ZELD-SWARTHMORE DEBATE

Zeol debaters will be pitted against a team from Swarthmore College this morning, in Price Hall. The debate will be over the question, "Resolved. That Congress should be a progressive inheritance tax, constitutionally conceived." The Zeolophobe Society holds the enviable record of having won seven out of eight debates in the last two years, but tonight the strength of its team is unknown, as none have participated in a Varsity debate before. The Zeol nominees will be J. C. Willis, "L" captains; H. Dallabough, S. Y.; Young, P. M., and [name] J. A. Deasy. The Zeolophobe team of Mr. Stephen S. Tomlinson, with [names] S. M. No. 1, S. M. No. 2, and E. P. No. 1 includes a new member, Mr. John D. Tarbell, a member of the student body. The debate will be held in Zelo Hall next Thursday.

SARSIT PRACTICE SNAPPY

Men Put Through First Hard Drill Session

The practice session began at 5 o'clock. The waiting room was filled with the students who had made arrangements to spend the afternoon in the nearest hospital. The students were then divided into groups and each group was assigned to a different task.

With weather conditions perfect for lively playing, footballers to the number of 200 made their way to the undefeated Yale team. The Yale football team is one of the strongest in the country, and their practices are always of the highest order. The Yale team is expected to win the game against Pennsylvania, but the Buckeyes are not to be taken lightly. The game is scheduled for tomorrow afternoon.

The practice session began at 5 o'clock. The waiting room was filled with the students who had made arrangements to spend the afternoon in the nearest hospital. The students were then divided into groups and each group was assigned to a different task. The practice session began with a series of passing drills, followed by running and blocking exercises. The players were then divided into two teams and played a game of football.

The game against Yale was held at 5 o'clock. The Buckeyes were well prepared and played an excellent game. However, Yale was the stronger team and took an early lead. The game ended in a close victory for Yale, with a score of 14-10.

The following week, the Buckeyes played against the undefeated Harvard team. The game was held at 5 o'clock and was expected to be a close contest. However, Harvard emerged victorious, with a score of 21-14.

STUDENT PUBLISHES BOOK

C. F. White, "'11 L., Author of "Plea of the Negro Soldier and a Hundred Other Poems."

Charles F. White, '11 L., a consistent point winner on last year's Freshmen track team, has published a book which has been described as remarkably clever by several foremost authors.

His book, "Plea of the Negro Soldier and a Hundred Other Poems," which he himself set up and printed while in school at William Penn College in 1908, has been favorably reviewed by many of the great daily papers of the country, and has, since Mr. White's matriculation in the Law School, been further honored with a place on the shelves of the University Memorial Library, of which Mr. George Nauman, editor of "Old Penn," is in charge.

Besides the numerous newspapers and periodicals which have reviewed the book, several persons of excellent literary ability have pronounced its collection worthy of consideration, and a number of the best of his poems have been published and copied by such papers as the "Springfield Republican," "Springfield Union," "New Haven Register," "Chicago Daily News," and many other more or less important organs of public expression. By many prominent persons of his race Mr. White is said to portray greater power of inspiration and real poetic soul than any other Negro poet in America.

With pages of press notices to the credit of his versatile achievements White is rather inclined to be quiet and somewhat unassuming, persistently pursuing his course of education, but being wholly self-dependent for his expenses, he is now selling copies of his book to enable him to finish his studies.

Water Polo Prospects Bright.

Water polo practice has now started in earnest, and short games are participated in every afternoon at 5 o'clock. Captain Fustman is optimistic as to the outlook for the team. Fifteen men are now reporting regularly, five of whom are members of last year's team. These are Paulsen, Shum, Borden, Mathes and Wright. A change in the rules has taken place this year. Instead of having to touch the goal, players are permitted to throw the ball at the goal at a distance of fifteen feet. A goal made in this manner counts two points.

There are several places to be filled on this year's swimming team. Captain Fustman, champion fancy diver, Mogary, winner of second place in the intercollegiate championships, and Yerkes, star swimmer, have left college.

An important swimming meet with Cornell will be held regularly from now on, and Coach Kuster is particularly anxious for them. The fad this season is a rough light gray cheviot for a suit. W. W. Corcoran & Son
