IVY BALL AT NINE O'CLOCK.

Annual Function of the Senior Class to be Held in Weightman Hall. Festive Decorations in Gym.

Weightman Hall will tonight be the scene of the Senior Class University function of the year, the Ivy Ball. The preparations, which have been going on for some time under the able direction of the committee, will be completed in a few minutes, this evening, when the last finishing touches will be put on. The decorations, like last year, will consist of green lattice work interlaced with spring flowers, while the ceiling will be hung with red and blue flowing. In addition, the walls will be profusely banked by large palms and ferns. Especially worthy of note in the lighting system, which will far surpass anything of the kind ever attempted in Weightman Hall. A de- parture from last year is the fact that there will be an aisle on but one side of the room, thus giving more room for the dancers.

The programs are made of imported leather, with the university seal embossed in gold and appropriate Ivy dec- orations.

The services of the Garrick Theatre Orchestra, under the direction of Alfred Schmidt, have been engaged. This orchestra that was used by the Mask and Wig Club in their last performances, and ensures excellent results.

Ivy Ball Committee Meetings.

To the Editor of The Pennsylvaniaian.

Dear Sir:—At a meeting held in Houston Hall last evening only fifteen men volunteered to take care of two hundred and twenty school and college teams which will be entertained by Senior guests at our Relay Carnival on Saturday. This leaves only a hundred and ninety-five teams unentered for. Now here is a chance for every fraternity and club, and in fact for every man in the University, to do something for Pennsylvania which will win wide renown. Show these boys and college men from all over the country that we are glad to have them with us.

It will be at the effort of the Athletic Association this afternoon and to-morrow afternoon with a complete list of all these candidates and colleges entered, and with any other necessary information.

Very truly yours,

Freshmen Lose Debate.

In the second annual debate between the Pennsylvania Freshmen and Central High School, held at the assembly hall of the Central High School last night, the Freshmen were defeated.

The debate was most keenly contested, and it was only after much consideration that the judges were able to award the decision in favor of Central High.

The Central High team upheld the affirmative and the Freshmen the negative of the question, "Resolved, That, under the conditions of the question, an income tax should be provided to furnish revenue for the Federal Government." The decision was based upon the merits of the arguments as presented, and not upon the merits of the question.

Capitell and Mr. E. H. Sarver, of the Freshman team, and Captains R. J. Adams, of Central High, were probably the star speakers of the debate, and each expended his points in a most convincing manner, displaying many brilliant flashes of oratory.

Freshman Relay Team Chosen.

The Freshman Relay team, held yesterday afternoon on Franklin Field, resulted in the choice of Smith, Ebbot, Masters and Church. The track was in poor condition, owing to the rain, and the best time recorded was 32.5 seconds.

Coach Murphy expects the Baby-year team, which will represent the Freshmen team, and Captain R. J. Adams, of Central High, to win at any meet against the best teams in the country. He is not as confident as usual, however, that the Freshmen would be able to defeat the Central High team.

Senior Veterinary Banquet.

The annual banquet of the Senior Class of the Veterinary Department will be held at the Rittenhouse Hotel tonight at eight o'clock. President E. A. Calhoun will act as Toastmaster.

The following members of the Faculty will speak at the banquet: Provost C. C. Harrison, Dr. Leonard Pearson, Dr. S. J. Harper, Dr. W. J. Adams, Dr. W. H. Hawkins and Dr. C. W. Gay.
