CHAPEL SPEECH DELIVERED BY PROFESSOR CHILDE.

The Pennsylvania takes pleasure in printing hereafter, with the conclusion of the matter so delivered at the celebration of the three hundredth anniversary of the University of John Milton’s birth, as follows:

Presentation of Address to Milton Tercentenary Address

of

his aspiration

new beauty,

things

versa and diction

needs dallj to

man. He lifted

minds possible, the fall

purely poetic lines,

Idolatry;

from Puritan New England.

Hilton stood beside

the pillars

law," "the right to govern

whatever nation,

better than slaves

conceived, and religious,

ends Image, but he who attained to elevation, for

and like the abbeys of England, na

England and

in spiritual or

Bod*•

and expelion depends upon

record classes

for the Edison Phonograph

the conflicting ends of education, the fall

and

of the three

Pennsylvania to Puritan

England and

in the

in the light, in

gifts,

the settlement,

for the Library Privileges for Students.

through the courtesy of Mrs. M. D. Brumbaugh, Superintendent of City Schools, and of Miss Ada A. Hively, librarian of the Pennsylvania Library, the privileges will be extended to such students of the University as may care to use it. The Library is in Room 88, City Hall, and is open from nine to four o'clock on Saturdays, when it closes at twelve o'clock.

Library Privileges for Students.

The cast of the play was made up of students, and was presented by the University Orchestra.

Sophomores on the New Crescent.

The Sophomores yesterday defeated the class of eleven by a score of 23 to 6, the scoring resulting from a field goal from the twenty-yard line. The Sophomores were aided by two points, kicked by Lewis.

The 1912 players failed to exhibit the same spirit to which they were accustomed in the previous game, and the Sophomores were the more successful.

The Sophomores succeeded in securing the coveted pigskin after the contest.

For the Pennsylvania, the success which attended the Sophomore team during the past year was due largely to the presence of the Sophomore voting power.
CHAMPIONSHIP GAME POSTPONED.

The Junior-Senior introduces football game for the championship of the College Department this evening unit in their Annual Christmas Tree Celebration. It is a gratifying fact to note that this occasion has become a fixture in the department. It is an institution which promotes a feeling of good fellowship and success in bringing together clever and pleasant re-} Freshman Class Pins. Freshman Class pins may be obtained Wednesday, December 10th, from any of the following: Williams- son, Thompson, Wharton; Gillingham, Adams, Dollitt, Arts, Fossey, Kratz, Pilling, Engineering. Price, fourteen each, post paid and with safety catch, $2.50. Manufactured by Allen A. Kerr, 1616 Chestnut street.

Varsity Debate Preliminaries. The preliminary trials for members of the "Varsity" debate team who will take part in the Triangular League debates with Columbia and Cornell will be held this Saturday evening, at 7:30 o'clock. In Price Hall, Law School.

Senior Record Committee. The following members of the Senior Record Committee must hand in their assignments by this afternoon, at 1:15. Barrett, Woltenholme, Dick- erson, Perkins, Westcott, Myers, Roop, Brown and Martin.

Delaware Club to Meet. The regular monthly meeting of the Delaware State Club will be held this evening, at eight o'clock, in Houston Hall. On this date subscriptions for the dance are due.

Red and Blue Candidates. Candidates for the business manage- ment of the "Red and Blue" will re- main every evening this week at seven o'clock in Room 45, Bishop White House, Dormitory.

Found—Fraternity Pin. Found, an Alpha Alpha Kappa pin. Inquire of Peters, '99 D.

CHRISTMAS CARDS AND CALENDARS

UNIVERSITY LAUNDRY

3407 WOODLAND AVENUE

WHEN YOU NEED MONEY

MORRIS MEYERHOFF

3216 MARKET ST.

Both Telephones

High Class Service

SOUTHSIDE LIVERY STABLES

J. P. DONOHUE, Proprietor

NORTHEAST CORNER OF FORTIETH AND LUDLOW STS., PHILA.