CARNIVAL A GREAT SUCCESS

Grounds Covered with Gaiety Booths and Festive Gardens.

A delightful day, the gracious patronage of society, and the uniform high class of attractions combined to make the University Settlement Carnival a tremendous success socially as well as financially.

Over two thousand persons visited the tastefully decorated grounds and wandered through the beautiful gardens, riding in horse carriages, moving pictures, minstrel and vaudeville shows and a circus. Plenty to delight the eye, while the sunshine, the garden sun, the sup- per lawn, the tea rooms and bananas stand allowed all to enjoy in search of food and cooling drinks.

At all the booths enthralling music filled the premises, and every street and the great pitching of Shultz was heard far away.

The seventh inning with two men out, and Van Vleck went to first on four balls and made second on Shultz's hit at first. Smith, the catcher, and Shultz were safe second and third.

Van Vleck was out at second, and, with only one man out, Smith was put out. Van Vleck and Shultz were safe second and third.

PRINCETON GAME.

All arrangements have been completed whereby a special train will be run on Wednesday to provide for the benefit of the undergraduates and their friends.

It is essential that a large number of men should take advantage of this opportunity. The rates are most reasonable and well within the limit of the students. No man who has any pride in this year's Varsity baseball team will want to see them travel to Princeton with a handful of support-

Everyone knows what brilliant spirit the Orange and Black have on their own grounds. Fate generally provides a defeat for a visiting team, but this year it looks as though the formidable pinch of the Princetonian is in a precarious position. But if the Varsity is expected to be the victor they must have the generous support of the undergraduates in help as well as mind.

We do not wish to excite the students to money-making for this contest, for we feel that such and every man will take pride in coming to the Jersey town in support of a worthy cause.

Poughkeepsie July 2d.

A change in the pace of the Pough-keepsie Racing Club was introduced this month. Under the conditions to finish below Cramer's Choke on the latter date this race was run, the races have finished hereafter, no prestige that the competitors are forced to run over the track to witness the end of the race. After much rebuff the change was made, which brings the event just one day after the Harvard event.

Two hundred and twenty-five yards dash—Won by Carey, Navy; Huff, Pennsylvania, second; Vibert, Pennsylvania, third, Time, 22 seconds.

Mile run—Won by Paul, Pennsylvania; leech, Pennsylvania, second; Bylens, Navy, third, Time, 4 minutes 24 seconds.

The President had an easy time winning the Cornell freshman team by the score of 72 to 12.

This Red Man's high jump was in fine form, clearing the bar at a foot 11 inches. Funder was a good second, but Smith showed up well in the dashes, winning the one hundred yards and the quarter mile and taking second in the 220 yards. Forclog, of Cornell, ran the twenty-second event in the fast time of 24.22 seconds.

Tagger and General is a great mile in a mile 27 35-2 seconds, being placed ahead by Woodland. Haydock ran his usual good races in the hurdles, taking both events.

The results of this meet show that there is plenty of good material for next year's team in the President Club.

Mask and Wig Entertainments.

Saturday night the Mask and Wig Club gave its annual soiree to the fine and costume at the club house, 310 Quince Street. As has been the custom for many years, the feature of the evening was a variety of the Easter production, in which many of the Club's leading members, including Emile Hare, Charles Snyder Morgan, Dr. Leckan and Louis K. Mellon, participated.

After the performances pictures of the principals and the chorus of the "Merly a monarch," as well as many scenes and groups, taken on the trip, were shown upon the screen, and were received with great enthusiasm. The party adjourned to the grill room, where they ate, drank and made merry. There was much singing and dancing among the favorite numbers of the chorus, and at the close of the even-
