"AVE PENNSYLVANIA" IN CHAPEL.

Dr. S. Weir Mitchell's New College Hymn Will Be Sung by Students at the Exercises This Morning.

"Ave Pennsylvania," the new Penn- sylvania hymn, will be sung by Dr. S. Weir Mitchell, scientist, author and lover of his Alma Mater, before the freshman basketball train leaves for Boston, under the auspices of the Boston Athletic Association.

The relay team will race Columbia tomorrow. Each man must run three hundred and ninety yards. Captain A. H. Hartranft will wear the Red and Blue. It will be the first appearance of Minds, Heads and Hough on the Varsity, and the result of their efforts with much interest. Hough and Minds were considered fast runners last spring when the rainy days made good time in the freshman season. Hartranft has had great deal of experience in the quarter-mile, and should make a fine finish for Pennsylvania. Hartranft is also new at relay racing, and it is hardy to be expected that a given team should actual the record of last year's cham- pions.

Hartranft will also enter the hurdles and is expected to become a factor in the one thousand yards and mile run.

The Boston Athletic Association in- vites all the freshmen to attend the chief spring event of New England, and the seats will be filled so that the par- ciple of college track men.

The Carnegie Institute of Columbia count there will be a relay race be- tween those colleges. John H. Hartranft will be opposed by such men as Shaw, of Dartmouth, lover and Alfert of Pennsylvania, and twenty yards hurdle race; it will be run, I hear, by Harvat, and Mayhew, of Brown.

Saturday evening is open only in the one thousand yards and mile run. Foremost of these in Trade, of Cornell, who will scratch man. Others will be Spelter, of Yale, and John, who will represent the New York Athletic Club, and, of course, the Columbia hurdlers.

Coach Murphy, Manager Ogilvie, Captain Hartranft and Paul Ronan make the squad that later tomorrow morning on the 80 to 85 Car. The Freshman basketball team is to start in the one thousand yards and mile run. Foremost of those in Trade, of Cornell, who will scratch man. Others will be Spelter, of Yale, and John, who will represent the New York Athletic Club, and, of course, the Columbia hurdlers.

NEWS EDITOR OF TODAY'S ISSUE
J. F. HARDISON.

In carrying out the plan of widening our sphere of usefulness and entering new fields of work which will be of interest to the undergraduates, we intend publishing from time to time special stories on University activities and on subjects of vital importance to the undergraduates. We are now giving short biographies of men of prominence to the University. We have already published short sketches of Present Harrison, Vice-President Smith and Dean Penman.

The salient points in the lives of these three men, whose tireless energy and untiring devotion have done so much in advancing the interests of Pennsylvania and whose broad sympathies and personal influence have meant so much to Pennsylvania men of the past and still mean to most of the present Pennsylvania family, should be known by every University man.

These short biographies, together with other sketches and special stories of interest, should be kept by all the undergraduates.

We would suggest that the students file each day's issue of THE PENNSYLVANIAN. Reference can be made to them for information which would be difficult to get otherwise. Students are continually coming to our office to search through our files for certain information. Keep THE PENNSYLVANIAN in a convenient drawer or file and you will find considerable satisfaction in being able at times to look up certain matters in a few minutes which would otherwise take hours to get.

This morning in Chapel the new hymn, "Arizona Pennsylvanian," will be sung to introduce it to the students, and from today on it takes its place among the Pennsylvania songs that will be handed down from generation to generation of loyal college men.

Within the next few days printed copies of the words and music will be distributed to all students, so that all may commit the new hymn to memory; then on February 22d, University Day, it will be sung in public for the first time.

By that day every man should know the hymn, as well as the national anthem, "The Star Spangled Banner," to be able to join in the concerted singing that will be a part of the University Day exercises. As mentioned before in these columns, it frequently occurs that in large gatherings of Americans many are actually ignorant of their national songs, and it should be the business of every Pennsylvania man, at least, to be reminded of this in the report on February 22d. Every student who has a piano should play over the music and have as many of his friends learn them as he can; the hymn will be sung at least once a week in Chapel, and everyone should be on hand to practice it. There must be an effort that will place this hymn at once on the same footing as "Hail! Pennsylvania," so that wherever Pennsylvania men come together, when the first few notes of "Arizona Pennsylvania" are struck, the words should come as if by second nature.

It is an honor to this great University that hymn should be written for it and dedicated to its President by Dr. W. Weir Mitchell, one of the greatest of living Americans; it is an honor to every man who is loyal to Pennsylvania to be privileged to sing it.

Mask and Wig Preparations
Charles Stanley Morgan, State Director of the Mask and Wig Club, when interviewed yesterday refused to divulge any secrets concerning "Merry a Moment!" this year's show. He has been warned, however, that the cast will consist of about twelve men, including last year's stars, Norman H. C. Hibbs, P. G. in Destiny; M. F. Pettit, '09, and E. A. Martin, '09. The rehearsal will begin next week, alternating with the chorus, which will practice on Monday and Wednesday evenings and Saturday afternoons.

The play will be given as usual during February Week, and a trip to Washington, Pittsburgh, and Rochester stopping at Niagara Falls, made. Owing to the death of M. J. Root, the author of the play, rehearsals are somewhat late in starting. As yet the tracity, which is always introduced as one of the specialties, has not been written.
