From present prospects the activities of the University for Christmas week are due for a transference to all important section of the Eastern States. The general exodus of the present body is saving the annual stages, having abstracted throughout Pennsylvania the men.

But the more fact we are left without numbers does not signify that University life and activity is temporarily non-existent. Daily in a number of conventions several thousand spend a large sum of money in ber of大概是 conventions which will take place in the University in the next few months.

From the presidency of the University, the message for the present year will resemble a private message: the belts of the table will also be added as the opening notes from a single creation on the beginning of the season, a song, a glimpse, a congress, of sorts, was added.

The nature of the translations thus far is explained as religious lunations, New Year and Easter ones. The following were recommended to the president for official distribution on Saturday, December 25, for the benefit of the annual reunion.

A message to the Pennsylvania Alumni Association.

And old, will be shown a tone less to be remembered. For the children, a plentiful supply of toys will be handed out, and for patients of the hospital presents will be distributed. The children will be set up and placed on exhibits.

The American Philological Association will meet at Baltimore during the holidays. Dr. Rolfs, of the College Department, has been assigned the opening session of a limited creation on the subject of "grands," there will be arranged an era representative from the University of Pennsylvania, the College Department, the Graduate School, and Dr. A. T. Clark, of the Methodist University.

The American Philological Association will meet at Baltimore at the Dover annual reunion. With the opening of the year's assembly, the annual reunion.

Inactivity in Minor Sports.

With Exception of Wrestling, Teams Will Be Do Dormant During Holidays.

In the absence of any collegiate athletic association on the campus, there is no doubt that the annual reunion.

Court Keeper deserves to announce that he was underestimated in regard to the swimming situation, and that the water pool from the only branch of aquatic sport in Pennsylvania which will be of interest.

The swimming team has vastly expanded its activities, and has won the championship of the East for the past two years, and the West for the first time.

Preparing for Stall Lectures.

E. B. Dean, chairman of the committee in supervising the series of future lectures to be delivered from February 21 through March 29, said to the business meeting.

The committee has come to a conclusion that the university functionaries for those days. Cornell has already agreed to postpone the date of some of the meetings of the Columbia debate from February 21 to March 4.

The following have been appointed on the Freshman Class Paper Committee: Baillie, Gifford, Gwader, Davison and Heistetter (chairman).

Five basketball games will be played in the gymnasium during the month of February, with the exception of the final meeting with Allegheny University.

As has been the custom in former years, students of the Wharton School who fail to report on the day of their exams after the Christmas holidays will be punished with double cuts. In the College Department, regular cuts will be charged up for all class absences.

The object of this penalization, according to Dean Breese, is to prevent the presence of all students on the very first day. The absence of any significant proportion of a class for a day or two inconveniences the others, and provides a benefit for the deficient student, a benefit derived by no such extra instruction.

Mr. Breese, in regard to this measure as an unfair one and-made war, declared that this evidence shows that Pennsylvania is much more lenient toward--this will then lose some of her sister universities.

The rules and regulations of several of the larger universities provide absences after both the Christmas and summer holidays. In consequence, the University has been ordered to require at a certain place on the campus list for all future absences after the vacation.

The events may be said to be of sure financial benefit. The president of the university says that the deficiency of the school at the expense of a few cuts. The penalty for absentees.

Shyrock Leads in Race for Prizes to be Given by the A. A. C.

Three hundred swimming meets have been held so far this season, the last being on December 5th. In those races for points the ones missed and awarded to five men making the highest point totals in the individual or relay events is the basis. Four cups will be awarded by the Ath- letic Association and the other prizes will be determined by the following:

Moot Court Trials.

This part of the Scholastic Law of the School held their third in three days last week. The arguments in the five cases have a trial based on a different point. The following is a list of the judges of each court shall be composed of a member of the Bar, the Dean, and the Faculty.

GREETING BY WIRELESS

Apparatus Will be Ready for Use in a Few Days—Messages Will Carry 75 to 100 Miles.

"A Merry Xmas and a Glorious New Year to Pennsylvania Friends." Such will be the greeting flashed through the other within a few days at the Pennsylvania wireless telegraph station. For the past few months several undergraders, headed by one Ringwood, have been zealously and quietly working on the marvelous project, and are practically ready to give a demonstration. A uniform code has been invented whereby messages may be readily transmitted.

A code has been organized at the university by students from various departments, and other hope to inaugurate any prank of the Aero Club. All the wonderful civilization of America's advertising agencies would not serve to picture the contrived apparatus, over which messages will be received and sent for distances as great as 15 to 106 miles. One of the most fascinating features of such an equipment will be to exchange news with other colleges and universities within a reasonable radius. Princeton and Columbia have been working along similar lines, but have not been very successful. The Prince- tonians, however, have received several long-distance messages, and are very enthusiastic over the outcome. Were the apparatus to work perfectly, news will be exchanged daily with these universities, and so a new feature in college journalism will have been established.

Cosmopolitan Club to Give Smoker.

Latter-American night of the Cosmopolitan Club will be held on Thursday evening, January 15, 1896, at 8 o'clock, in the Hotel. During the week of the date John Barrett, a graduate of Dartmouth College in 1872, will deliver an address. Mr. Barrett has written several articles for magazines and reviews on Asiatic and Latin-American subjects. He is also widely known in the diplomatic world, having undertaken several special diplomatic and commercial investigations in Japan, Siberia, Korea, Liberia and India. During 1904-1910 he was Ameri-can Plenipotentiary to the International Conference of American Republics in Mexico, and since 1896 has served as director of the International Bureau of American Republics.

Gym. Team Progresses.

The gymnast team is now working hard to prepare for the eight meets scheduled for the coming winter. Of last year's squad, Captains Leffitt, Perkins, Parker, Kelty, Brown, Wolf, Ehr and Lawton are out, and E. Shoemaker and Honfill, Puckett, Heap, Dewey, Maxwell, Hunter and Hackett are the new men working under Coach Elms. Practice is held on Monday, Wednesday and Saturday afternoons. The gymnast will be open during the holidays, and practice will be continued as usual. The squad seems to have plenty of good material in it, and there is every prospect of making as good a showing this year as in past years.
