be a joint or such a certificate board for the Middle States and Maryland which will provide a list of schools from which the courses which comprise the board will accept students upon certificate. The result will undoubtedly be the raising of the standard of the secondary schools in this section of the country."

The Pennsylvania "Extra." The efforts of the Pennsylvania Board in getting out an Extra with full fall выпуск for the University and Cornell College game were appreciated by the following from the "Public Ledger": "The Daily Pennsylvania," published at the University of Pennsylvania, appeared two minutes after the close of the University of Pennsylvania-Cornell football game with a detailed report of every play. The "Punch Bowl" also brought extra editions.

"Punch Bowl" Out.

This month's "Punch Bowl" convinced the public of the value of the course in international law. The editorialists are breezy and the whole of Philadelphia is interested. The "Punch Bowl" contains much that has not been mentioned in the "Punch Bowl". It shows the picture of "Big Bill," which all sportsmen are familiar with.

"Soccer" Practice Yesterday.

About twenty-five "soccer" candidates took part in practice yesterday afternoon. The first and second teams exchanged backs and forwards and lined up for two short halves. Neither side was able to score.

Soccer Practice Today.

There will be a meeting of the Radnor High School Club on the Radnor High School Field next Friday afternoon. The captains will take part in the game towards the Don's Trophy.

The election, which closes next Sat-day, however, gives every student the right to correct any abuse he may feel has existed in the past by exercising his ballot wisely and well. To choose the twelve best men out of a list of twenty-three candidates is not an easy task; it requires all voters to vote intelligently in order that the po-positions now vacant may be filled by the best type of men.

Bl-Monthly Swim on Monday.
The third of the series of bi-monthly swimming events will take place in the Gymnasium next Monday evening.
Besides the hundred feet novice race there will be handicap events consisting of a fifty, one hundred and two hundred yards swims, a relay race between the Varsity, Scrub, Freshman and Pleyed teams, plunge for distance and fancy diving. All members of the swimming squad are urged to partici-patate.

THE BANQUET FIGHT.
It is perhaps not too early to comment on an institution which has sprung up between the two lower classes of the last few years—the annual fight at the Freshman banquet.
Several times, and owing to the interest taken by the daily press of the city, especially last year, the public of Philadelphia has been greatly aroused over the disorderly scenes at attendant upon these underclass functions; unfavorable criticism has been proverb in quarters where the fair name of the University should be preserved, and the whole affair has become too serious to treat lightly as one of the necessary steps in the education of the young.
If the banquet were held somewhere on the campus and the hall and utensils were made of some indestruct-able material like cast iron, so that no property could be destroyed, none of the proprieties violated and nothing damaged but the dignity of the would-be heroes, we might be infused to favor such an exhibition of inter-class spirit. But when the dining place is a public restaurant and the property destroyed is the property of strangers to the University family, we do not hesitate to label the action unworthy of Pennsylvania men. More severe language could be used, but there is no need for sermonizing; it is perfectly evident that the banquet fight is bad and should be discon-
