Varsity Men Entered in Annual Intercollegiate Games

Foster and Dawborn, McArthur, of Gamble of Princeton, should finish tomorrow and the finals will take place on the following day. Harvard, Yale and Cornell are the favorites for first place, with Harvard a slight favorite. New Yorkers through-out New England like the chances of the Crimson, although the Middle States favor Yale. According to the order of scoring will be Harvard, Yale, Cornell, Pennsylvania, Princeton, Dartmouth and Dartmouth.

Foster and Dawborn, McArthur, of Gamble of Princeton, should finish third, although he may be pushed third by Dawborn. Dartmouth, Tolman, on Wedsday, Casey, of Yale, and Minds, of Pennsylvania, will make a difference. From 220 yards dash it again looks like Foster and Dawborn, Morris of Cornell, is another likely man, and may finish third. Fourth should go to either Princeton, Dartmouth or Pennsylvania. The high hurdles will furnish a close contest between Foster, of Yale, Hawes, of Cornell, and Talcott, of Cornell, with Wright, of Pennsylvania, contingent. Men can all do 15-2-5 seconds and any one may win. Rand and Gardner, of Harvard, are also a threat. Pennsylvania, of Hartshart, of Pennsylvania, are the others.

Howe is the best man in the low hurdles, although Foster and Dawborn, Talcott, of Yale, and Miller, of Harvard, are the contenders for second place, while Rand and Wright, of Harvard, stand in the middle. Merrieth, of Harvard, is the favorite in the quarter mile. Other fast men are Hitchcock, of Cornell; Bacon, of Wesleyan; De Sebill, of Harvard; Wilson, of Columbia; Enord, and Ritter, of Cornell, any of whom may win. The half mile will furnish a record breaking race between Beck, of Pennsylvania, and Foster, of French, of Cornell, a good third. Foster has surprised some to either Latte or Wheatley, of Cornell.

Foster and Dawborn, McArthur, of Gamble of Princeton, should be a little better than either Mete, of Princeton, and Jacques, of Harvard, and would win, but the other two are both wonderful runners. Dall and Miller, of Cornell, and Booth, and Combs, of Bowdoin, are also fast milers and will fight it out for fourth place.

Paul ought to lower the record in the twomile, his performances easily giving him the preference in the event. John, of Yale, Taylor, of Cornell, and Dall, of Michigan, seem to be the next best in order. Paul has surprised some in this event, but Coach Moonley is much worried over Pennsylvania's chances in the long distance this year.

To talk about the results, look to Cook, of Cornell, if he live up to his records. Heath, of Michigan, is a possibility. The mile is still the next best while the next best seems to be Kilpatrick, of Yale; Nixon, of Columbia; Heath, of Michigan; and Davis, of Yale.

Paul ought to control the record of the high jump. Palmer, of Dartmouth; Harwood; Macartney; and Frayer, of Pennsylvania, have done over 6 feet 11 inches. Foster and Dawborn, McArthur, of Gamble of Princeton, and Rosen, of Cornell, are in the running.

Campbell, of Yale, is the best in the pole vault. Foster and Dawborn, McArthur, of Gamble of Princeton, should take second, although Cook, of Cornell, may outflank him. Harvard looks like the fourth Cornell, although Dukes, of Cornell, or Parker, (Continued on Third Page)

Varsity Wins from Lafayette

Pennsylvania Wins Eleventh Straight Victory by 23-7 Score—Shultz Pitches in His Usual Form.

They all look alike to Pennsylvania's 'Varsity baseball team. Lafayette, Princeton, Yale and the other list of colleges which will be the Benet estate, left for this purpose, and the principal will therefore still remain to furnish in- with which to maintain the new building and the general expenses of the department.

The entire structure will replace the present building at the corner of Thirty-fourth and Walnut streets, and the section to be built this summer will occupy only the first six lots. Although the plans are now in the architect's hands and are still to be passed upon by the Executive Committee, it reasonably certain that the proposed building will resemble the law school. An entrance will be located on the corner and another on Walnut street toward the river end. There will be an open court in the rear to make the interior light and pleasant. Principal rooms will consist of offices, reception rooms, seminar rooms, departmental rooms, as well as rooms suitable for the social and educational purposes of the university students.

