CHANGE SPIRIT, NOT RULES

Dr. R. T. McKenize, Vice-President of the Intercollegiate Athletic Assn., disclosed a new phase of the meeting of the Association at the Athletic Hotel on New York Street, at which the dates were held. The Whirlwind Challenge was renewed in New York City, on December 28, when he said in an interview suggesting that the feeling of the meeting was that there was not so much the usual mutiny to be done, but that the trouble lies in the fact that the men who form the spirit of the rules are adhered to, and that something should be done to prevent the temptation to get around the rules. From the time of the discussion on books through the present professor-coaching system would it be possible for rules to be limited as it is present to it is in the interest of the institution. The suggestion was that the rules which will give them a team advantage.

In discussing the meeting, he said, "The meeting session was devoted to the making of speeches, and the McKenize for the afternoon's discussion. Chairman of the Board of Directors, spoke on the "Functions of Athletics" and the purposes of athletic activities against competitive athletes. "Over the next four years, I feel that the Associated Athletes' was the subject of the meeting, Huron, of Purdue. He spoke of a spirit de l'etat making it the most comprehensive and well done change.

The meeting worked out a part of the afternoon, but the point of most interest herein is the presentation of the report of the Football Committees, which was discussed at great length.

The subject of the number of fatalities between the two teams was made by R. M. McKenize, who showed that there had been a reduction in the number of fatalities due to football from 32 to 14. No information on the number of fatalities could be gathered about five of the fourteen, but of the remaining nine fatalities, six occurred in five games, three schoolboys in five games, and one a player in the athletic club. It was shown that no deaths occurred in diving, and in Blue plays in the first day in February. McKenize was in attendance by the Board of Directors of the Central High School of this city.

The question of athletics was during discussions by all who had to rule, and it is filled with a lot of trouble. The number and nature of rules made it impossible to be a spirit of the fight fields.

President Alderman, of the University of Wisconsin, made a speech in which he said that the Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin would support the playing of football, but that he was opposed to the idea of the Board of Regents, and that the board of the rules was then not present, but that a logical change in the spirit of rules was imperative.

The President of the Committee will meet with the old Rules Committee, which was composed of the members of the American Association of Athletics, and the one that is on the National Committee is not represented by the American Association.

Meet for Novice Wrestlers. January 2, 1910, will see a new match among the best wrestlers among the students in the various colleges. This match will be held at the White City Hotel, and the best wrestlers from the various institutes will enter, while from the University team, all men will be chosen. It will be spread out in the holidays. None of the coaches were present to parison to the direction of the College Athletic Association.

A NEW COMMENT.

There is nothing of material value in the universe which does not at some time or other reach the unoccupied critical moment. The critic, so to speak, is faced and it is this situation which marks the progression or degeneration of the project.

It is somewhat in this same light we consider the situation of the Philadelphia Orchestra here at the University. There is, however, nothing fundamental upon which we can even place this great proposition. No precedent has been set, for their advent is to bear a thing which is of vital importance to the progress of the University.

TRACK MEETS ARRANGED.

Red and Blue Team May Compete Once a Week This Winter.

Although the Faculty Committee has not as yet ratified the indoor track schedule, which was put before them, those in charge of both branches of Pennsylvania's athletics feel confident that there will be an indoor meet every week during the winter.

Manager Burns has, however, completed arrangements for two meets, one to take place in Madison Square Garden, New York, on January 24, and the other on February 12, at Boston.

Although it was stated in yesterday's issue of The Pennsylvania that Pennsylvania captured the team title in last year's meet at Madison Square Garden, this has been found to be wrong, as the Blue put most points, with the Red and Blue second.

A new departure will be introduced this year in the sending of men for the open events. In the past the relay team finished Pennsylvania's only entry.

In the Boston meet on the 12th of February, four men are to be run by each man and the packets to be run by three men of no particular selection. The track meet is expected to show some entries in the open events at this meet also.

Two Concerts in January.

A concert of the Combined Musical Clubs will be held at Bridgetown, N. J., on the night of January 22, under the direction of the local undergraduates. The Clubs will be entertained at various homes parties over night.

Another concert will be ordered at John Wanamaker's Department Store on January 30. This will be another occurrence in the Musical order of the city.

The Mandelbush Club will introduce "Carnival Racines," a selection arranged by Paul Roen, which promises to be one of the most beautiful and delightful melodies rendered by the Choral department this year.

The Orange Club will add a new selection called "Hikers' Requiem," also arranged by Paul Roen. This is the last concert which has been scheduled until the annual trip in February. This will again be through New England, which has been stated several times before by the Clubs, but where they are always tendered a most cordial reception.

The program will consist of a number of songs at the beginning of next week in preparation for this trip.

"Kontronik," a musical comedy produced by the undergraduates at Michigan University during the week preceding vacation, scored a tremendous hit.

His subject will be: "The Religions of Babylonia and Assyria - Summing Up the Investigations for the Past Twenty Years."

He will deliver the opening lecture today at the Lowell Institute in Boston. The entire course of six lectures will be delivered before each of the following seven institutions: Lowell Institute, Menasha Theological Seminary, Chicago University, Union Theological Seminary, Drew Institute, Johns Hopkins University and Brooklyn Institute. The subjects of the lectures will be as follows: "Culture and Religion," "The Pantheon," "Divination," "Theology," "The Temple and the Cult," "Life After Death - Eternity."

EXCHANGES.

Track prospects are unusually bright at Michigan this year, according to Trainer Fitzpatrick.

The Michigan Daily devoted its last issue before the holidays entirely to telling of the glorious deeds of the Wolverines, past and future.

The Yale Dramatic Association presented "London Assurance" with great success during the vacation. Performances were given in Washington, Baltimore, Orange, Bridgewater, Waterbury, Hartford, Meriden, Poughkeepsie and New York.

The Cornell Musical Clubs took an extensive trip during the holidays. The itinerary was as follows: Scranton, Pa., New York, Savannah, New Orleans, Mobile, Birmingham, Savannah and Philadelphia.

The clubs will take a trip through New England later in the year.

PENN MEN MEET IN SCRANTON

Three hundred Pennsylvanians, to- gether with an encouraging sprinkling of prospective Pennsylvania men, gath- ered at Scranton during the holidays in one of the most successful smokers that the Lackawanna County Club has yet had. It was the eleventh annual reception, and easily surpassed the similar affairs that have been given in the past.

Dean Fisher, of the College Depart- ment, represented the University and carried to the assembly of Pennsyl- vanian men the greetings of the Prov- ost and Vice-Provost. Dr. Fisher launched pit with enthusiasm into the principal address of the evening, and touched briefly on the many years of wonderful work that Pennsylvania has been doing and the wonderful results forward we have been making within the last few years.

Following the talk of Dean Fisher a series of eastern slides pictured the various buildings of the University and its student life, which had come in for a large share of the discussion of the evening.

SWIMMERS START HARD WORK.
First Intercollegiate Meet with Colum- bia About January 15.

Since the last bi-monthly swimming meet, on December 13, that sport has been dormant.

With the opening of college Coach Klotzler will start to whip his men into shape for the first intercollegiate meet of the season, which will be held some time during the week of January 10. The rest of the schedule has not been finally arranged. As the Orchestra will not be held next Monday evening it is probable that the next bi-monthly meet, scheduled for that day, will be possible in January after they have been disciplined for the swimming team.
