Pennsylvania won their second intercollegiate soccer game of the season by defeating Yale on the premises of Jordan Field at West Philadelphia, by a score of 5 to 3 at way, by three goals to none. The winners showed all around superiority over their opponents. What made the game so interesting was Pennsylvania's line up: Horner, goal; Martin full back; Finn, left full back; Ytxt, right half back; Web- ster, centre full back; J. J. Farrall, left full back; O'Farrell, inside right; Crockett, centre forward; Van Kuyk, inside left; Fuller, inside left.

Pennsylvania easily won the point tally at the individual intercollegiate soccer stadium in the College of the City of New York on Saturday afternoon. Twenty-seven points were run up by the Blue and Yellow over the Orange and Black in winning second place with all goals with the Blue and Yellow seven points to their credit obtained third honors.

The varsity defeat was the most closely contested of the evening, less than two minutes being the difference between Princeton, Shrewsbury and Graham, of Pennsylvania, who finished in the con- ducted manner. The one hundred yards race was again a battle royal between Orange and Black. Black holding a slight lead until the last hundred yards were run and was beaten out by a couple of feet for the finish.

Practice will be held on both Mon- day and Tuesday at 5 P. M., and all members of the squad must report at that time.

New York University.

Defeats New York University in a Preston Tournament on Frank- lin Field Saturday afternoon.

Pennsylvania defeated New York University on Saturday afternoon in the first game of the season on Franklin Field in two well contested games. The Quakers ran up three goals and thus took the game easy.

For the opening game of the year the work done by the Pennsylvania side was fairly creditable. Several times' poor judgment was seen on the bases and a few errors were made. The hitting was good, but in no manner of the pitchers who worked for the New Yorkers had anything in the way of a score. It was thus, however, that the game was lost.

The exhibition of the visitors was very poor and their watchful dodging was responsible for several of the chances run by Pennsylvania. Their work at the last for the most part of the game was superior to that of the visiting team.

Harry Potter and Jesse scored in the first inning on basing and added two more to the score. In the total Pennsylvania took three single, and both men scored on Ellis' error. Three on bases were scored in the sixth and one in the seventh. Up to this time the New York University team had been going out in one, two, three, order, but in this inning they were able to get Hanford around the bases in the sev- enth. The next time they were at bat they scored four more. Gregor was safe at first base and brought the score to three runs. Van Houten was safe on Corbman's error, York point to second, Ellis' error waited for a pass and filled the bases. Fisher went and scored. Van Houten was safe on Brown's single. Score: Pennsylvania 11, New York University 1.

YALE CREW HERE WEDNESDAY.

Two Eighties Coming for Ten Days' Practice on Schuylkill River Be- fore Dual Race in Columbia.

All New Englanders who will meet Pennsylvania in the first dual crew race between the two institutions since 1880 will be here in Philadelphia on Wednesday on and take up their quarters at the Hotel Trenton, where a regular training table will be maintained.

Yale is sending two crews for this week of practice on the Schuylkill, and the managemenat is looking forward to a great improvement as a result of the steady work that will be shown from the comparatively equitable water conditions that can be expected here. The Easter practice hereafter at New Haven has been closely antiassfactory, as only one or two days have been suitable for rowing in the harbor.

The two shells that will be brought along will both be in the Philadelphia Barge Club and, Coach and Kennedy will be there to start the crews this week. A dual race may be held in the last day of the race, April 12th.

The Mask and Wig Club has arranged to give an informal dinner to the visitors on the premises of the Diamond Club house, to which the Yale men, the seniors of the Club, and the members of the Varsity eight, and the members of the training Committee will be invited. An entertainment by Mask and Wig will follow for the Mask and Wig will be entertained in the Club house at 305, College Hall, at 11.00 tomorrow.

Rather slow contest on Franklin Field.

The Opening game of the year for the hits made.

Poof Showing in Fencing.

The only weak link was communication. A poor showing in the intercollegiate fencing contest, held in New York on Friday and Saturday, being unable to qualify for the finals. McClintock was the only man who made it to the semi-finals. West Point easily outdistanced in winning the meet.

Glee Night.

The following men will go to the training table at 3619 Locust street beginning at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning: Paul Boguslawski, Han- dley, Shomaker, Braddock, Brown, Bowman, Cutting, Conran, Smith and Walden. Signed: C. H. Scott, Manager.

University Services.

The University Services were con- ferented yesterday morning by the Rev. Charles Redgate, who spoke on the ser- vice of the day.

Zesto-George Washington Debate.

do the rest. The money we ask is not for any local purpose. It is not for Philadelphia—it is for the good and glory of the Commonwealth. Think what the University has done for this State and the nation. Think what it is doing now, far more than three thousand of the five thousand in the student body are Pennsylvania boys. That is enough to thrill any man who can feel any pride in this great Commonwealth, this great empire we call Pennsylvania.

There are splendid universities and colleges in this country, but none one is growing as the University of Pennsylvania is growing. Tremendous demands are made by young men who knock at the doors of Old Penn for admission. The great majority of these boys come from homes of very moderate means. Many of them are hard put to it to get themselves through college; they are ambitious and have an amount of money when they go out into the world. They come from the homes that form the board and show of the State and nation; so to help the University is to build up a strong, virile and capable citizenship.

I have no hesitation to pass upon any other colleges in this State, for we have reason to feel proud of them and what they are doing, but no institution of learning is doing for our young men what Pennsylvania is accomplishing."

Tennis in the Dormitories. The success of the proposed plan for inaugurating tennis courts in the "Big Quad" of the Dormitories is now assured. Plans have been formulated by the committee in charge, which is composed of the representatives from each Dormitory house. These men have been busy in getting the work under way and are now in the process of laying out the courts in their respective houses. Almost everyone is in favor of the tennis courts, and promises of hearty support have been received. Work on the courts will be begun early this week and pushed as rapidly as possible. Four or six courts in all will probably be laid out by Wednesday, April 7. Everyone is welcome to visit the courts at any time.

Base Ball.

The game lacked the finer points which have marked the last two weeks and the introduction of the Reach Ball made base ball history, for until this week no one had ever achieved such a feat.

The Reach Base Ball has helped to make base ball history, for until the introduction of the Reach Ball the game lacked the finer points which place Reach Base Ball to-day at the forefront as the greatest of all outdoor sports.
