FOOTBALL TEAM IN GOOD SHAPE

Secret Practice Still Continued—Fike is Tried Out at End.

Football practice was again held behind closed doors and windows yesterday afternoon. Flankers, reported at 4 o'clock, were divided into fours and went into practice with short runs in the drill in the fundamentals of the game. Barthold, Hithcock, Thayer and Miller were given lengthy practice in catching and getting underway quickly with the ball on the kick-off. Ransome continued to show a tendency to fumble in passing. Scellett then drilled the backfield and the ends in getting down under kicks and blocking their men.

After a long spring practice, the 'Varsity lined up against the scrum for a two-watch scrimmage, -a scrum which neither side succeeded in scoring. "Alex," Thayer played quarterback, while Fike was at end. The game was held back a moment by a touchdown; a new building has become imperative. The student body is especially concerned. A student from Pennsylvania, his name is not known, has beenone. Many architects and draughtsmen have left the practical field for the academic. In University. No important modifiations have been made in the records of instruction. The staff has been increased to meet the requirements of Harvy A. Schwab, "86, an internship, and Thayer, and by Scott for the skips. Which neither side succeeded in scor-

ings. Peter, the weird Olympian,

The Undergraduate Committee has come into its own. The "we recommended" of the past has become the "you shall" of the present and of the future.

This new attitude has been sorely needed. Now that it has been taken, undergraduate affairs in general, and disputes in particular, will find the solution of the problems which concern them in the hands of the committee.

Permanence was the key-word of every action of the committee Tuesday evening. For good and for all, class fights at banquet, the continual cause of so much trouble and discussion, are done away with. For the present entering class.

Steps on the campus. Meeting the house appeal as he will at the very start of his undergraduate career, he will be brought to this realization

all the more quickly and forcibly.

We cannot commend too highly the action of the Undergraduate Committees.

Hospital Examinations.

An examination for appointment to the house staff of St. Vincent's

Hospital, New York City, was held yesterday at that hospital. There are no other examinations to be held on January 1, 1910, two on the surgical side,

two on the medical side, of eighteen months each.
Many of Last Year’s Squad Have Returned and Will Compete.

Captain Lefkite, of the "Varsity" squad, having issued a call for candidates, several men reported for duty at the gymnasium last evening. He is well pleased with the material at hand, and is extremely optimistic as to the outlook. The team has lost but two men, Bradford and Levy, by graduation, and, besides Captain Lefkite, Wall, Kib, Lawson, Boston, Perkins and Kelly, the intercollege champions in tumbling, have all returned and will again enter the squad.

The new men who have reported so far are Lewis, Strohfer, R. Boehmker, Room and Male.

Manager R. McCuey and Assistant Manager F. P. Perkins are arranging a schedule for the coming winter that promises to be a very successful one. The tackles of the men are so varied as to average about three men to each of the different positions. The squad will be coached by Dr. Eellsen, of the University staff, who is an old Penn man.

The first practice will take place immediately after the football game on Saturday, at which time all men who wish to go out for the squad, and have not reported, may do so.

Exchange...

Stanford University may eliminate rowing from its list of intercollegiate sports, because of a deficit of $200 in the association treasury. The buying appropriation for the year has been cut from $300 to $250.

By the will of C. C. Cupler, Princeton University receives $100,000 now, and about $1,000,000 at the death of Mrs. Cupler.

Cuppell is to represent the "Million Man" on the annual Junior week program.

Princeton has instituted a new system, which will practically do away with the danger of overcutting. All applications for cuts, such as those taken by members of the athletic team, must be made a day in advance. The aim of the new method is to let every student know his exact standing.
