HOLLAND ON STAINED GLASS

Windows of Middle Ages Subject of First Lecture Under Auspices of Architectural Society Tonight.

Leicester B. Holland, '91 C, will talk tonight at 8 o'clock in the Architectural Library, third floor of College Hall, on "Stained Glass," particularly that found in the great French Cathedrals of the Middle Ages.

This is the first of a series of lectures given to undergraduates of the College under the auspices of the Architectural Society by non-architects engaged in the application of the future arts. On January 29th, Mr. Albert Kelso, former president of the American Institute of Architects, will speak on an subject connected with the modern phases of civic development, such as planned at Washington and Chicago and dreamed of for Philadelphia. On March 11th, Mr. Nicola D'Ascenso, of D'Ascenso Studios, will speak on the applications of stained and painted glass to modern life and its design and construction. It is planned to have a selector and a mural decorator to complete the series.

Mr. Holland is a graduate of the Architectural Department, and, while still in college, was interested in all the activities of his class. He was a member of the Prince Pons Society, secretary of the Architectural Society and took an active part in undergraduate dramatics.

On graduating he was selected for Europe and spent most of his time in studying the stained and painted glass in churches and churches near Paris. He has made many measured and colored drawings of the windows at Chartres, St. Denis, Laon and Limoges, and these drawings will be used to illustrate his talk this evening.

EXCHANGES.

The Boston Tech. hockey team received its first defeat of the season yesterday at Boston.

Bernbrook, Michigan's All-American guard, has been elected to captain the team in 1910. Joe Miller would not have been the logical choice if he had not been declared ineligible.

Mrs. Russell Sage donated $650,000 to secure the Hillhouse Avenue Park to Yale University, in memory of Abraham Pierson, the first President of Yale. This will be a valuable addition to Yale's campus.
INDOOR TRACK FLOURISHING

Three Scheduled Meets So Far Arranged—Probable Contest with Princeton Later.

In an interview, "Mike" Murphy said that if the track team keeps up its work and does somewhat better they will stand a good chance in the Intercollegiate meets. About fifty men are running now, a larger number than were reporting before Christmas. The work is being well done, and, what is more, the men take an interest in it.

On January 3 the first big men on the schedule is held at the Pansical Athletic Club, in New York. As yet it cannot be definitely stated which men will make up the team to be sent to New York, but, according to the showing made by the runners, the following men stand the best show: W. Hough, H. Harlock, H. Church, J. Smith, W. Paull and R. Ramsdall. As high jumpers, Lane and Burdick, Manager Burns also will probably take one or two men for sprinting.

On February 7 there will be a trip to Buffalo, N. Y., and a relay entry for Pennsylvania will be made in the Intercollegiate meet held there. The most prominent men for this trip are Captains W. C. Paull, J. B. Baker, F. M. Boyle, William Leveontin, J. Smith, H. Church and R. J. Tyson. Several other men are to be chosen.

A trip to Boston, on February 11, is next scheduled. No men have been selected for this trip, but the choosing will be based entirely upon the showing made by the men in the other meets.

Further than this the schedule has not been completed, but it is certain that on some date later than February 13 a trip will be made to Princeton. Relays of 390 yards will be run by each man. The other dates will be published in those columns.

DUNCAN UNJUSTLY RECEIVED.

Greek Aesthete Should Have Met with Honors. Student Hermet Thoughts.

Dear Pennsylvania.

Among the various matters which were called to my attention during the past week was a subject which seemed an inconceivably narrow viewpoint for a University of the liberality of Penn- sylvania to advance as a standard. I refer to the brief reception accorded the University by the University to Raymond Duncan. Will some one answer through the columns of The Pennsylvania why Mr. Duncan was snubbed so harshly? Although by no means an advocate of the Creek Hessus as winter gait for the student, one who is ready to decry Wagner as harsh and barbarous, yet I seem that there is much to be pondered over in the creed of Mr. Duncan and his beautiful Athenian wife, the famous apostles of Greek music and dancing.

In fact of the Greek people are admittedly the noblest superi- ors to any race who have bred, and, especially as in the field of art and literature—and why not music—we ought willingly to listen to those who would revive the ancient arts. It is a debt to civilization.

And yet, when one who has made a life study of the character of Hellenic culture, and who claims to be able to interpret the Greek musical system, and, finding great beauty therein, when this one knocks at our doorstep he is spurned! I should like an explanation, for to me it seems without reason, and unprophet.

HERMET STUDENT.

Latin-American Night.

Another interesting number has been added to the program of entertain- ments to be given on Thursday by members of the Latin-American Club. This consists of "an illustrated talk on Latin-American cities," by Mr. Long. To satisfy impatients, the committee in charge of the matter wishes it to be understood that all those who want to attend the meeting may do so without the need of an invitation, and that no admission will be charged.

Success, and the Glee men, with J. R. Hays, leading, surpassed all previous performances.

Behemeth are being held frequently in preparation for the mid-winter New England tour, which will begin January 25, when the Combined chorus will appear before the audience of the New York Audience at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York City. A banquet will be held the visiting clubs after the concert. From New York City the men go to Middlebury, Vt., where they will render only Pennsylvania songs, that being the desire of Wesleyan University. Here the musicians will be entertained with either a smoker or a reception. From Middlebury the numbers will journey to Springfield, Mass., where it is possible that a joint concert with Amherst is to be arranged. February 5 will be spent in Worcester, where either a smoker or a reception will be given. The final concert will be given in New York City February 5.

Tomorrow afternoon the Clubs leave for Bridgeton, N. J., where they will be entertained at a house party after the concert.

CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION CALL.

Men Wanted for Leadership in Foreign Countries Desired.

As a result of the recent Student Volunteer Movement, in which many splendid undergraduates took part, a call is now being made for graduates for Christian work in foreign countries. Men are wanted especially from the engineering and medical schools, although positions are offered for those interested in the development of outdoor sports, and an urgent request has been made for Pennsylvanians architects, to handle business enterprises and teach that branch in foreign schools. Besides these offers, the Christian Association announces the desire for business managers to handle the business affairs of missionary stations and to run the business affairs of colleges. Physical directors, too, are in need. Full information as regards qualifications, terms, etc., will be furnished by Dr. H. M. Ziesler, of the Student Volunteer Movement Mission of New York City. Information may also be had at the Christian Association.

There is great excitement at Yale incidental to the numerous Prom activities.
