TAYLOR’S FUNERAL ON SATURDAY

COMmUNICATION.

The Pennsylvania Journal for 23 members of the University to attest to this event, but it is responsible for the same.

New Haven. Ynnyn.

Dear Dr. Smith:—Enclosed are some lines which have come to me in the last two or three as a suggestion for a new Pennsylvania hymn to supplement the one written by others we now have. It is designed to be sung to the tune of "Lanterns alight," which I have already written in your hymnal. If it is not in the new used in Chapel, you will find it in the 1890 Methodist Hymnal, No. 408.

If you think it is worth trying it I suggest that we get the Pennsylvania Indian to put it some more with a notation of the effect that it is to be tried in Chapel on some spect- lar occasions and will send you a copy of the suggestion that he put out and brought along. There would not be much expense in having it printed in the hymnal from the type as set up for this purpose.

If it, however, does not strike you as worth trial, I shall not feel at all injured if you consign it to the waste basket.

With kindest regards,

PAUL T. CHERINGTON.

FORWARD, PENNSYLVANIA.

Since I was the one at the morning service at the United States Christian Union I will briefly greet you in a few seconds.

We have left a priceless record of brilliant and important, but from this approach of the past.

There is a story in the season to come.

To greater things to be.

The vision stands before Thee.

Thou dost see a thousand to our Pennsylvania—Thou shall not go alone.

Shall we, shall we thy children, Behold the step or fall?

Shall we withhold our utmost When less will not avail?

The future shall be bounteous; To thee we pledge our all.

March on, O Pennsylvania

Be the first to call.

Chess Scholastic Announced.

The Chess Club at a recent meeting arranged for the chess events. The schedule follows:

10th December, German Open, M. C. A. December 24th, 8th, 31st, Corwin, Brown and Pennsylvania meet, Philadelphia being represented by the Whitehall Club. February 5th, 20th, March 20th, January 5th, Cambridge and the American universities.

Mr. Lloyd’s Class Postponed.

The Light! Light! Light!

Lights through the windows in the Dormitories last night owing to a breakage. In the position of the windows fifty students abused in a nightshirt parade in the Triangle at about 4.30 to a picturesque racket. At about 4.30 the lights came on.

UNDERCLASS FOOTBALL TODAY

Sophomores and Freshmen to Meet on Franklin Field in Annual Game.

The first interclass game for the championship of the cylinders will be played this afternoon on Franklin Field. It will be between the Sopho- more and Freshman and will count a point towards the Dean’s Trophy.

The candidates for the Sophomore team were put through a spirited final practice on Saturday afternoon, and a splendid contest is anticipated, for the Freshmen lose only a few men from their great varsity eleven.

"Big Hill" HoloHacket and "Gas" Ziegler will be the officials for the game, which goes off at 3.30 o’clock.

These games were provocative of much excitement last year, an un- scheduled "scramble" being narrowly avoided in the case of the Sophomore team, which was beaten out of the game, was really undecided, and it was not until the last minutes that it was decided which team would be the meet the victors of the upper class conflict.

Freshman Debate Trials.

Trials for the underclass debaters’ team which is to represent the Class of 1910 in the affiliated colleges’ debate will take place to-night, at 7.30 o’clock, in Lyceum Hall.

Mr. Simon, who is interested in debating must try for a place on the team, is to be the chief umpire of the debate, and the Freshmen must take part.

Dauphin County Club Meeting.

An important meeting of the Daup- hiny County Club will be held tonight, at 7.15, in Room 3, Hascon Club. At this meeting officers will be elected for the year, and a new chairman will be elected for the Advisory Committee. Signed: J. C. Balsiger, Secretary.

Junior Ball Committee Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the Junior Ball Committee to-night, in Room 206, College Hall. All members of the committee who have not already turned in their money and musical tickets will do so as soon as possible, for a final report must be made and counters ordered.

Signed: F. A. Lewis, M. Charnett.
