It is not the egotistical, self-centered and selfish man who is possessed with that inartistic desire for personal gain and glory that works for their ideal, but it is the simple, earnest, manly and most of all the ultra-conservative man who gives himself and interests for the betterment of Pennsylvania.

Tennis Victory.
Quite unexpectedly the Cornell tennis teams came down from Ithaca yesterday afternoon to play the Harvards on the Count's courts at Harvard. Pennsylvania's quarterfinal consisted of H. L. Miller, R. G. Robinson, '29 C. C. W. Johnson, '21 C. and H. R. Register, '19 C., all of whom displayed remarkable form for as early in the season. Schmidt was the sole Red and Blue player to lose his match, and it was only after a hard three-set match between Keeler and Schmidt. The score:

Hawley—Kawasaki vs. Amherst, 63, 61, 63; Keeler vs. McCloud, 62, 61; Register vs. Williams, 66, 64; Keeler vs. Schmidt, 64, 6, 61.

Sunday Services.
Rev. H. Bowell Bates, Pastor of the Spring Street Church, New York, will be the speaker at the eleven o'clock service in Boston Hall Auditorium tomorrow. Dr. McRury is too well known to need an introduction to Pennsylvanians, having conducted the services several times during the past winter.

Evening School Banquet.
Governor Snell and Alice A. Johnson, President Harrison and Vice-Provost Smith will be the guests of honor at the Eighty-ninth Annual Reunion of the Evening School of the Wharton Department. About a hundred and sixty guests are expected at the dinner, which takes place at the Hotel Walton at seven o'clock.

Citizenship Assignment.
Tuesday, May 11th: The class will prepare an analysis of Dr. Lina's bin. 182, 183, 1, 1.0.1. Disputing opinion. Opinion, page 206, end of first paragraph on page 206, beginning of last paragraph on page 241 to end of opinion on page 241. In 8 Rows.

Class Photographs to Arrive.
Tomorrow's "Public Ledger" will contain a number of University photographs printed in the cooperative supplement. All four school class photographs and several individual illustrations.

Zeta Eta Representatives.
T. C. Corey, '76 C., was unanimously elected by Zeta Eta to be the Society's representative on the Senate Committee for the coming year.

All those holding receipts for Freshman Class pictures must obtain their own at once from any of the following committees: Mr. C. C. Ober, Schaeffer, Alexander and Smith.

University Band Notice.
