WRESTLING MEETS.

Mat Struggle with Tigers in Gymnasium Tonight.

Pennsylvania and Princeton will meet on the wrestling mat for the second time this year in Wehr Athletic Field at eight o'clock tonight. In their previous meeting in the Varisty, Princeton carried off the victory, defeating the Blue Weights by a score of 4 to 0.

The Penn team this evening will be without the services of Captain Walte In, who is still suffering from a wrinkled shoulder. His place will be taken by W. F. Keenan, Jr., who found in the Columbia meet last week.

Princeton also has had a new man in this class, for Smith, who was known by Captain Walte In the last Princeton meet, has been replaced by Wilson.

The meet which will excite the greatest interest is that between Terence and Wehr in the 135-pound class. Both these men wrestled at 115 pounds last year, and their records made almost exactly equal records in the dual meets of the season. It is finally now the intercollegiate. This year both men are competing in the 125-pound class, and with their single encounter at this weight Ward has come to Harvard.

With the exception of the match with New Jersey, the meet will be held on Saturday, March 13th, the meet this evening will be their last for Pennsylvania's team before the intercollegiates. These will be held at New Haven on Saturday, March 20th, and the meet this evening will be nine minutes in length because of the shorter season. In three minutes this season, should he be required, for a double meet with Yale.

135 pounds.—Terence, Pennsylvania, and Finnigan, Princeton.

125 pounds.—Pennsylvania, and King, Princeton.

Heavyweight—Pennsylvania, and Musser, Princeton.

Pennsylvania will be represented by a squad of six. The winter meets have been held in Harrisburg and Lebanon, and tomorrow in Madison Square Garden in the Athletics meet. Ten men, including Trainer Klein, will be taken on the trip to New York, as follows: Captain Dalrymple, Shyrock, Terence, Anthony, E. Hopkins, Jr., R. W. Keys, McMillan, and H. S. McMillan.

The team will compose a match game this evening against both Beth and an exciting contest for the future. Pennsylvania's polo team is now at the English style of play, but has not carried it over to this contest, under direction of Coach Klein, and the team has been left with a small account of itself. The winners of this event are:

Captain Dalrymple, Shyrock, Terence and Keys will be the men on the team. Terence, who was in the 400 yard relay handicap race, will have to be excused from tonight's meet.

Great interest is centered in the 100 yard handicap today. This is the grand event of the evening. J. R. Sklarke, a Columbia man, who was defeated against the best amateurs in the meet, will have his work cut out for him to take the first place.

Certificates at A. O. Office.

W. F. Keenan, Jr., and H. H. Morris, Princeton, have won Nineteen and Lost Six Games.

Pennsylvania's basketball team has completed a difficult season in a fairly successful manner. The Blue and White have won games out of twenty-five played and four, Yale won three and lost five, Harvard won none and lost three and Cornell won none and lost four.

Columbia is Champion—Pennsylvania Not so Lucky.

Students of the University of Pennsylvania were the guests entertained at light and fun filled event, the annual Tuberculosis Exhbit, now being held at the Robert Morris Building, 391 Walnut street.

Director C. C. Harrison presided over the meeting held in the auditorium, at which, "The Universities" focused the subject of discussion, and Dr. M. H. Fussell, Professor of Medicine at Pennsylvania, and H. S. McMillan, of the Philadelphia Medical College, will have his work cut out for him to land first honors.

The Blue and White won fifteen games and was a good centre, while Klefaber, and McMillen showed consistent, and in the closing games the team which will swim in the 400 yard race, which should prove the main event of the evening. J. K. Mitchell, Marks and Hough were outstanding on the opposition. A tennis certificate will be the last thing Pennsylvanians want to hear, Princeton, Cornell and Columbia in rapid succession. The polo team will compete in a slam, which are being held to-night for this event. "Un Ballo in Maschera." For the first time this season Verdi's opera, "Un Ballo in Maschera" ("A Masked Ball") will be sung at the Philadelphia Opera House tomorrow night. The usual reductions for Pennsylvania students will prevail, and the Opera Committee announces that the supply of reductions secured from Mr. Hammon's management should prove sufficient to induce many for all. The scale as usual will be distributed at the office of The Pennsylvania from 13:15 to 2 and from 4 to 6 o'clock to-day. When Verdi wrote "Un Ballo in Maschera," in 1853, the Italian school of music was still in the period in which everything was for fancifulness and melody. At a typical work of the old school is composed favorably with its contemporaries, as do most of Verdi's earlier compositions. The opera, which still love Trovatore," and "Rigoletto" will find its music the familiar harmonies and opportunities for solo brilliance that have endured Verdi to th-