The purpose of this building is to provide chiefly for those departments in the Graduate School that do not have satisfactory quarters in the libraries and professors' offices, as well as rooms for the Graduate School of the University, which has outgrown Its present accommodations and requires more space to maintain the new building and the general expenses of the department.

The building will consist of four stories, the corners of which will be erected on the path between first and second bases, they will be built to specifications of the old, and the diminisher pitcher struck out seven Red and Blue batters.

Conens pooled in his usual excellent throwing, scored seven runs and he hit safely to left. Corman and Shultz were the leading scorers.

The four runs were made in the last of the seventh. H. Demott started to pitch for Lafayette and opened by hit- tings Tink, M overweight one hit and second base. While Shultz was striking out, Merrick got a wild pitch and Corman and Shultz scored. Shultz was out at first.

The Lafayette players took three minutes to talk the situation over. Conens singled and Merrick scored to make 3-0. Conens and Wagon added runs two and three. Conens fouled to Mattson. Tink was thrown out at second. Tink at second base. Shultz at second base. Shultz was out at first.

SUCCESS TO TRACK TEAM.
Pennsylvania’s track team leaves this evening for Cambridge, where the Intercollegiate Track Meet will be held on Friday and Saturday of this week.

Pennsylvania’s chances of winning this meet are much brighter than the average critic is willing to concede, and we expect to see them make a good showing.

The meet has not yet been held. The Pennsylvania wants to take this last opportunity for thanking and congratulating our veteran coach and trainer, "Mike" Murphy, for the work he has done in developing a creditable track team. Starting the season with but two men who scored in the intercollegiates last year, namely, Captain Hartmann and Newberry, and with the Freshman track team in work with as a nucleus, he has gradually developed and rounded into shape a team most worthy of wearing the Pennsylvania colors. Anyone who is familiar with the details of the case will realize the difficult task he had, and we all unite in wishing him and his proteges the greatest success in the intercollegiates.

To the members of the track team, who have worked so hard and industriously for their Alma Mater, we also extend our thanks. Track athletes are not developed in a day, but only after good, hard and consistent training, and whether you win or lose, we are sure you will go into the meet determined to do your best and fight hard for Pennsylvania. May success attend your efforts.

CRICKETERS TO TOUR CANADA.
Will Leave on June 16th for Montreal. Play a Draw with Frankford.

Arrangements have been completed for a tour of Canada by the 'Varsity' cricket team, where they will play the strongest club and college elevens. Last year's trip was very successful, as the Red and Blue won three out of the four games played, after having won the Eastern Intercollegiate championship.

This year the prospects are equally as bright. Captain Hordern is without doubt the best bowler in the United States, while Winter is considered the best wicket keeper in the city. Web- ster and Crowell will be excellent men to alternate with Clement, Hordern's bowling partner. Batchell, Broughton, Crockett and Hunter are a quartet of excellent batters, while the re- mainder of the team is very constant in all departments of the game.

So far this spring the team has won one game, tied one, drawn one, and two were cancelled because of infemi- lent weather. The remaining games are: May 29th, Haverford College, at Haverford; June 24th, Radnor Cricket Club, at Wayne; June 8th, picked intercollegiate team, at Manhatten; June 9th, Juvion Cricket Club, at Haverford.

A team of eleven and one substitute will be picked from the following men: Captain Hordern, Batchell, Crockett, Clement, Broughton, Hunter, Winter, Crowell, MacEhonne, Webster, Haley, Hopkins.

of Pennsylvania, may take the point.

Now, Samuel, if in firm courage to win the shot put, although Little, of Harvard, and Talbot, of Cornell, may push him for the place.

Kirkpatrick, Cox and Goebel, of Yale, and Pilk, of Pennsylvania, are also good.

Talbot is conceded to be the winner in the hammer throw and he may bet ter the record. Cox of Yale, Homer of Syracuse, and Goebel and Andrus of Yale seem to be the next best.

But sports will always occur, and many of the big universities may land

Two hundred and twenty yards dash—

Eight hundred and eighty yards run —Beck, Tyron.
Two miles run—Paul, Tyson.
