Honor Vice-Provost

The entire University, through its representatives, the Presidents of the classes in all departments and heads of the various publications, unite this evening in honoring Vice-Provost Smith.

Every son of Pennsylvania feels a personal affection for the Vice-Provost. He has entered, as has no other man, into the very life and interests of the student body. He is thoroughly appreciated by every undergraduate.

Coming as does this dinner at this season of the year, it assumes a peculiar significance. It is a student recognition of the high esteem in which Dr. Smith is held—of his unfailing loyalty and interest in Pennsylvania and in Pennsylvania. No other form of recognition could be more appropriate.

The Pennsylvania

The Pennsylvania has this year, as in years past, been working hard to serve the interests of Pennsylvania and the student body. The present board has worked uncomplainingly, early and late, in trying to put this daily paper of the University on a higher plane and to make it a worthy representative of Pennsylvania. To a certain extent we have succeeded, but we find ourselves seriously handicapped in our efforts to serve the best interests of the University, for the reason that we are unable to reach the majority of the student body. There are over 4,500 students at Pennsylvania, yet we are ashamed to announce that only about 800 students are subscribers to The Pennsylvania.

This is perhaps a startling fact to many, yet it is nevertheless true. To us it is a disturbing fact to a point board, however, are not discouraged. One thing they have decided upon, and that is to make The Pennsylvania so necessary a factor in the life of every man at the University that he will find it practically impossible to get along without it. That is what we are trying to do now. We believe that the time has arrived when Pennsylvania should have an eight-page daily paper. We further believe that the students at Pennsylvania are as loyal as the students at other universities where daily papers comment with the greatness and dignity of those universities are supported and published. Think this over and when we return from the holidays, let us return saturated and imbued with the idea, and that is to cooperate and make The Pennsylvania the best student daily in the East.

Philomathian Society to Meet

The Philomathian Society holds its last meeting before the holidays to-night, and in accordance with the custom followed for years past, the election for officers for the second term will be held. The polls will be open from 1:30 to 3 o'clock and from 7:30 to 8 o'clock. Only Junior members who have paid their dues will be entitled to a vote.

The nominations comprise the following: Moderator, Hoover, '97; Millor, '99; First Censor, Horner, '93; Second Censor, Tyson, '94; Secretary, Hughes, '99; Work, '99; Treasurer, Hott, '99; Recorder, Cole, '98.

Tradition has it that the Christmas debate must be on the advisability of electing some incapable notable to the Society. Last year the subject was "Due Tasker, and to-night the worth of Carrie Nation will be decided on. Perrott, Scott and Drefs will contend for the affirmative and Budsall, White and Hott will support the negative. In addition some highly interesting resolutions will be given by various members of the society.

Dr. McKenzie to Lecture

During the holidays Dr. R. Tait McKenzie, Director of the Department of Physical Education, will represent the University at two important gatherings. The first is a meeting, on December 28th, of the Physical Education Section of the American Association for the Advancement of Science at Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, at which Dr. McKenzie will hold a symposium on "Physical Instruction in Schools and Colleges from the Standpoint of Hygiene." On December 31st, at a meeting in New York of the Society of College Gymnasia Directors, Dr. McKenzie will make some observations on "Changes of Weight and Exercise." At Easter the American Physical Education Society will meet in Philadelphia as the guest of the University.

Basketball Candidates Report

Varsity and Freshman candidates report to Dr. McKenzie this afternoon, at 3:30, to be examined. All must have cards from him by to-night's practice.

"Varsity" Soccer Candidates

All candidates for the "Varsity" soccer team will report for practice this afternoon, at four o'clock, on Franklin Field. Signed: H. M. Martin, Manager.
