DEBATE PROSPECTS BRIGHT.

Phil and Zero Busy Developing New Material.

From present prospects, there is every indication that Pennsylvania's debating season will be one full of interesting contests. In the faculty steps have already been taken to assure for the "Varsity team" a vigorous lot of recruits. Chiefly under the direction of F. A. Child, whose course in public speaking and debating have become so popular, it will be possible for an innovation to be made in the form of interclass debates to determine class supremacy.

In the Philomathean and Zoological Literary Societies probably the most strenuous work of the year will be done. Both organizations are now busy preparing for North Carolina and Swarthmore, respectively, strangely enough, both rooms will debate upon the same question on the evening of November 13.

In addition to the heavy program already taken on, with extracurricular contests, debates and dramatic work, Phil is now debating with Swarthmore, but whether or not a new contest will result is still an open question.

It is certain that attention will be directed this year toward extracurricular speakers as a means of developing the "Varsity material." When it is seen that places must be filled for both such men as Parks and Paul, it is easy to realize that the task of developing and choosing new men will be an easy one.

Good Profit for Energetic Students. ENERGETIC STUDENTS can make GOOD PROFITS in their spare time as BALLENN of one of our various types of projection apparatus: a high-grade stereopticon, a solarheater, country schools; class rooms, etc. Money can also be made giving stereopticon entertainments or operating the lantern for lectures, churches, schools. The best season for sales is NOW. Excellent terms. Address the E. F. PATTON MANUFACTURING COMPANY, 2853 Detroit avenue, Cleveland, Ohio.

Springfield, Ill., November 6. W. H. Emrick & Sons have always proved the most popular tailors for Pennsylvania students, because they allow the student to pay a little each month, because the prices are moderate, and because they allow the student to buy each piece of his clothes.
