LAFAYETTE TIES VARSITY

Defeat Narrowly Averted in Closing Moments of Thrilling Struggle. Hutchison the Hero.

Innumerable defeats at the hands of the powerful Lafayette eleven was broken yesterday. On Franklin Field, when, with the Maroons and White in the lead, and with less than three minutes to play, Warwick carried the ball across the goal line.

It marked the return to the game of the full-back, after an absence of three weeks, and he signified his return by a series of bolting runs that dashed the spectators and showed that the most rapid man on the first-rate Lafayette's goal line for the first time in weeks.

Lafayette's defensive play was a marvel of its kind. The few times that White got a chance to make a kick from the open field, it was创造 by a player, who was dismissed on the warning. Three players on the field for much of the game were dismissed on the warning. The end played magnificently and gave White an excellent chance for a win in the last quarter with their fierce tackling. The Lafayette players, who were the apparent stars of the game, made one running kick that pulled the Maroon off to several good runs. McCaa in the second half, and then kicked to Scott the ball on a fumble; Lafayette made an 11-yard ime. McCaa punted to midfield, Hook kicked off to ('.mover on the 20, and, after a few minutes, and once conover was soundly beaten, in the game until the last quarter, and then kicked to the University to-night with the ball at last. The defense of the Lafayette was far from perfect, and the offense was excepiionally strong in the first half of the game was repeatedly broken up by the fast and skillful tackling.

The kick-off was down and quickly and twice a fumble was an excellent return of the Blue and red player. Such misplays allowed Lafayette to come and score which was almost as well supported as was the open. The corner punt was the organ revel in the Houston Club—

MUSICAL MISSIONARIES WILL BEGIN UNIVERSITY CONVERSION

Philadelphia Orchestra to Play the First of a Series of Six Concerts in the Gymnasium, with Theadous Rich as Solost, and the "New World" Symphony for Its Leading Number, at 8:15 This Evening.

It is reported on reliable authority that a man of the name of Orpheus dragged some stones and moved them off from their place to come to him and hear him. There is no record of any equal with his exploit, and the only fact comparable to it in modern times is the journeying about of talented missionaries to the most distant place, in order to teach the truth to those who have never heard a word from a Christian.

In somewhat the same spirit the Philadelphia Orchestra is about to make a pilgrimage to the University tonight, and the students of West Philadelphia. Its appearance serves the double purpose of forthwetting its own usefulness among the people of Philadelphia, and also, as a matter of the musical campaign which the Pennsylvania has undertaken for the benefit of the local churches, to give the North Philadelphia band a real chance on the football field. The two organs are to be heard on Saturday night at the University.

The four men made a very favorable showing, and their work has materially heightened the prospects for a future winning team. Juniors to Make Merry

Third Year Men Arranging for Junior Week—Seeking Subsidize for Army and Navy Game.

With the approach of Thanksgiving week, the Junior Class is beginning to make preparations properly to celebrate the time. For some reason buried in the depths of long tradition the minds of third year men turn toward party with the approach of the turkey season, and for long it has always been their custom to glorify with much rejoicing the Thanksgiving week. The programme this year will include, with one exception, all the usual events. The one omission will be the Army and Navy game, which has long served as the grand finale of Junior Week. To fill its place the committee is trying to find some substitute, and various suggestions have been received. The one which has been looked upon with most favor is a visit to Mr. Hammes’s head of one on Saturday evening.

The festivities of the week will probably be ordered on Wednesday evening by the annual concert given at theedwards-struck by the united Cornell and Pennsylvania Musical Clubs. On the following afternoon, Thanksgiving Day, the Cornell-Penn football game will be the attraction, and immediately upon its conclusion the third year men will proceed to the Houston Club, where the annual tea will be held. In the evening, if the plans of the committee can be consummated, a theatre party will be given. As yet no arrangements have been made as to which of the various playhouses are to be visited, but the one which seems to be meeting with the greatest favor among the Juniors is the Lyric, where the attraction will be "The Jolly Bachelors," a musical comedy now scoring a success in New York City.

On Friday evening the big event of the week will take place, when the Junior Ball will be held in the Gymnasium. What the programme for Saturday will be has not as yet been definitely determined. At a meeting of the Committee, held in Room 306, College Hall, Wednesday, at 1 o'clock, the following sub-committees were announced:

Freshmen Lose Hard Game.

Defeated by Strong Mercersburg Team by Score of 17-6.

Mercersburg, playing with her usual speed and ferocity of attack, and executing effective forward passes, defeated the Pennsylvania Freshmen Saturday, 17-6. The resulting score was a surprise. Even the most faithful supporters of the first year team did not expect to see their favorites put up the defense that they did. Although the first year men got off their forward passes and open field place successfully, they were unable to check the fearsome onslaught of the up-state school team. The preparatory school eleven played a spectacular game throughout, being particularly good on the offensive. A looseness of interference and a lack of team work were serious faults in the playing of the 1913 men.
