WRESTLERS DEFEATED.

Poor Showing Owes to Greenness of Man, Captain Waics Thanks.

Coach Waile, of the wrestling squad, is still confident of the team's success this year in the Intercollegiates, despite the serious revenue they encountered at State College. Waile, who was last year's captain in the 118-pound class, feels sure that the meet of last Saturday was no indication of the team's strength.

"This year's team," Waile said yesterday, "is very promising, but it still needs a little coaching. It was the best college meet that most of the men had ever entered, and recently they have been attacked with a little stage fright. This, however, will pass with experience, and I am sure we shall have the best that the Intercollegiates here, on March 19, the team shouldn't have a very creditable showing. The team, bidden by the second strongest teams in the East, having last year's team, that proves Cornell's only suit for the champinship, generally last." The meet must will be held on Saturday, February 11, with Columbia, at Philadelphia, and the team will go into the meet determined to give a better account of themselves than they did at State College.
