LABOR REFORMER TO SPEAK

Rev. Charles Stieble is Sunday Preacher—The Will To Do "solidarity" to Law Men Monday.

Rev. Charles Stieble, Superintendent of the Presbyterian Department of Church and Labor, will conduct the Sunday services in Houston Hall tomorrow. Rev. Charles Stieble was born in the East side tenement district of New York City, and through twenty-five yeares experience with the working classes as a labor organizer, has acquired a knowledge of labor conditions. He is a consistent cooperator in social investigation and labor organization.

Mr. Stieble, besides being a contributor to many of the leading magazines of America, is the author of several books on sociological and labor problems, his best and most popular work being "Letters from a Workman." During the winter season Mr. Stieble speaks each week to great masses of workingmen in the largest cities in the United States, having in the last four years, addressed nearly 18,000 working people.

In addition to the morning service, Mr. Stieble will address the first and second year Law students, on Monday, at 11:00 A. M., in the Law School Building, "solidarity" will be the subject of his lecture.

SYMPATHY WITH THE WEST.

Clipped from The Michigan Daily's story on the Wolverine football schedule for 1910:

"To tell the truth, the undergraduates have little use for any more eastern state. Pennsylvanians and Illinois are enough, and they would not select any others if the Quakers were dispensers with in the future. At Michigan and Pennsylvania conditions are vastly different, and the Wolverines cannot hope to compete on equal terms with the Quakers. The sympathy of the undergraduates is with the west. Rather than see Dartmouth play, they would like a game with one of the big conference colleges."

Medical School Notes.

A prize of several-five hundred dollars will be awarded to a member of the Fourth Year Class presenting on or before the Third Annual Meeting of the Undergraduate Medical Association, 1910, the best essay based upon the original investigation in Surgical Anatomy, Surgical Pathology, or Surgical Physiology. The observations may be made upon patients in the Surgical service of the University Hospital or in the laboratory of the Anatomical Laboratory, Laboratory of Experimental Pathology or of Experimental Surgery. All those desiring to compete for the prize should present to the committee of the subject to form the basis of their investigation on or before January 1, 1911. For further information, apply to members of the committee—Dr. Charles F. Frazier, Dr. John Sneece and Dr. E. Edwin Roven.

Will the members of Section 42 to 45 please call at the office Saturday morning for keys to lecture in University Hospital?

Canadians Will Demonstrate Open Play—Draper To Represent Texas at Intercollegiate Conference.

D. W. Draper, graduate of Pennsylvania State College, member of the Varsity for four years, All-American tackle, and at present regarded as football coach at Texas University, is en route to New York, where he is to act as delegate to the Intercollegiate Athletic Association. He will represent the University of Texas.

Draper will umpire the man play game as he believes the open ones more dangerous. He said the forward pass is a spectacular play, but is dangerous through leaving the player who receives the ball wholly unprotected. According to Draper, the forward pass is not really a play in which a receiver cannot use his hands to protect himself. In regard to the change in the rules, which is the most thing to be done at the meeting, Draper says: "I believe if the rules are changed they should be changed by men who really know the game, and who have had some real experience in it." He believes that the low men should play two or three feet apart. This would make it more a contest of man-to-man.

While in New York Draper will witness the football demonstration between the Ottawa and Hamilton Tigers, of Canada. One of New York's leading papers is conducting this contest with the view of agitating a more open game.

The Canadians have stated upon several occasions that their open game was "faster, cleaner and more interesting" than the game played by the States. Long passes and few penalties are the main features of their play. The American forward pass is unknown to them. They cling to the old game of passing the ball back and forth, and when having it change hands a half-dozen times or so in a long run, each man tossing the ball to his teammate upon being tackled.

The game will draw largely from the eastern institutions, but considerable interest is already being manifested throughout the country as to the outcome, and particularly the effect produced upon the delegates and members to the Intercollegiate Athletic Association, to be held at the Waldorf Astoria, in New York City, shortly before Christmas.

Due to the increased agitation in the football realm following this season, because of the sport being abused, at a few of our institutions, and as a result of the long death and injured list, practically every man in the college world is looking for rule limitations before opening theatres for 1010 gridiron struggles.

WHARTON SCHOOL NOTES.

Hereafter the standing of all students in the Wharton School will be based principally upon the term's work, the final examinations counting only one-third of the total record. The reason for this is the desire to bring the college work more into harmony with the practical conditions of business life.

Mr. Edward B. Drew, formerly a Chinese Imperial Customs Commissioner, and now Director of Chinese students studying in this country, is visiting the University at present, and will confer shortly with the Chinese students in the Wharton School.

Frosh Debaters Chosen.
At the Philadelphia debatist trials, held last night, the following men were chosen for the team which is to meet the Philadelphiaw Society of Columbia University: Carl Hoover, C. A. Davis, W. N. Crowe and W. L. Abbott, alternate.

Freshman Fritz is Executive.
At a meeting of the Freshmen Engineers, yesterday, in Room 110, College Hall, to elect representatives to the Executive Committee, R. L. Fritz, C. R., of Scranton, Pa., was the successful candidate by a small majority.

Combined Musical Club Notice.
All men meet at Thirty-eighth and Market streets, at 7 P. M. to-night, for concert at Ardmore High School.
