Arthur B. Jennings to Play Attractive Program on Instrument in the Auditorium of Houston Hall

Part of the policy of the Pennsylvania is to make musical culture accessible to students here, and to-day the concerts of the University, which are free to the University. In accordance with this, the Organ Committee is arranging a number of musical recitals, of which the open to the students. The best of these will be an organ recital on the Houston Hall organ by Arthur B. Jennings, Jr., of the University of New York City. Jennings is an or-

Gymnasium Roster is Out

All students in Arts, Biology and Wharton School who have not yet obtained their lockers and arranged their room or gymnasium should do so at once, as classes start on Monday, November 1, and every man should be ready for his first class.

Gowning to the shortness of the term, the regulation (10 per cent) only admits of four cuts, and the second term, being only 8 weeks long, will be crowded to the doors.

Joint Concert Arranged With Cornell.

After considerable delay, owing to the early filling up of schedules by both colleges, a satisfactory date has been arranged between the Combined Musical Clubs of Cornell and the University of Pennsylvania. As usual, the concert will be held at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel, Philadelphia. The Cornell Pennsyl-

(The Pennsylvania welcomes com-

Dear Editor:—There comes now the usual intemperance of the oppositions

student, who walks forth.—"What is the Athletic Association? Who are they and what do they do?"

Yet, how dare we poor undergraduates speak a word for our own rights?

The fact that we are regular matricu-

lates speaks a word for our own rights.

Saturday's affair on Franklin field was a disgrace to Pennsylvanians and showed what diplomatic men are at the head of affairs.

Apparantly the time has now come when undergraduates are useless (besides being a nuisance).

Shy officials, bedecked in gorgeous array, "polled in" from the political grantees of Philadelphia, are now in order. Franklin Field has at last reached that pitiful state where consideration is the first thought.

Mercenary ideas prevail and the rich of the policemen rules the hand of the students.

Ye shades of Ben Franklin! What a state of affairs has been reached

when men who are elected by the students to hold office employ a crowd of thugs to use their clubs on the students anil their rights be driven.

GOLPERS HARD AT WORK.

University Tournament Started—Team Has Scoring Three Victories.

All the matches except one, in the first round of the individual golf tournament for the championship of the University, have been played, and the results are as follows: H. F. Kich- nor defeated McFarland, Brulleigh de- feated Cunnor, Hastings defeated Ketchup, Kitchin defeated A. Kirch- nor, Heyburn defeated Howie, McCull defeated Shumaker, and Blair defeated Harlow. The last match, between Lease and Pratt, will be played today.

The drawings for the second round, which will be played before Saturday October 26th, are: Kitcher vs. Bur- lleigh, Hastings vs. Houston, Heyburn vs. McCull, and Blair vs. the winner of the Legg-Pratt match. The win- ner of the tournament will be given a handsome silver cup.

The University of Pennsylvania Golf Club has made an excellent record this year, having defeated Law- renceville 12 to 3, Princeton 5 to 1, and Slippery 8 to 3. The last match of the fall season will be played in Wil- liamson on November 6th, and the men will be on the beam, the largest number which has ever played on a golf team of the University.

Final Crew Practice Today.

Crew practice yesterday was in many respects similar to that of other days. The first Dental and 2nd Vol- untary crew were on the river in the morning, and the Clara crews, first and second Architectural, and second Dental crews practiced in the after- noon. The Oeropede was out and showed fine form.

Coach Ward gave especial attention to the first Architectural boat, following them from the barn-house to Col- umbia and down bridge and back to Gil- lard avenue bridge, where he picked up the second Architectural boat. He apparently was quite well satisfied with the work of the first Architectural boat, as he made very low criticisms. The last practice before the race of the season will be held today or the usual hours.

Motor Cyclists Elect Officers.

With the view of arranging runs around Philadelphia and trips to different parts of the State, the Motor Cycle Club held its first meeting ever, in Room 206, College Hall. Every Saturday the members of the Association will take a trip to some interesting place. Election of offi- cers were held and resulted as fol- lows: President, W. D. Warner; Vice- President, T. C. Heber; Secretary, and Treasurer, R. R. Wilson.
