PERENNIAL "LUCIA" THIS WEEK

Trotziani will be in charge of the musical program.

ENTOVATE TO STIMULATE GREATER INTEREST IN AQUARIUS SOCIETY. "LUCIA'S" DATE CHANGED TO JUNE 25.

As the rowsing season approaches, the arrangements are being made for races which Pennsylvania expects to take place on Lake Erie. Feeling that a larger number of races in Philadelphia will create a greater interest among the student body, the Rowing Committee has arranged for the next several contests to be over a greater range of distances.

At a meeting of the Baldosthople Club, Thursday evening, the date of the annual race was changed from Wednesday, June 8, to Saturday, June 25. The reason for this is that the school did not want to conflict with the date for the Baltimore race, which had been arranged for the 25th, and it would have been extremely inconvenient for the public to return on Saturday to see the races. During the week, several of the public who had been interested in the races, and also those who had not been able to see them, were able to return in time for the affair.

The American Rowing Association and the American Amateur, have arranged their regattas for the 8th and 23rd of August. In addition to the races, there is another number of events, which are the races, which have been decided on for the first time.

avernie, between Thirty-sixth and Thirty-seventh, between Thirty-sixth and Thirty-seventh on the right side of Woodland Avenue. I doubt, but would it not be more fine streets, art told that I wanted a place with all the college men. But there is no doubt that the University is merely in need of this addition to its already equipment. This question is beyond dispute if one takes a stroll along Hamilton Walk and passes a manual glaze over the old Biological Hall, in which at the present time the Zoological Department is housed. But, on the other hand, we can easily refrain from too many thoughts over this University expansion, though which a college man is bound to indulge in when he perceives the Biological Department getting the big share of the pie. Why are not some of the funds which are being raised devoted to the Improvement of College Hall? Can one deny that the improvement is possible? Better seats, more room, more light and better ventilation are suggestions that come to our mind on the instant. And the Library! We speak of this lastnamed place with almost mad haste. We are rather chary about casting pseudo-compliments upon this maze pile, for good nature has an end, and the building is sure to remain some day. When will a quarter of a million dollars be raised for this important unit of the University? When dreams come true, then and not until then, we fear.

The cason, the shark, and the salt water yarders are thus monumental structures, except perhaps the latter, and that was no fault of Present Har- tronie.

But we do admire our Present in more ways than one, and in some more than his exceptional ability in making himself going up around us in the right. We merely desire to suggest that money obtained with difficulty be directed towards channels where the most difficulty and discomfort lies.

Bowling Tie Broken.

Architectural Team Defeats College Team, Winning Championship.

By defeating the College team in three straight games in a match for the University Bowling Championship, on the Pennsylvanian, yesterday, the Architectural team broke the tie that existed between the two teams for first place. Banks, of the College team, made the high score of 132 and also made the high average of 114.22 for the three games. The games were well contested, as may be shown by the scores of over seven hundred, two failing in the benefit of each team. This being the case follows:

The Camera Club is busy preparing for the annual Intercollegiate Competition. A preliminary competition is now on display in the reading room of the Houston Club. The selections come from University buildings or life studies. Among these are many prints of unusual merit as artistic pictures. There are thirty-five pictures in all, including contact prints and enlargements. The judges of the exhibit were Mr. David W. Gordon and Mr. C. G. Turner. The first award, a small cup of silver called the "Cup," was awarded to J. P. Harrington, 1911 arch., for a picture entitled "The Student." Three selections were given to the following:

The University of Pennsylvania Camera Club has held the Intercollegiate title for four successive years, and this year's work indicates another prosperity period for the Pennsylvania Club.

FOOTBALL COMMITTEE TO MEET.

Question of Coaches for Next Fall to Be Discussed Today.

A meeting of the Football Committee takes place this afternoon in the office of Chairman John H. Miles in the Penn Mutual Building, when the question of who will coach the "Varsity team next fall is likely to come up. There has been much talk of late speeches of "Bill" Hollenbach, the former "Varsity" captain and All-American full-back, being engaged for the position, but when seen in regard to the matter, Chairman Miles denied that any such arrangement had been made, and said that he did not think it likely that Hollenbach would coach Pennsylvania next fall.

