COZENS FOOTBALL CAPTAIN

Golden Warriors Give Aggressive Center Unanimous Election—Race for the Ticket to Be Fixed.

E. B. Cozens, Arts '97, was yesterday afternoon unanimously elected by the members of the “trinity” baseball team to captain the eleven for the season of 1919. The fact that the aggrega- tive center was chosen to fill the position is a matter of satisfaction to both coaches and players. Cozens is the one man on the team to succeed Mil- ler, and in election was almost un- necessary. He has played a consistent game at the center position all season, never spectacular, but always in the thick of the fight. Trainer “Pike” Murphy considers him to be the “headest” player on the team.

Cozens is 22 years old and a native of Haddonfield, N. J. He received his “V” at Fall River Academy and is a member of the class of 1919.

The Zelosian Society will meet the Burand Literary Association of Co- gumn, University, at Earle Hall, in New York City, tonight, in their an- nual debate. Zelo will uphold the position that the Commission form of Government should be adopted by the university. The Commission form is judged to be the best form of government for the university.

The auditorium in Houston Hall was well filled yesterday afternoon to hear Franklin Roosevelt, author of the University of Pennsylvania’s French opera, “Héroïde.” In advance of the recital, Mr. Rosen- buam read a letter from Masse- ron, heartily endorsing his endeavors to make the university students to appreciate his work in its fullest mean- ing. Translated, it read:

“Sir—I hasten to express to you our sentiments. Your letter brings me and TOUCHES me. I am highly pleased with your efforts. You have my permission to speak concerning my works to the enthusiastic young yachtsmen at America. Thank you very much. Thank you kindly. Yours.

Philip D. BERNET.”

The speaker truly fulfilled his advertised purpose. The Weber orchestra and the Weber chorus, with the completed object of his recital was not to include the good points of the French comic opera, but to enable students to appreciate its serious features, with its fine parts and its dramatic ability.

The auditorium of the old building was packed with students and alumni, all of whom were eager to hear the French comic opera. A few students who were not interested in opera, but who were present for the purpose of seeing the opera, were also present.

The audience included many of the students who were present at the recital of the Weber orchestra and chorus.

No Charges Anticipate Close Game, with Variety of Tactics.

Freshmen and seniors will clash this afternoon on Franklin Field to re- dundant the Pennnell-Mason-Triangular League clash of last season. The Pennnell-Mason-Triangular League is a well-recognized season, and they will be well represented in the game. The game has been anticipated for some time, and it is expected to be a close one.

GOLDEN RULE CHAPEL THEME.

Dr. C. G. Child Closes His Week of Leadership This Morning.

Today is the final Chapel morning of the week and also the last time that Dr. Clarence G. Child conducts the services. His messages have been of nacional interest and force, with direct applications to student life.

Yesterday Dr. Child took the Golden Rule for his theme. He said that because of its very simplicity few sermons have ever been based upon it. To live according to the concept it sets forth is, however, a different matter.

Continuing, he said: "Keep your thoughts fixed on what you owe others, not on what others owe you; think of what you owe your parents, not of what they should do for you; think of what you owe your University, not of the burdensome task it has upon you. The following of the Golden Rule leads to peace of mind. It is the practical rule for a life of usefulness where unselfishness blossoms in its loveliest form both here and charity for all men."

Bowling.

Preliminary games are now being held in the University bowling championips. These preliminaries began on December 1 and will continue until December 11, when the various department teams will be picked according to the averages made by the men in their preliminary games.

The other interdepartmental championships will not begin until January. These bowling department teams will start their battle for the University championship. The following departments will be represented in the championship matches: Medical, Dental, Veterinary, Arts, Architecture, College Civil Engineering, Mechanical Engineering and Chemistry.

Freshman Elect Executives.

Ten men were nominated to fill the one remaining vacancy on the Executive Committee of the Freshman Class at the meeting held yesterday afternoon, and the balloting resulted in the election of G. B. Wallace. The total number of votes cast by the class have now been chosen, but the different candidates have yet to select their representatives on the committee. As a result of a meeting of the Arts Non Charles Wharton was elected from this department.

College football is at something of a crisis, and if the Canadians cannot demonstrate that their game is as interesting and less dangerous, active interest will be taken to import certain stipulations in the present football code. James J. Keenan, the old Yale tackle and coach, has received the situation very well in saying, "Cupids of American college football do not know what moves to make to better the game, and if the game is to live in America radical changes must be made. I am sure that there is nothing in sight from my range of vision that will make the play better, but until we have absorbed the better points of other styles of gridiron strategy it will be impossible to improve the game."

Lieutenant H. M. Nally, head of football at West Point, stated that fourteen members of the Athletic Council and Advisory Board of the Military Academy are going to witness the struggle. Princeton will be represented by Trainer Flood and many of the Varsity squad. William R. Langford of Trinity College, who has officiated at many of the big games in recent years, and who has taken an active part in the rule making of football, will be present with a thought to the possibilities of changing the present rules governing the college game and making it better, from a spectator's standpoint, and also to the preserving of the game. At all events, the exhibition on Saturday is sure to have a deep effect on the future of the game in the United States.

Prof. Spangler in Good Health.

Professor Spangler, Dean of the Mechanical and Electrical Engineering

Department, has practically recovered from his recent illness, and in the near future will again be seen at his desk. For the present, however, his state of health will not permit an entire resumption of his strenuous duties and

During the past few days the Professor has been seen frequently in and about the building, and has been met everywhere with an enthusiastic reception from students.

Although the firm, guiding hand of Professor Spangler has been greatly missed during the past three months, yet things have been running smoothly and it is a great tribute to his genius as an engineer and disciplinarian that such a state of affairs was made possible. Professor Stanford had charge during his absence, and a great deal of credit is due him and other members of the faculty.

Chemical Engineers Will Be Visitors.

Among the excursions planned for Chemical Engineers is a visit to the Chemical and Mechanical Engineering Laboratories of the University of Pennsylvania. The Institute is holding its annual meeting at the Hotel Walton. Many prominent men attending the session, among whom is Samuel P. Haller, the retiring president, who was formerly Professor of Organic Chemistry at the University of Pennsylvania.

partment will meet at 1 o'clock today, in Room 119, College Hall, to elect a representative to the Executive Committee.

STATE CLUBS SHOW ACTIVITY.

Maryland and Lancaster Clubs Make Plans for Holiday Festivals.

Victor-Powell Smith, the chairman of the committee of the Maryland State College, last evening upon "The Student and His Relation to the University," "State and country clubs," he said, "are important factors in this relation because their primary object is to arouse interest in the University throughout different sections of the country.

It is the intention of the Maryland Club to have prominent members of the faculty address them during the year. Plans were made for a big party, to be given in Baltimore during Christmas week. The next meeting will be the occasion for an informal smoker, some time in January.

At a meeting of the Lancaster County Club, held last evening in the Student Union, Hall plans were formulated for a smoker, to be held in Lancaster City during the Christmas holidays, for the purpose of arousing more interest among the alumni of the University there.

Goving to serious difficulties, it was found necessary to cancel the engagement of the Glee Club, scheduled to perform in Lancaster during Christmas week, and the smoker will be held instead.
