HAZING METHODS CRITICISED.

Graduate Would Develop College Spirit

Pennsylvania's literary societies will meet in their annual debate today in the Law School Building. The Philomathean Society will uphold the affirmative, and the Zelos, the negative of the question. "Resolved that the Federal Government should guarantee deposits in national banks." The event last year was won by Zelo after a keenly contested debate.

Benjamin Rosenbaum will captain the Zelo team and C. A. Drefers the Philo. Both of these men are widely experienced in debating, speaking on the Van Dyke team which won from Columbia and Philadelphia in the triangular debate this year.

The preceding order will be Provost Mr. Rosenthal, who has always taken a deep interest in debating. The judges will be Professor A. A. H. Martin, of the Philadelphia County Common Pleas Court; Theodore R. Williams, a West Philadelphia lawyer, and Joseph H. Housen, attorney-at-law.

The debate may be attended by members of either community, and each of the Presbyterian halls, Rosenbaum Hall, Philomathean Hall, Church and Kneyll, Trustees, Hartman, Chair.

Soccer Team Works Hard.

Although first place in the Intercollegiate Soccer League cannot possibly be secured, due to the defeat administered to us by Columbia, the necessity for our hard work is evident. The Van Dyke men have learned that they must be prepared at all times for the possibility of winning.

The game may be attended by only two people, and only one of them will have the privilege of being the referee. The other will be the line judge.

The Van Dyke team will meet at the West Philadelphia Stadium tomorrow to take the 2:45 train for Haven, where they will meet the Pen-Jeff-Will Cricket Club eleven. E. Wood, J. S. C. J. Doig, and S. A. M. P. are expected to be on hand.

The standing of the Intercollegiate Soccer League is as follows: Columbia, '10; Harvard, '10; Pennsylvania, 321; Yale, 400; Harvard, '10; United States, 321; New Jersey, 321.

WRESTLING INTERCOLLEGiates.

Vail, Cornell, Princeton, and Pennsylvania will meet this evening in the Gymnasium for baseball practice and tennis matches.

The poster competition of the University Circus and Hippodrome has been decided as follows: First prize, William J. Hough, 31 Arts; Second prize, William M. Campbell, 12 Arts; third prize, Albert C. Spence, 12 Arts; fourth prize, Henry B. Timmis, 12 Arts; fifth prize, John A. Dobson, 12 Arts; sixth prize, Leonard G. C. Wilson, 12 Arts; seventh prize, Robert L. Williams, 12 Arts; eighth prize, William J. Hough, 31 Arts.

THE PENNSYLVANIAN

GRADUATE.

Would Develop College Spirit

The following communication has been received by The Pennsylvaniaian:

Editor of The Pennsylvaniaian:

Dear Sir:

A recent communication over the pen of "Flint," which suggests that the present generation is incapable of exercising the right to regulate discipline as classes, indicates that one is about to read with more than a tolerable amount of patience the "incoherence" which is being induced in the minds of the students. I believe that in the course of the above paragraph the writer has taken upon himself the burden of a task which it is neither his right nor his responsibility to perform. It is the responsibility of the faculty to see that discipline is maintained in the classrooms by omitting the use of harsh words and threatening the students with the consequences of their misbehavior.

Sincerely yours,

TO PRESENT LINCOLN PICTURE.

Rosenthal's Etching of War President Will Be Given to University in the Library This Afternoon.

This afternoon at 2.30 o'clock in the library the famous Lincoln etching by Frederic and Phyllis Rosenthal, presented to the University of Pennsylvania in 1907, will be removed from the closet in which it has been placed since the birth of Mr. Rosenthal. This etching is a reproduction of the foremost engraver of Philadelphia, and his portrait of the martyr President ranks among the best of his works. The picture represents Lincoln in his later life, when the seriousness of his face reflected the burdens of the fighting nation. It is enclosed in a broad black frame with the name plate at the bottom.

The etching is the gift of the students of the university, and the funds for its purchase were raised by the organization of The Pennsylvaniaian. The presentation will be made by Edward Rutledge Blvdzkin, Editor-in-Chief of The Pennsylvaniaian, and accepted on behalf of the university by Professor Harrington, of the Rosenblatt, a Trustee of the University and Chairman of the Library Committee.

The presentation promises to be one of the most impressive events of the year, and a large number of the faculty and students will attend.

International Cable Match. To-morrow, from 7 A. M. to 6 P. M., the much-anticipated International Cable Chess Match will be played from Princeton University in London between the Oxford and Cambridge teams of England and the American college teams of America. Walter P. Shippey, however, alumno of Pennsylvania, and President of the Franklin Chess Club, has been chosen as England's representative in America, but the American representative in England has not as yet been chosen. All games which are not finished by six o'clock will be adjudged by Mr. Shippey.

America's chance for another victory this year is very good, as on the American team are Hughes and Whitaker, of Pennsylvania, who defeated Oxford, the strongest team in Eng- land, in a match they held last fall. The teams will play as follows:

Table 1-Wolf, of Columbia, versus Nussbaum, of Oxford. Table 2-Whit- akers, of Pennsylvania, versus Hillam- worth, of Cambridge. Table 3-Hughes, of Pennsylvania, versus Mrs. of Oxford. Table 4—Blimberg, of Cob- ham, versus a Cambridge man. Ta- bles 5—Shippey, of Princeton, versus an Oxford man. Table 6—Parshley, of Harvard, versus a Cambridge man.

Next season Hughes and Whitaker expect to make a tour through Europe, where they will meet some strong oppo-Wartan Freshman Meeting. At a rather poorly attended meeting of the Freshman Class of the Whar- ton School, held yesterday afternoon in Room 302, 110 S. Main Hall, it was of- ficially announced in the class by Hup- oee, '99 Wh., that hereafter the honor system will be in force. From now on anyone who is caught cheating will be summarily dealt with by the Honor System Committee. Conviction by this body practically means that the student will be suspended and never again allowed to take a course in the Whar- ton School. Also the list of the rules of this honor system will be posted on the bulletin board in the course of a few days.

After these announcements had been made it was decided to hold an election for a class representative on the Honor System Committee. J. E. Mayt was elected to this position.

Intrascholastic Championships. The fourth annual Intrascholastic Championship Gymnastic Meet will be held in the Gymnasium tonight at eight. Haverton, Lawrenceville, Episcopal Academy, Central High, Hight School and Germantown Acad- emy have entered. The judges are: Dr. Tait, Merck of the University; Dr. Ellinger, of West Chester Nor- mal School; Dr. Kline, Class of the Pennsylvania Gymnastic Team; Dr. Chadwick, of the Central T. M. C. A. Dr. Wolf, of Haverton College; Dr. George W. Orton, of the Uni- versity, and Dr. Meredith and E. Kelley, both of Pennsylvania's Gymnastic Teams. J. C. McCreary will act as Di- rector.

Last year's intrascholastic champi- onship was won by Episcopal Acad- emy.

VARiETY IN SHELLS. The first two 'Varsity crews were put back into the shells yesterday afternoon, no change being made in the seating. The third and fourth eights, being in barge, were given a handling of two hundred yards, and the first two boats turned together from scratch. The 'Varsity soon drew away from the second boat and the third gradually forged ahead of the fourth. At the finish the 'Varsity drew up exactly even with the third crew in the barge and two lengths of open water separated them from the fourth crew. The second eight brought up the rear.

The smooth water enabled the 'Var-ty to show much better form in the shells than heretofore; feathering was smooth and the catch even.

The three Freshman boats were out as usual, the first winning in a practice split.