The coaching staff next fall will remain practically as it has been in the past few years, although no Head Coach has as yet been appointed. "Al" Smith is popularly spoken of as his own successor, and he will probably guide the fortunes of the "Varsity" again next season, with Dr. Culp Williams, John H. Miles, Dr. Wharton, Dr. Robert G. Turney, William N. N. Morton, Hunter Sorel, Harold Gaston and one or two other Red and Blue veterans on the coaches bench.

Captain Ernest Coonin has been absent from college on account of sickness for some time, so he could not be seen in regard to next year's coaches, but he is, be in favor of the old Board of Coaches and the continuance of the policy that has been responsible for Pennsylvania's fortunes on Franklin Field for the past several years. The football schedule has not as yet been made out, but Manager E. Killion Thompson and Assistant Manager Schelline are working on "Varsity and Freshman schedules, which will be finished shortly.

French Play Trials.

The French Play Trials will be held tonight at 8.30, in Room 211, College Hall. All candidates for the cast are requested to turn out promptly at the stated time.

Citizenship Assignment.

Dr. Rowan's class on Citizenship will be prepared on Thursday for a written quiz on "Day Process of Law."

The Business Manager is very anxious to obtain copies of The Penn from the libraries of the college year 1907-08. The Business Manager is in his office between 1 and 5 o'clock every day.

Princeton has decided as usual to put in operation a new system of training for the development of strength and endurance among the football men. The work will start immediately after the mid-year.

VETERINARIANS GIVE BANQUET

Dr. Gilland Appointed to State Postion in the Night of Dr. Klein, the Former Incumbent.

Dr. Louis D. Klein, the recently appointed Dean of the School of Veterinary Medicine of the University of Pennsylvania, and Dr. J. F. Gilland, the new Pennsylvania State Veterinarian, were the guests of honor at a banquet given in their honor by the Keystone Veterinary Alumni last night at Alumni Hall.

The banquet began shortly after 6 o'clock, and covers were laid for sixty persons. Speeches were made by many prominent veterinarians from all parts of the country. Dr. W. H. Hoke, in the name of the Keystone Veterinary Alumni, gave welcome to the guests of honor, Dr. Klein and Dr. Gilland.

Two of the officers of the Federal Bureau of Animal Industry, Dr. Rohrer and Dr. Meunk, were present, and both delivered speeches calling attention to the growth of the profession of veterinarians, stating that in the history of the bureau there have been no more men distinguished in the profession than in that present time.

Dr. Edgar F. Smith, Vice-President of the University, speaking on behalf of the University, said that he was glad to see the present prosperous condition of the University School of Veterinary Medicine, and hoped that it would continue to be so strong.

Dr. J. A. C. Stillwell, Secretary of Agriculture of the State of Pennsylvania, said that he was honored by the invitation to speak, and that he wished to congratulate both the students and the alumni upon their achievements in the past years, and that Dr. Gilland would fill the position of State Veterinarian as able as did his predecessor, Dr. Klein, adding that Dr. Klein filled the difficult office so successfully as to win the respect of all who had filled the office in recent years.

Governor Edwin R. Stuart, of Pennsylvania, was also invited to attend, but owing to the press of gubernatorial business he was forced to send a telegram at the last minute regretting his inability to be present.

SUPFRAGE CLUB FORMED.

Entertaining Students Plan to Aid Fair—Newberry Elected President.

Some fair-minded undergraduates in the College Department, feeling that the great sex issue is in need of champions for their cause at the present moment, have organized a Suffrage Club in their behalf. The object of the club is to give better the position of women in the polls and to abolish the unfair voting system.

Although four years have applied for membership, and if this debate increases it may be necessary to see Houston Hall Auditorium for a meeting place.

Offices were elected because of their abilities to aid the worthy cause. E. A. Newberry, '18, the president, Dr. J. E. Rider, secretary, and L. W. Robinson, treasurer.

Sophomore Dance Arrangements. Arrangements are complete for the Sophomore Dance, which is to take place Friday, January 21, in Wrightman Hall. Tickets, which include supper, may be gotten from any member of the committee, or at the door on the day of the dance; Price, $1.
