Pennsylvania WRESTLES FOUR-MILE RELAY FROM MICHIGAN.

Paul's Wonderful Relay Runs Bring Victory for Fourth Team's Record-Ever Relay Event—Great Crowd Cheer Athletes.

A program of forty interesting events, the most successful relay race in history, was brought to a pleasing and spectacular climax Saturday afternoon as Pennsylvania's four-mile relay team came away from the Michigan runners and scored a well-deserved victory in the biggest event of the day. All of the men ran well, but the work of Paul was the feature of the afternoon's performance. The relay was hardly a person in the stands who looked for other than a Michigan victory. Dill, the head man, and Wolf and Wilson, and a long-distance runner from Minnesota, were thirty yards in the lead and going like the wind in his usual winning manner. The possibility of running this man of his best stride, but that was what just happened. Paul caught Dill after one lap and a half, passed him in the second lap, then sped away to the tape, winning by seventeen yards. It came by a total of one and a half seconds. Jones was 4 minutes 22 seconds.

Rev. Dr. Bates Conduits Services.

Rev. Dr. Bates, a well-known Christian worker of New York City, conducted the University Sunday services yesterday morning in the auditorium of Houston Hall. He took his text from St. Luke’s 14. The speaker said in part:

"While it is true that money can buy you position, luxury, country house, or other visibleances, it cannot bring that which all the world is seeking—happiness.

"Happiness is not an only thing upon which God and man agree. God placed his children on earth to be happy, and they want to be happy. If we only had more money, reason we could be happy. Let me tell you that the best way to be happy is to accept the thing upon which all agree, the way of the cross. From my studies of people I conclude that the poor are happier, not if happier, than the rich. The rich contact with the rich is not conducive to their happiness, but to do so, and as so much, in order to make the doer the play where success a large audience is desired.

"The only way to obtain happiness in the future most desired by men of the Pennsylvania University, was chosen a Vice-President of the Arts Department of the University, and a member of the Classical Association of the United States.

"In conclusion there are three essentials to a happy life. The first is self-sufficiency, for yourself, for if you are self-centered you will find suffering, sorrow, and disappointment.

"The second is science, there is nothing greater for the growth of others. The third is faith in God, who cares?"

"There is no assurance of success in the service next month will be as follows: May 24, Rev. E. P. F. Perley; May 25, Rev. H. Fullerton; May 26, Rev. O. H. Fowkes; May 27, Rev. C. W. Burns. May 31st, Rev. Elieser Tailor, D.L.D.

The Botanical Society of Pennsylvania made an excursion to Castle Rock on Saturday afternoon, starting from the Sixty-ninth Street Terminal at 1:30 o'clock and returning late in the afternoon. The expedition, under the leadership of Mr. Ulrich and Dr. Krantzer, was a very successful one in every way, and was enjoyed by all those who took part. The locality which was visited was very rich in masses of the early and race spring flowers and many specimens were procured for examination and study. Next Saturday afternoon the Society will take a trip to Tintern, which is on the Delaware River south of League Island.

Keith's Theatre.
It is certain that a bib-ribbon bill from beginning to end that is the Keith offering exclusively for the week of April 29th. It is a program of headlines and heart-line, and will certainly make the strongest impression of any vanderbilt bill that has ever been offered in Philadelphia. Irene Franklin and Flo Green made a very well-come return with their inimitable character songs and sayings, promising to duplicate the immense hit which they made here on the occasion of their last engagement. Miss Franklin was recently voted "Queen of Vandevertile" by popular ballot in a contest in New York which excited the whole-theatrical fraternity. Miss Franklin may be depended upon to live up to the exalted title the public has so unceremoniously conferred upon her. Valerie Bergere certainly did make a hit the past week in her play, "The Morning After," and fortunately remains another week to show her talent patroni her strength and versatility in another role. On this occasion Miss Bergere presented her popular favorite, "Hot Japanese Wife." This tender and beautiful ideal of Oriental life was ex-trarily suited to the dainty, petite and highly normal personality of this remarkable Asian artiste. It is a tone drama or something, and is sure to call forth the highest praise. The Willy Panter Piece is a continental tale which will prove itself a lecture and humor. In hand, and in a refinement and tone manner these "beauty encounters" leave nothing to be desired. A comedy that recently made a tremendous sensation in variety circles in New York is Chip and Marble. This clever pair presents an amusing skit of Dutch life written by clever Anna Marie and called "In Old Dutch." The idea is a simple but amusing sketch, founded upon an old time fairy story and clearly adapted up into a comedy sketg.
There is no end of fun in this unique feature
