New York, Manhattan—Play-Record Alumni Address.

By losing to Yale last Friday night by the score of 13 to 18, the University ended seven consecutive games without a victory to their credit, an unbroken record since 1920. The reason for the loss in this last contest the red and blue players showed a complete record of form and outplayed their opponents during practically the entire time of the contest, to be visible in the last minute of play, as view of this showing it is hoped that with Carrick, Markham and Mendenhall, who were able to defeat Columbia and Cornell, which would give an even break for the end of the series with all members of the "Big Ten." On Saturday afternoon the series continued with the defeat of the Brown University, 10 to 2.

For the second season this year athletic contests will be open to all students, with the exception of those majoring in Intercollegiate.

to the four corners of the earth and who bring forth some means of intimate touch with their University. This they can only gain through Alumni organizations. The secret of Pennsylvania's great strength lies in such present organizations; for certainty how great that strength may become when more through Alumni organization development is committed cannot easily be imagined. Every Pennsylvania graduate should be active in the cause of his University. That activity can best be displayed in connection with the Alumni Society. Every Senior should realize this fact. The best opportunity as of the end of this realization is the opportunity now afforded him.

The members of the Kansas Alumni Society Heartily wish to express their sincere thanks and appreciation for the help given to the students during yesterday's line, and for the kind offers of assistance and accommodations by the neighboring Notices

FULL DRESS SUITS

A) It is conceded that we make more suits than any other firm in the city—a fact of which we are justly proud; and we mean to retain that honor by the same means that we won it: hard work, quality, price, and style, and several other things.

At $35, $40, $45 and $50 they are much better than you usually get at these prices. At $55, $60 and $65 they will equal the high-priced tailors' suits.

B) We put large coats in all our dress suits so they can be made bigger should you gain in weight. A ready-made suit does not contain these features; so avoid them for your own good. With the Opera and social season in the foreground, now is the time to have one made: the need of the hour is at hand.

C) A white or plain vest is usually worn with a dress-coat and we have nearly one hundred patterns from which to select.

D) We would be very glad to have you and your friends call, as we think we can interest you.

PADDY WAKES THE BROTHERS UP

Fire Department Saves Furniture and Rugs Up Plaza of Kappa Sigma Abode in Early Morning Blaze.

Six brothers of the Kappa Sigma fraternity house, on Locust street, near Thirty-second street, were awakened at 5:15 a.m. by "Paddy," the fighting bull terror, who keeps tramps away, and told the brothers that a house was on fire. Nobody but "Paddy" was up when the alarm was given, and early risers were at church and the rest were in bed trying to get a larger size picture.

Before the smoke cleared away because Koda Stakley and Samuel Lyons had been overcome, "Paddy" got lost in the smoke. The brethren moved most of the belongings furniture and the "Kappa Signa" saw $1000 worth of property got a burning and a rocking down. "Paddy" after discovering flames in the cellar, pulled on states and into bed with Brother Stanley. He woke him up. Soon the rest of the sloppies were pulled out of bed and a rescue for photographs and still rocks called. They all ran out of the house, and Stakley and Lyons were overcome by the smoke when they returned for their evening clothes and "Paddy." The frenzies arrived, two on the floor of the place and showed a hole in the basement. Furniture, Bekens and cigarettes furniture was in the cellar was saved. Then the committee was compelled to save some of the furniture in the smoking room, but this work was not finished and still Warner got it into the cellar before the committee had a chance. At that point the Kappa Signa will have to have some new wall paper.

AFTER THE "Paddy" got into a fight with a yellow cat and beat his head, thorough the live.