Freshman Off for Columbia. Pennsylvania and Columbia will again clash on the basketball floor when the Freshman teams of the two universities meet in New York this evening. This game, which was originally scheduled for January 16th, was canceled by Columbia because of her inability to raise a team, will be the last one of Pennsylvania's season, and every effort will be made to duplicate all the former. The Faculty two days ago. The squad will leave West Philadelphia at 9:30 this afternoon for New York. It will be a good chance for the Van Hoesen.

Architects' Concerts with Columbia. The Architectural Society of Columbia and this University are at present holding a competition in architectural design of the second and third years. The second-year problem, which lasted four weeks, was the facade of a small museum, while the third-year problem, which will be completed until next Tuesday, is of a custom house. The problems will have a preliminary character here and then the best ten or fifteen will be sent to Columbia to be judged by a jury consisting of one member of the Faculty of each school and a third party, to be chosen by these men. Professor Paul B. Coventry will represent this University and Professor A. P. Hamers, Columbia.

Zoological Society Meeting. The Zoological Society will hold its regular weekly meeting this evening in College Hall, when the trials for the team which will meet the Phila-adelphia team will be held. A five-minute smooth and a three-minute retail will be allowed each man. A smoker and reception will be held directly after the trials. Some prominent alum will attend this meeting, and some of the best men are used to be there in order to meet the old men.

The following will kindly call at the office of Athletic Association for the Olympic Games certificate: Denton, Thomas, Molloy, A. Beck, H. E., R. Parker, J. P. Pickles, C. Christine, Stanley Bou, J. D. Whitman, E. C. Merrin, J. R. Tomber, George Nida.

Twenty-six Miles Jaut. The University Walking Club will leave the Gymnasium at nine o'clock Saturday morning for a twenty-six-mile walk to Brandy, Pa. The route is to be the same as that taken last year in the New York Journey. All students are invited.

Medical News.

There will be no meeting of the Pennsylvanai Gynecological Society to-night.

Another addition to Pennsylvania's Medical School is now nearing completion. This is the new building for dispensary and medical classes. This building, which adjoins the Gibson Pavilion of the University Hospital, is of the latest type—work with limestone trimmings. It was designed by the firm of Howe & Hastings, architects, the former a graduate of the Architectural School of the University.

The building is thoroughly modern and is supported by concrete and beam construction. It contains four floors, a basement, and sub-basement. The sub-basement contains an air filter and storage accommodations. The basement, which is only a few feet below the ground line, contains three class rooms, three counseling rooms, three history rooms, and one maximized room.

The first floor contains three history rooms, three class rooms, three counseling rooms, a dispensary laboratory and a dispensary waiting room.

On the next floor is the large medical amphitheatre, capable of seating about one hundred students. The floor is graded so that the rear of the room really extends to the top of the third floor. Directly below the rear of the amphitheatre is a clinical conference room. This too has a graded floor and some sides are fixed. Adjacent to this is the patients' waiting room.

Above the front of the amphitheatre and on the third floor is the students' seminar.

The fourth floor contains three large laboratories. Two are for third and fourth-year students and the third for the use of the hospital staff.

All the windows in the building are pointed white. The staircases are of iron with slate steps, and the structure is well lighted by numerous windows.

It will take only a few weeks to complete the dispensary, but it will probably not be occupied before the fall.

Dental News.

The second-year class in Carved Crown, Abbott to Castro, will report to Dr. Cigan on Tuesday, March 9th.

All preclinical, practical and clinical work will be done by Dr. Cigan on Tuesday mornings, Thursday and Friday afternoons.

Students desiring to avail themselves of the opportunity can obtain permit cards from the office of this department not later than March 6th.

The examination for students having entrance conditions will be held on Saturday, March 18th, at 9 A.M., at the Robert Vaux School Building, Wood below Twelfth street.

The reports of cases in Dental Pathology will be prepared under the following subheads: Sex, age, history, extent of disease, diagnosis, treatment, time involved and results. Reports will not be accepted after May 15th.
