ESTIMATES FROM BIG MEN

Justice Brewer, President Hayford, of the University of Pennsylvania, and John R. Mott, of Evanston, are the leaders of the movement. They have been the driving force of the Pennsylvania movement.
The swimming meet between Pennsylvania and Yale, which will determine the Intercollegiate Championship, will be held in the latter's pool at New Haven tonight. As both teams have proven invincible so far this season, an extremely close contest is expected. It appears Pennsylvania seems to be a slight favorite, having defeated Princeton by the score of 38 to 15, while the Yale could secure but a two-point victory. Every event in the program is practically a toss-up, but Coach Kiefer seems satisfied with his team's success. Yale will put its faith on Richards, Howe and Buddard in the races, while Letter, who at present holds the plunge record, is pretty sure of first place in that event.

In the water polo the odds are in favor of Yale, on account of theVarsity's defeat at the hands of Princeton.

The team, accompanied by Coach Kiefer and Manager Hopkins, will leave West Philadelphia at 1 o'clock today. The entire crew is as follows:

Yale—Pennsylvania. White, Orthman, Graham, Shyrook; Yale, Rhodes, Winstontom, Stroodland, Howe.
