REV. H. ROSWELL BATES SPEAKS

Addresses Students at Sunday Services on the Christian and Catholic Spirit.

Rev. H. Roswell Bates, of New York, delivered the address at the regular Sunday Services in Houston Club Auditorium, and his theme was the ever-new message of Christ and the Christian spirit to the men of man. It was an earnest and appealing plea for the truth and the beauty that lie in the evangelical spirit which was given in part:

"The message of 'peace on earth, good will to men,' is one which we should realize in its actual fulfillment in our lives. We are coming to neglect the true meaning of Christianity and work only in the form for the thing itself."

When the shepherds watched their flocks on the hills of Bethlehem they were greeted by the messengers of Christ's birth, because they were guardians of the sheep which were set apart for God's service. These shepherds were kept forever under God's open sky. They were fitty consecrated to the sacred purpose of their calling by the faithfulness of God, cherishing in their lives, consecrating us for the highest functions of existence, and dedicating us for His service."

"The message of Christ has offered to us the unselfish, the impulsive, the active spirit. Christ made at last the powerful rock on which he built his Church, and Peter's once hasty tones spoke words that called multitudes to Christ. He offered to us the message where we take the name of Christ, let us incorporate it into our acts and thoughts. We cannot attempt to imitate Christ, but we must share our thoughts with him in order to fulfill the nobler that lies within our powers and within our hearts.":

Combined Musical Clubs' Trip.

The Combined Musical Clubs gave a concert Friday evening at East Orange High School. The members of the various clubs were in good voice, and the programme included the Cantus for his interest as the "point of the whole church.""

The "Evening Times.""

It will not be perfection. It was very much an accomplishment."

The 'Varsity cross-country picture will be a gala one. The unparal- leled Trottier will sing the Varsity in Ever's popular "La Trav- ule," while Constantine, the Spanish tenor who has lately been added to the Hammerschmidt forces, will fill the tenor role. The seats for this opera that are open to the public have been practically all sold out, and the at- tendance in the student body is expected to be considerably large. Students desiring seats are reminded of the procedure at the get. They must call at The Pennsylvania office on Friday, between twelve and two, to secure "reduction cards," signed by the Committee, the use of which en- titles them to the reduced price of One Dollar for seats which sell regularly at Three and Four Dollars. Each man may take with him a lady. The seats are obtained at the Opera House Box Office any time between Friday noon and Saturday night."

STUDENTS ARE ESPECIALLY WARNED AGAINST PERMITTING OUTSIDERS TO IMPERSONATE THEM IN ORDER TO GET REDUCED PRICES, AS SUCH ABUSE OF THE PRIVILEGE WILL CAUSE MR. HAM- STEIN TO WITHHOLD REDUCTIONS WITHOUT FURTHER NOTICE.

Cress-Country Picture.

The "Varsity cross-country" picture will be taken at Gilbert's, 926 Chest- nett street, to-morrow at two o'clock, sharp. The following report: Paul, Captain; Gust, Kohn, Wilson, Bruch- man, Wilde, Eis, Griffin and Tyron. Signed: G. R. Haney, Assistant Manger."

GRAND OPERA.

Mr. Hammerstein’s generous offer to the students of the University was enthusiastically responded to on Saturday night. Three hundred and fifty of the undergraduates attended the opera “Samson and Delilah,” although the Committee were given only one day to spread the news of the grand impresario’s offer. As this day was Saturday, a few students can be reached, we consider the response remarkable and the work on the part of the Committee a tremendous success. This showing, with the handicap the Committee labored under, we are sure will prove to Mr. Hammerstein that the students at Pennsylvania appreciate his offer and are more than willing to take advantage of it. We mean that grand opera has been brought within the reach and means of almost every undergraduate at the University at least once a week so long as the privilege is not abused by them. Every Saturday night throughout the opera season will be Students’ Night at the Philadelphian Opera House unless some of the students allow men who are not undergraduates of the University to buy tickets on their own matriculation card. Should this be done and it is brought to Mr. Hammerstein’s notice, the students of the University will be withdrawn from all the students on the basis of this generous offer. This must not be done, and we ask for the cooperation of every man in seeing that it is not done.

Mr. Hammerstein is without doubt sincere in his desire to bring the opera within the reach of the students of the University of Pennsylvania and, as he writes the Editor of The Pennsylvaniaian, “am anxious to show my practical interest in the educational side of this enterprise.” The Pennsylvaniaian is heart and soul in the enterprise, as it believes it is one of the greatest and most generous offers along educational lines ever made to any body of University students. Furthermore it means to us that the enterprise is made a success by getting every undergraduate at Pennsylvania with the means and the time interested in the movement.

For the present at least we have succeeded in having the members of the Faculty included in this offer to the Undergraduates, and we hope this courtesy will be extended throughout the season. On behalf of the Undergraduates The Pennsylvaniaian wants to thank Mr. Hammerstein for his kindness and generosity in making it possible for them to see and enjoy grand opera.

University House Wins Game.

In a hotly contested football game, the team representing the University House defeated a picked team of the University Christian Association Saturday afternoon on Franklin Field by the score of 19 to 8. A large delegation of University House Rooters were on hand and with the aid of their line and drum corps made things lively throughout the afternoon. The scores were the result of a field goal by N. Daye in the first half and a ten-yard run for a touchdown in the second made by M. Daye when the Y. M. C. A. fumbled. The Y. M. C. A. pushed the ball across the goal once, but there was holding in the line and the score was disallowed. The Christian Association line up. Left end, Kellar; left tackle, Hoffman; left guard, Whitfield; centre, Reddick; right guard, Campbell; right tackle, Campbell; right end, Ebert; quarter-back, Wain; left half-back, Fulweiler; right half-back, Hartman; full-back, Har- merstein. The officials were: Referee, Braddock; umpire—Lamberton. Field judges—Longwell, Head linesman, Dickson.

Camer Club Exhibition.

The first annual preliminary exhibition of the Camera Club of the University will be held in the Houston Club tomorrow evening at 8 o’clock. The exhibition is free. The preliminary exhibits were inaugurated by the Club for the purpose of truc- kling good material for use in the Inter- collegiate Exhibition. Exhibition, which occurs every spring. Prizes will be given by the Club, which will be awarded by a gentleman competent in such mat- ters. All members are urged to enter some of their work in this exhibit and to have all pictures delivered to the Houston Club office by noon to- morrow.

Informal Supper to Philathletes.

The Philadelphia Society were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas St. Clair Fraser at an informal supper yester- day evening at the University House. The meeting was arranged to give the members of the Society some idea of the work being done. Mr. E. R. Gillham, the Superintendent, spoke on the work done by the House during the last week and showed that about five hundred people entered during that time. Rev. H. Roberts gave an instructive talk on the duties of a poor and settlement work. With the conclusion of the meeting a num- ber of the members volunteered to give some of their time to the work.
