Crew Practice Lively.

Still practices in the order of the day in crew circles. The "Varsity" is rowing over a four-mile course; now, 57 yards over a half-mile terrace up and down than they have ventured in late years. Coach Ward ordered them in the "Franklin" part of this distance and then gave them up on the way down. The second "Varsity" class at the regular starting point.

Yesterday afternoon the river was high and a good breath caused. The "Varsity" was allowed to pass the other crews on the way down by about a length. Then Ward ordered the others to start and race to the Columbia Avenue Bridge, a distance of a mile and a half. The Freshmen, rowing in excellent form, pulled alongside the "Varsity" and held their place, the two boats being nearly even at the bridge. The second "Varsity" was unable to get together and were gradually outdistanced by the other boats, which managed to win by one and a half length. The Freshmen kept up their steady stroke down to the boathouse. The catch in the first boat is good, but the crew still needs work. A test of the Freshmen boat will come on Friday, when they meet Central High School. The high school second boat is having a hard time getting oars and Turner of the Freshman second crew has sprained an ankle. However, these crews will probably race if they have to row in a separate event.

THE GREAT PHILA. SHOW, 1909

It is truly a "Gold Medal Hill" that is referred to in Keith's Theatre for the week of May 18th, and the majority of its attractions are novelty acts to Philadelphia audiences, but the favorites that are making a welcome return are those that appeal to a standard of excellence and are certain to make a very strong impression. Vanderbilt's advancement in the "Big Act line" is exemplified in the spectacular production of "The Top of the World" Company, headed by Kathleen Clifford and Arthur Hill, in "Kiss Kringle's Dream.

This is a rapid-fire musical comedy novelty, introducing some new features, gay songs and tuneful predominating. There is a ballet of cellie dogs and the fun is fast and furious up to a tremendous climax. These infinitely clever exponents of New England character life, Will Creaney and Blanche Deyoyn, will present Mr.

Creaney's, as well as the public's favorite. To all the hundred or more drawings he has written, "A Village Lawyer," in quaint humor and pathos, this masterpiece of homely comedy has never been marvelled. Mr. Creaney's work as a playwright, as well as character actor, has been a perennial delight to everybody. A new act in this house is one of the most brilliantly artistic and witted of all European productions, "The Plaisir," These people kill themselves as "Gladiators on Horseback," and that's just what they do. The performances of the most thrilling equine feats ever seen on any stage. The McNeills have need to introduce nobody for the twenty minutes that they hold the stage they give the real London Music Hall feature that is worth going a long distance to enjoy. The bouquets that fall are a classic of humor. There are many other fine-class acts.
