criticize what others are attempting to do. They are too busy trying to do their duty, and have no time to find fault. It is the men who talk about the halls with a cigarette dangling from their lips, who have time to "call" frequently and who "clearly love" to go to the theatre who do not have the time to go into any University activity. These men are always ready for any "party"—whether it lasts a part of the evening or all night is immaterial—but they haven't ten minutes to give to Mike Murphy. What have we at Pennsylvania to make it worth while for men to enter athletics? We have, first, what former President of Cornell has said, "One of the four great universities in the East;" we have a prestige in our athletics which is upheld by few institutions in the country—we have a gymnasium and an athletic field which stands second to none and an athletic trainer who has trained more athletes of note and turned out more championship teams than any other man in the world.

How much these remarkable advantages are appreciated is told in Mike Murphy's letter. What is the solution? We ask the undergraduates the question.

Sigma Xi Elections.

At the annual meeting of the Sigma Xi Society, held last evening, the following elections were announced:

Junior Class Meeting.
The Junior Class of the College will hold class meeting this afternoon, at 3:30, in Room G, College Hall, to discuss important financial affairs of the class and the question of annuities for the various committees. A large turnout is especially desired, so that this may be a representative meeting.

Freshman Debate Trials.

Freshman debate trials for the Central High School contest, which are to be held on Tuesday in College Hall, have been postponed in order to give the participants more time for preparation. The date will be fixed at a meeting of the committee this noon in Room 251, College Hall.

Course in International Law.

Students who are taking or wish to take during the second term Course 638, International Law, are requested to report to Professor Browe on Wednesday, Thursday or Friday mornings between 10 and 12 o'clock in Room 251, Logan Hall.

Mask and Wig Candidates Report.

Over two hundred candidates were chosen yesterday afternoon for the dancing chorus of the Mask and Wig.
Medical News.

Meeting of second-year medical class at twelve o'clock today in Room B, Logan Hall.

Dr. White will lecture at 1 P. M. today in Logan Hall, instead of the University Hospital.

The H. C. Wood Medical Society will have their picture taken Saturday at 12:30, at Gillette's, 926 Chestnut street.

The picture of the House of Delegates of the U. M. A. will be taken Monday, February 16th. at 11 A.M., sharp, at Gillette's, 926 Chestnut street.

Will the members of the fourth-year class who desire to take work at the Municipal Hospital and who have not as yet signed the book please do so at once, as this work will begin on Monday and the schedule must be made out this week.

Dr. W. R. Bigbee wants volunteers willing to canvass the medical profession of the State of Pennsylvania, for the purpose of securing signatures to a petition. Canvassers will be paid at the rate of five cents per name. Applicants should leave their names at the office of the Medical Department.

Law News.

The Kent Law Club will give its annual dance this evening, at nine o'clock, in the Houston Club Auditorium.

On account of the extensive preparations of the committee in charge of the affair, which is one of the social features of the Law School, should be a great success.

The University Orchestra, which is now an organized institution, will furnish the music. Members of the Club and friends are invited.

CALL TO ARMS BY MIKE MURPHY.

a man to come out; he is always going to do it at last week. I have listened to this until I am sick and dumfounded with it all. It is only left for me to feel sorry for the coaches here, because they cannot do anything except hope for better things.

M. C. MURPHY

Pyramid Team Practice.

The PENNSYLVANIAN.

Keith’s Theatre.
A bill of extraordinary merit is the Keith offering for the week of February 5th—one abounding in novelty and diversification of numbers, humor and thrill. Harry Davenport and Phyllis Rankin, both from Oxford, with Queen City audience, make a welcome return in Edward Paulson’s novel and witty playlet, “The Naked Truth.” Montgomery and Moore are newcomers to Philadelphia, but they come with great records as comedians, dancers and pianists. Stewart Barnes will be on hand with a new budget of laughing goods for the month boxes. Edward T. Reynolds as a ventriloquist is the premiere of the realm of vaudeville. The Bouncing Gordons are the foremost acrobatic combination in America. The children will find especial delight in Robert’s Trained Animals. Barry and Wolfelt are those “Typical, Topical, Tickle Singers,” who are always with us all parts of the house from first to last. Alla in a new name on the Keith programs—Europe’s one and only woman Hercules. 16th O’Day is the dainty vocalist and banjo artist who always pleases. Frank Whiteman in the celebrated dancing violinist, doing a pleasing stunt with his feet while playing his own accompaniment on the violin. Those Alvy Girls are clever comedians, who may be relied upon to make good their strong billing, and Kelly and Amsby extract a deal of humor from their work on the bounding billiard table. The Two Hardys have a pleasing act to offer, and Bert Marshall is sure to win the big laugh with some of his new fun.
