PENN State's Swimmers Overwhelm Harvard's in a Feat of Strength

With McNichol and Marks Out, Red and Blue lines in College March on by the absence of Captain McNichol and Marks, Penn State's swimming team swung into action last Saturday, before Columbia five in New York Saturday, but by the score of 21-11. Captain McNichol is sick in bed and Marks is down with the flu.

The Red and Blue players fought pluckily, but the heavy guns in the pink casemates on either side could not be kept at bay, but could not face the new front of work. The Red and Blue players covered their opponents on the paddle side and covered the bow side.

The Red and Blue lines ran into the water with a big start, and at the end of the first period the Red and Blue lines had the advantage. The Red and Blue lines came back in the second period, but were unable to get away from the Pink side. In the third period the Red and Blue lines ran into the water with a big start, and at the end of the first period the Pink side had the advantage. The Pink side came back in the second period, but were unable to get away from the Red and Blue side.

The game ended 31-11 in favor of the Red and Blue side.

Pennsylvania's Swimmers Overwhelm Harvard by Score of 44-4 also Win Plyo Game.

The Red and Blue team made an admirable start and tended to slow down after a hard, fast game, and with the exception of the first meeting in the gymnasium, the team was not stretched. The Red and Blue team were able to handle the game in two events.

Paul Williamson, the fastest backman to win on the only event which was taken by the Crimson. The defeated Harvard, Penn State's best swimmer, after a hard-fought race, in 21.5 seconds. Columbia's backman took the initial lead for the Harvard man for his victory in this event, as it was practically the first time that he was in the water since last season.

Latter in the evening he entered for the 22-yard race, but after swimming 100 yards he began to tire, and when Sender turned him he gave up. In the second event he was third, and, Graham fairly beaten by him for second place.

A water polo game, which Penn State's Blue line-up, could handle the meet. The large crowd which came to watch the game saw the victorious Blue line-up, the greatest outing of the season, the excelent play of Captain Foremost.

The crowd which witnessed the contest was the largest one ever to be filled out. The enthusiastic audience was made up of people. With the audience, the gallery and the sides of the stadium were full of pep and shouting, cheering for their favorite teams, the Blue line-up, for a cheer for Harvard, and for cheers for Columbia.

21st Band—Won by Penn, of Pennsylvania, 114 points; second, Columbia, 77 points; third, Joun, Harvard, 65 points.

Time, 1 minute, 52.16 seconds. Plunge for Distances—Won by Young, of Pennsylvania; second, Wilford, of Pennsylvania; third, Head, of Harvard.

The results of the games were announced by the famous six cities, many of whom are known to be the finest in the country.

GYMNASIUM PROTESTS.

The Pennsylvania has never been the friend of our gymnasiums—far from it. It has grunted under the torture of that institution for years, but to no purpose, possibly because its prisons have lacked the virtue of sys-Tem.

The Pennsylvania believes in system. It proposes to experiment with a system of process against the institution in question. These protests are to take the form of editorials. They are to be brought to the attention of those who have in their power the abolition of the regulations which decid the undergraduate's attendance at gymnasiums.

These editorial protests, endeavor to show that gymnasium has no rightful part for place in the educational life of this or any other University. The first of the articles will appear in our next issue.

IN UNDERGRADUATE SOLOIST.

For the fifth time in this college year we have the honor of welcoming to Weidman Hall tonight the Philadelphia Orchestra and its renowned conductor, Mr. Pabst.

Only one or more concert remains in the series. If the University is to be so fortunate during evening hours as to welcome regularly the Philadelphia

Orchestra, there must be a larger and more enthusiastic attendance. Last year at the two concerts which we were fortunate enough to be able to bring to the University, the Gymnasium was taxed to its utmost for room, but so far this season the attendance has not been up to the desired mark.

There must be a goodly number of listeners at these last two concerts in order that our wishes may be gratified.

As an added incentive to every University man, we take the greatest pleasure in calling attention to the fact that the soliloquy of the evening is to be one of our own undergraduates,

Mr. Wilson, of the Sophomore Class.

We all are most likely to appreciate the beauty of that the Philadelphia Orchestra bestows upon the University. Never before in the history of symphony Concerts has such an innovation been introduced. The University is to be congratulated for having on its roll such a virtuous, and Mr. Wilson merits all of the praise and distinction which is his.

Again we urge that all be on hand tonight and be witnesses to the making of musical history at Pennsylvania.

Fencing Team Loses Every Bout to the Army Representatives.

Repeating its success of last year, the

Fencing Team of the United States

Military Academy defeated the Pennsylvania team last night at West Point.

Not one bout was won by the Red and Blue Fencers. This was the first match of the season for the Cadets, who were confident despite the showing made by Pennsylvania when they defeated Yale at Brooklyn last Saturday night. Captain Wendell, of Pennsylvania, was unable to accompany the team, and his absence probably had quite a bit to do with the cumulative score made by him. The Army team consisted of two of last year's seniors, while Pennsylvania was represented by a construction team new. The defect was no by means a disaster, as the team was handicapped, and, opposed by a team that is now looked upon to repeat its success in the Intercollegiates, which it last year

Parler gave the best exhibition for the college team, and caused his opponents quite a bit of annoyance by his clever tactics. Ducgn, a new man on the Army team, put up a very above exhibition, and added still satisfactorily the only gap left in last year's team.

