JUNIOR WEEK PROGRAM OUT

Attractive List of Ullets Arranged by Young Woman's Union. Private Room Secure for Entire Class.

Paul Archbald, B. A., and Dr. A. E. Price are the fortunate ones chosen for the Junior Class. Their programs will be completed, and, in spite of the fact that they have been interven-ted by the unexpected cancellation of the Army-Navy game, the contests have not been missed from an attractive schedule of activities. Fortunately, the opera is always a pleasant event, and this year Mr. Thayer has been put in charge for the entire Junior Class as a sub-

G incident. The game will be opened with the Philadelphia Orchestra concert, Thursday, November 18, at 8 P. M., at the Academy of Music. The season opens with "Hansel und Gretel," a musical comedy, and the opera "Hansel und Gretel" is due to take place in the Academy of Music. The opera is to be held on Franklin Field after the game, with the addition that it will be held on Franklin Field after the game, at which time the opera will be held. PAUL UNABLE TO COMPETE ton"Cornell Expects to Win.

Captain "Pauly" Paul, on whom Pennsylvania pins her greatest hope of securing the first pennant in the Intercollegiate cross-country race, which will be held under the auspices of M. I. T., will be unable to compete.

Paul, who has been pressed by his scholastic work and has not been able to come to the front in his races, has decided that he will not be able to compete in the Intercollegiatecross-country race, which will be held under the auspices of M. I. T., on the 18th of November. He has told his coach that he will not be able to compete in the race, and he has informed his coach that he will not be able to compete in the race, which is due to be held on the 18th of November.

DEBATERS BECOMING ACTIVE

Triangular League Contests, Frazier Prize Debate and Inter-Class Matches Within the Month.

Every indication points to a strenuous season for Pennsylvania's debaters. Three teams are now at work and active preparations are on foot for the Triangular League Debate. By a combination of circumstances, the deciding choice of the "Triangular" question by the University of Pennsylvania, with the result that, after the meeting of the Varsity Debate Committee on Monday, definite announcement was made of the selection of the following question:

Resolved, That the Commission Form of Government Should Be Adopted by the Municipalities of the United States.

In present plans and prospects the Varsity teams will be chosen and at work preparatory to their coming vacation. As announced by the committee, trials for the two teams have to represent the Red and Blue will be held through December. The preliminary meets are to take place Monday, December 6, the semi-finals, Tuesday, December 13, and the finals on Friday of the same week, December 17.

Following a custom of several years, the Frazier Prize Debate will be held prior to the Triangular League Debates. Competition will be limited to those who have succeeded in making either one of the Varsity teams, and will be for cash prizes of $40.00 and $20.00 to the first and second speakers respectively. At what time this contest will take place has not yet been determined, as the matter is in the hands of the Provost awaiting final action.

Lesser developments in the debating line may be expected within the next few days, as on Friday of this week Philo and Zelo each have contests scheduled for the forum. Philo plans to travel to North Carolina to uphold the affirmative against that school of a Federal Inheritance Tax, while upon the same night, in Price Hall, Zelo will defend the negative of that proposition against Swarthmore. Juniors and Seniors will soon meet on December 3 in their annual interclass debate. The teams are hard at work and far advanced on the question of a Commission Form of Government for Cities. The speakers for the Seniors are J. E. Heritage, G. E. McCreery and R. B. Smith, while those who will represent the Junior Class are J. E. Hart, Jr. L. W. Abbott and D. C. Willard. Through the efforts of several members of the College Faculty a price of $50 will be distributed equally among the three best speakers.

Gymnastics Hard at Work.

Preliminary gym practices are now getting well under way, although the season does not start until December. At present ten men are working on the different apparatus, as follows: Tumbler, Perkins, Keller, Woll, Stauffer and Erb; parallel bars, Leitke, Kel- ler; Lewis and Rod horizontal bar, Keller, Stauffer and Erb; rings, Pur- ty, Kellett, ringside horse, Leitke, Law- ton; club swinging, Shoemaker. Man-ager McCreery is at present working on the schedule, as several of the dates have not been definitely set, he is not yet prepared to announce any of the coming winter's meets. As freshmen are eligible for the Varsity team, there is reason to hope that a championship team will be formed out this year.

Deutscher Verein to Meet.

Professor E. C. Wesselschmidt, of the German Department, will be present at the meeting of the Deutscher Verein this evening and will make an address on student life in Germany. With the great interest in Germany he is familiar. Owing to unusual weather the German verses will be recited and German student songs rehearsed by members of the society.

Cosmopolitan Club to Meet.

A smoker will be held by the Cos- mopolitan Club in the Trophy Room at the University Hotel at 8 o'clock tonight. All foreign students are cordially in- vited, and every one interested in the club.

From the original fifty-seven candidates for the Mask and Wig Preliminary election, only eighteen now remain. Three weeks of trials under the eyes of Charles S. Hoag, Sr., the Stage Director, have thinned out their ranks almost to the required number. It is, however, the intention of the management to use a small chorus, so that there is every possibility of some of the rejected candidates being re-called.

Rehearsals will begin as soon as the casting is decided, which will be in the immediate future.

The following men will report at the Mark and Wig Club House on Thursday morning, November 18, at 1 o'clock:
