Few Tickets Left For Afternoon Performance Wednesday—Standing Room For the Evening.

There are still almost a hundred seats left for the student subscription at three dollars. As the price of wild rose reduction cards for these will be distributed at the meeting of The Pennsylvania from 12:30 to 2 o'clock today. Cards admitting students to standing room for "Lust" will be distributed.

Mary Garden, by this time well known to practically the entire student body, will appear in the role of Elena, especially written for her by Massenet. The part was originally written for a tenor, but Miss Garden’s singing so captivated the Virgins by practicing the art she has mastered, and the part will be reinstated in the opera when Miss Garden has the best of opportunities for showing her wonderful and vocal abilities.

The performance will be Donizetti’s "Lucia," with Ternesani playing the title role. "Lucia" is one of the most popular operas ever written, and Miss Garden’s voice and acting promise to make the opera one of the best of the spring season.

March Trial April 6th.

On March 31st the big event of the annual mock trial, participated in by members of both the Law and Arts School, was held in Pete Hall. A most interesting series of exhibits were given, and the entertainment will prove very enjoyable. The trial will be thrown open to the public by the students of the University on this occasion.

Senior Class Meeting To-Day.

The Senior Class will hold the meeting of the Senior Class today at 1:15 in Room 215, College Hall, for the purpose of nominating Honor Men. In view of this fact, an meeting of the Ivy Ball Committee was held yesterday afternoon and was announced. Signed: H. R. Cochran.

Undergraduate Medical Association.

The Undergraduate Medical Association was held in Houston Hall last night. The meeting was called by E. J. Paris, President, and the entertainment for the evening was a mock trial, participated in by members of both schools. The meeting was adjourned.

Weather Forecast for today: Clear and warm.

The Intercollegiate swimming season at an end and with Pennsylvania's Annual Relays Drawing to a close, Coach Kistler has now completed arrangements for a Western Trip during the Easter holidays. The squad, which will consist of about a dozen men, will leave Philadelphia on Monday, April 12th, and will return to the city Tuesday, April 20th. Seven meets have been scheduled, two of which are with universities—Chicago, the National and Penn—and the remainder with prominent athletic clubs. The program includes matches at the University Athletic Club, at Pittsburgh; April 16th, at the Other Club, at Chicago; April 14th, Chicago Athletic Club, at Chicago; April 15th, University of Chicago, at Chicago; April 16th, University of Illinois, at Chicago; April 17th, Missouri Athletic Club, at St. Louis; April 15th, start on return trip, at Franklin Field; Pittsburgh; April 19th, arrive in Philadelphia.

This trip will end one of the most successful for professional athletes. Red and Blue has ever had. Of the first intercollegiate dual meets in which it has been able to enter, everyone has been easily won. In the remaining meets, thirty-eight points were run against Columbia’s forty-three. This is a record, and New York City of New York lost to Pennsylvania by thirty-two to twenty-four. The Pennsylvanians had a match against the New York Athletic Club Tuesday, April 12th, and will return to the city March 16th.

The annual relay races, to be held April 24th, are also in prospect. It is believed that the meet will be a big one, and with the probable that over two hundred college teams will compete, the prospects are bright.

THE PENNSYLVANIAN

During the past week, the "Varsity" Freshman baseball team defeated the second nine 5 to 2 on Franklin Field yesterday afternoon.

THE PENNSYLVANIAN

Several small squads are composed of athletes of every form, and the most promising candidate is at present occupied in many of the other activities of the meets. This however does not include the basketball and the indoor track, which are the best of the meets.

The Pennsylvanians' meet with Columbia is probably the most important of the season. The City of New York lost to Pennsylvania while Columbia lost to Harvard while both Princeton and Harvard and lost to the promising candidate at present occupied in many of the other sports.

The General Society consists of nine chapters in the United States, and various chapters hold their last conventions this week. The national organization wrote to the chapters in the different universities. The national organization wrote to the chapters in the different universities.

The elections resulted as follows: H. L. S. Inglis, President; R. M. McKnight, Vice-President; H. W. Bassett, Secretary; C. M. Maltz, Treasurer.

This is the first time in the history of the Pennsylvanians that Columbia has lost to Pennsylvania while Columbia lost to Harvard while both Princeton and Harvard and lost to Carnegie.

Exchange.

Fifty candidates reported for spring football practice at Yale.

The Cornell Baseball Team leaves today on a six-day Southern trip.

Lacrosse candidates have been called out at Lehigh and Bucknell, and the team will leave today.

Chicago has tied with Illinois for the Western intercollegiate swimming championship.

Swarthmore will have a baseball team this spring, for the first time in several years.

The University of Washington holds the dual title in the track and field meet and the conference.

A "Lyrical Lash" is the title of the comic opera to be presented next week by the students of the University of Chicago.

The annual convention of the intercollegiate Civic League is being held this week in New York and Washington.

Undergraduates of Michigan have not met with the University crews over the course, the first Yale eights in recast years, and it is hoped that both crews will gain experience in this race that will be valuable later in the season.

WORLSC Applauds.

The Pennsylvania welcomes the Yale crews to the hospitality of Pennsylvania. A dual race at this state of the racing season will be of unusual benefit to both crews. Only two of the members of our own crew had seen the course, and the combination in this year's shell is of necessity a new one. We understand that the Yale eight is in much the same position, and it is hoped that both crews will gain experience in this race that will be valuable later in the season.

The comparative strength of the two crews was exceedingly clear. The Yale and Pennsylvania crews have not met with "varies" receipts in recent years, and this race will be a certain extent to be a comparative test of the two systems of rowing. Yale has sent an eight to the seat of the Harvard crew Twenty-two oarsmen and two coxswains were retained.

Undergraduates of Michigan will hold the University shell along the line of the one to be given here tonight, during the week of April 5th.

The twenty-third annual convention of the intercollegiate Socialist Society will hold its regular meeting in Room 11, Institute Building, on Friday, November 16th, at 3:30 P. M. It is interesting to note that the students of both Yale and Pennsylvania have sent an eight to the seat of the Harvard crew. Of the four Batu Diaries.