BRAIN AND BRAIN TO WED.

New Course Offered in Science of Physical Education.

Dr. McKenie has announced a new course in the "Theory and Practice of Physical Education." The course, which is open only to men who have passed the examination qualifying them as gymnasium leaders, will meet on Monday mornings at 5 o'clock. At the end of the year those who have attended regularly and successfully undergone an examination will receive a special certificate.

The course is designed to prepare men for positions in summer camps, public schools and playgrounds. The first meeting of the class will be held this afternoon.

The following lectures will be given:

1. Review of the Origin of Physical Education.

2. Classification of Exercises. Active and Passive.

3. Physiology of Exercise.

4. Anthropology.

5. Physical Education in the School.

6. Physiography.

7. Summer Camps.

8. Physical Education in the College.

10. Diseases and Defects of Posture.

WRESTLERS WIN EVERY BOUT

Columbia's Grapplers Fall Before Aggressive Attack--Graham Makes Record Time.

Showing a complete reversal of form, the wrestling team easily defeated Columbia in their first home meet, on Saturday night, in Weightman Hall, by the score of 7 to 0, all of the bouts resulting in clean falls. In a sense the victory was a surprise, even to the managers, for the team previous to Saturday had not showed brilliant form.

The sensation of the meet came in the heavier classes. Captain Graham, who has been overweight all season and unable to enter any previous meet, threw his man in the 172-pound class in nine seconds, which is regarded as a new record. In the heavyweight class Pike was thrown in the mat at the start of competition, but recovered almost instantly and pinned his man after thirty-three seconds.

The battle in the 125-pound class was the closest one contested of the evening. In the beginning, Glassy had his opponent almost down three times, but the Columbia man gained the top in almost the end of the bout and earned a draw. At the end of an extra period, the result was still a draw, but in the second extra period Glassy gained a fall.

Columbia has never won a wrestling meet with Pennsylvania.

BOWLERS WANDER AWBROAD.

Meet with Some Success at Wilmington in First Match of Year.

Bowlers representing the Houston Club were fairly successful in their first match, which was held Saturday afternoon on the alleys of the Wilmington, Del., Y. M. C. A. The match took place during both afternoon and evening, singles, doubles and triples being rolled in the afternoon; and a dera horse match in the evening. Considering the fact that it was the first contest in which the club team has entered, either at home or abroad, the result is very encouraging. A return match will probably be rolled at the club alleys on the first Saturday in March.

In the singles, Jablonski, of Pennsylvania, succeeded in taking three out of five games from Day, of Wilmington. In the doubles, the Houston Club team had to content with one game out of three, after winning the first game by one pin.

In the three-man competition, the Pennsylvania team was outdistanced by the Wilmington team and lost all the games.

The evening encounter, which was in the nature of a freeman match, resulted in no victory for Pennsylvania and two for Wilmington.

NOTICES

Declarer Verein pictures will be taken at 2:30 today on the front steps of College Hall. All members are urged to be on hand.

There will be a meeting on Tuesday, February 16, at 9 o'clock, in Houston Hall, for the purpose of reorganizing the Georgia State Club. All men from Georgia are urged to come out.

There are some vacancies in the membership of the boxing Club. Any student interested in boxing is invited to join the club. For further particulars apply at the Gymnasium.

STERILE YOUR SOUL

Dr. Huckel, at University Services.
Speaks of the "Antiseptic Treatment of Sin."

The Rev. Oliver Huckel, B.D., D.T., College, painter of the Associate Congregational Church of Baltimore, Md., and a minister and author of prominence, was the speaker at the Sunday morning service at the University today, in which Mr. Charles B. Morgan, Jr., and W. Boyd, B.S., were the principal speakers.

The subject of the address was "Antiseptic Treatment of Sin." He said that just as we have a multitude of antiseptic methods of preserving our physical health, so we have antiseptic methods of preserving our spiritual health.

"We are tempted to use our powers thoughtlessly, to estimate things by money value, to snatch the Divine fire within us and to run our spiritual being by dissipation," said Dr. Huckel.

That just as sure as we have antiseptic methods for the destruction of disease bacteria, likewise we have antiseptic methods for the prevention of our spiritual diseases. It was Dr. Huckel's chief thought. In answer to the question, "How can we guard ourselves against our spiritual enemies?" he referred to the Scriptures. "Set a steadfast fire against sin and foe wrestling God," he said. As a second method, he cited the Scriptural command, "Keep up your strength," for it is the week-end physical sensation that bacteria acquire.

"Live a clean life, health and strength," was his last citation. "As the principle regards to health, so it regards to our spiritual life, so the great essential to spiritual welfare is purity of heart. Purity comes as a great physician because he knows in our lives the passion for purity and health. Where are multitudes of quick remedies offered such as stein-bitter, alcohol, and amphetamines? But what do they do?" He pointed in one way in which the physical and spiritual ailments differ. As to the physical, the patient often receives aid too late, but with the spiritual it is not too late to turn back.
