FENCING AND SWIMMING MEETS.      'VARSITY DEBATES TO-NIGHT.

At a meeting of the Association, held yesterday, Messr. Richard Hubbell, Donald and Wolfe, who recently purchased the Philadelphia Club from the American League, were invited to the dinner. Another added attraction will be the members of the Philadelphia Cricket Team, which has made a notable record in Jamaica during the last month.

The rule in regard to special invitations has been waived in favor of Pennsylvania undergraduate and any student who wishes to attend may do so. Tickets may be obtained from the residence of Professor Michael Schott at 1357 Locust street by enclosing five dollars in a letter to him.

The Pennsylvania Publishing Company, 548 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa., Publishers of The Pennsylvania, make the following announceway to effect this than by coming in contact and becoming better acquainted with the men who really control athletic publicity and criticism in our Philadelphia papers.

We trust there will be many other Pennsylvania men at this banquet. The Association will honor many men of note. The speakers will be on hand promptly. Evening choirs will be worn.

Civil Engineers' Smoker. Tonight in the assembly room of the Engineering Building will be held the annual smoker of the Civil Engineering Society, and if the executive program planned by the committee is a success, the meeting will be a complete success.

Addresses will be delivered by Dean Joseph H. Penniman and Dr. Edgar Marboro, while Provost C. C. Harrison has promised to visit the smoker later in the evening and give a short talk. Refreshments will be served. The program is as follows: Piano solo, Collina, mandolino; G. Baker, piano solo; Warwick, selection. Freshman Civil Engineering Orchestra; piano solo; Warwick, trombone solo; Valenti, selection; Freshman Civil Engineering Orchestra. The committee consists of J. Aldrich, W. Baker, C. Warwick, W. BEauchot, H. Murrie, H. Dean, D. Howard, A. Dawson, H. Hammond, Chairman.

TO-NIGHT'S DEBATE.

Tonight Pennsylvania debating teams battle with teams representing Cornell and Columbia. The debate with Cornell will take place at 11:30 while the one with Columbia will be fought out at home.

Although somewhat handicapped by the presence of four new speakers in their make up, the 'Varsity teams have been working up a case against their opponents that should assure them another double victory this year. With no systematic coaching at all and only occasional voluntary assistance from interested members of the Faculty, the 'Varsity debaters, left to their own resources, have annually been able in past years to demonstrate their superiority over other colleges in this activity, which seems to win little popularity in the East.

This year's teams are composed of men who have all debated considerately, but only two of whom are from previous 'Varsity teams. Despite this, those who follow debating are fairly confident of a favorable outcome tonight, and we add that our best wishes for the team's success.

WRITERS' BANQUET.

We note with pleasure that two of the men honored by the Sporting Writers' Association of Philadelphia this year are Pennsylvania's veteran trainer, "Mike" Murphy, and ex-Captain William Hollebank. These two men, together with many others noted in the athletic world, are guests of the Association at their annual banquet on March 14. This act of the Association is full of significance. The Sporting Editors of the Philadelphia newspapers express a tremendous infiuence in college athletics. The prominence they give our games and athletic events and their criticisms of our teams and our athletes in general mean much to Pennsylvania. A closer union is needed, and there is no better

Brown, C. C. Ken- nedy, H. L. Baker, Solis, Brad- ford, Gunzrauske, Ballida, Jameson, Heath, Hanson, Graham, Shafer. Dr. Luttrell's announces that as the records may not be quite up to date and there may have been some error in reporting them he will be glad to consider complaints and where possi- ble make corrections. In order to be reinstated men must have the approval, in writing, of the Faculty Committee by Wednesday of next week.

One Seat Each for Triple Bill.
Not one more card will be given to each student when the reduction cards for tomorrow evening's grand opera performances will be distributed at the office of The Pennsylvanian to- day. The unprecedented demand for seats created by Terrazini's appear- ance, along with the fact that the opera has received the Pennsylvania allotment of seats for this work to be cut to two hundred and twenty-five, will necessitate us in ex- cusing some in the distribution. The cards will be given out, as usual, in matriculants and instructors whose are Pennsylvania subscribers from 12:30 to 2 o'clock today.

As previously announced a triple- bill is to be held tomorrow evening. Be- sides the well-known tragedy of Sulp- ius and Pepple, "Caravaggio it- rana," Terrazini will sing selections from "The Cavalier of Venice" and in an opera by the Rosen brothers, to be sung in this country before this year, "The Cobbler and the Fairy."

Track Men at Triton Meet.
At the indoor track meet of the Triton Y. M. C. A., which is to be held this evening in Triton, N. J., thirteen representatives from Penn- sylvania are entered. There will be no relay race this at this meet. Assistant Manager Burns and Trainer Murphy will accompany the team.

The following is a list of entries: Lane and Birdick in the high jump, Ferriter in the shot put, Herstranl in the hurdles. Blythe in the pole vault, Masters in the broad jump and Levering in the half mile. Klein, Bohn, Pfaltz, Ty- nall, and Tunnell in the mile. Wallwork in the two and four mile, and Williamson, Bull, Wilde and Hardin in the novices, whose rolls will not fall until six o'clock this evening at the West Philadelphia station.

Final Record Notice.
All societies, sectional and school clubs, as well as all other organiza- tions who desire to place entries in the Record, must hand in their mat- ters to Miss E. W. Mcuatey, otherwise entries will fall to appear. Business Manager may be found in the office, 202 South Ninth street, daily, between 1 and 2 and 4 P. M. Signatures. The Record Committee, G. B. Courteny, H. Folger, Business Man-ager.

Last evening the Sharwood, Miller, Wilson and Kent Law Clubs held their regular weekly moot court arguments. In addition there were arguments over which Professor H. P. Nichols, William Draper Lewis, Hengt, George Van Deusen and Judge Howard Carson presided. A reception followed.

Notice, University Students.

The Evening Home and Library Associations, now Twenty-second and Cheshn Street, have comfortable dormitory accommodations for four resident male workers. These are given to the residents in return for work in the Home on two evenings of each week.

The Home is a boys' club, largely given over to entertainment and exercise, but with a certain amount of class instruction.

Any student of the University desiring comfortable rooms in exchange for two evenings of service is requested to apply at once to George H. Niswage, Bureau of Publicity, third floor of Houston Hall.

Final Date for Paying Fees.

Tuition and Gymnastic fees and Dormitory rents must be paid on or before Monday, the 1st of March, 5 P. M. in order to avoid payment of the three per cent. penalty imposed under the University rule for non-payment within thirty-one days from February last. The Board’s office is open from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. daily. Each term there are dozens of students who overwork their accounts until after the last date of payment, and as a result are compelled to pay several dollars extra, as penalty for their forgetfulness. A word to the wise may save three per cent.
