ENGLISH WATER POLO REVI ED

Coach Kiefer Makes Another Attempt to Bring the Foreign Game Into Popular Favor.

Now that the swimming intercollegiate meet at East Orange is finishing, Coach Kiefer is turning his attention to the development of American water polo, and a branch of aquatic sport was inauguated at Pennsylvania to further its development. There are many of the swimming clubs all over the country are places of the American game. Many of the colleges, for some reason, refused to consider the change, and he has with the hope of reviving the game or at least doing something from falling back that Coach Kiefer is introducing it again this year. It will be put to its true trial of the season with the Cornell meet next Friday March 12th when the Red and Blue team will play the. All American Team of the Army Club. English water polo differs from the American game in the sense that the former does not have back swimming, and the players are not allowed to swim. The English rules call for a much larger field, and the game is won by a majority and not by a point. The English game is not so exciting as the American one.

A large number of men are out for the water polo teams this year, and a majority of the regular polo team will be brought into the line, in this meet and the new team, Manager Bennet is arranging a schedule with various clubs to enable the players to get to New York later in the month.

The American water polo and polo teams will play an exhibition at the Atlantic Club next Saturday afternoon, March 12th, at 2:30 o'clock at the Atlantic Club. The Baltimore meet, on March 15th, will be followed by a 100-yard relays and a 10 yard breast stroke race.

SOCCKET TEAM DROPS A GAME.

Railroad Men Compel Red and Blue to Bow to Them.

In a friendly soccer match at Tacer on Thursday last, the railroad men and Reading Athletic Association defeated the Blue and White of the freshman team by the score of 3 goals to 1. Neither side was represented by its strongest squad.

A railroad man was far superior in that of the other team. Reil, who had a clear view of the situation in the first half, was the one of two goals and kept his opponents from scoring any. In the second half the game was closer, each team having to fight hard for its single tally.

Horner, at goal, played an excellent game for the Pennsylvania team, as did Crook-seth and from, at center half and forward. The lineup follows:

P. & R.: Crookseth, Brown, colossal, Horner, Wright, Horner, W. J., Anderson, M. Anderson, left full, Nate Smith, right half, W. I. Proctor, center half, D. Davidson, inside right, Irving L. Lapaloz center forward, T. Feny, R. Lapaloz, inside left, Ribby Ander,

Relay Races at the Stadium.

No Baseball Practice Saturday.

Due to the poor weather condition the baseball team were forced to cancel their practice at the Stadium. They were awarded no drill at all and only four Varsity baseball squad held outdoor practice on Saturday. The work was done in the gym and the players were put up in mind. The time of the race was 7 minutes 160 yards.

WATER POLO. Two-Mile Team Defeated.

Yale Quartet Outshines Hitherto Unbeatennes Red and Blue Flyers.

At the Columbia playground, field, Saturday night in Manhattan, the Columbia and New York City, Pennsylvania carried off the prize in water polo. The Columbia quartet finished next to the leaders in their event, a mile Bagnall, in 8 minutes 26 seconds, jump came in second to F. B. Kroech-ler of the St. George quartet who defeated him on a handicap. It was only after the Columbia men were in the twofold intercollegiate scratch race, championship class, that the Yale runners succeeded in defeating the fast Red and Blue team. Prior to this meet Pennsylvania's twosome relay defeated Yale on two occasions and had easily outdistanced Cornell in the Washington Indoor games, a week ago. M. Kirkman was the "whistle man" for Old El, ran his half mile in the time of 1 minute 34 seconds. The Red and Blue men finished a good second and Cornell was third. The time of the mile was 5 minutes 54.1 seconds. Burdick, from the Penn line up, was instrumental in making the big showing in the high jump, clearing the bar at 6 feet, 6 inches. His jumping won only made a move of 4 feet 6 inches, but won out on his handicap of 5 inches. Among the other intercollegiate events of the meet were the mile intercollegiate relay, in which Syracuse University finished first, and the miler mile for which seven teams were interested. The latter race was run in the Kiviat, of the Ithaca Athletic Club, time 4 minutes 22.1 seconds.

JUNIORS TO MAKE MERRY.

All Preparations Are Complete for Banquet Which Promises to Be Brilliant Function.

On Wednesday of this week, at 7:36 P. M., the Hotel Majestic, at Nineteenth and Girard avenue, will be the scene of the annual banquet of the class of 1911. The Junior says that it is to be the biggest, grandest and in every convenient way the most remarkable "feed" ever given since the institution of eating became popular, as event which transcends at a time when Banquet not the memory of man. The six hundred men have been working energetically to make their promises good, and all arrangements are complete. The large banquet hall of the Majestic, easily capable of seating comfortably the entire class, will be brilliantly decorated with gasolier arrangements of electric lights and sprays of green. Music will be furnished by members of the Ithaca Orchestra. The programs have been so arranged that they may be made fitting concerts.

A large number of tickets have already been disposed of. There was no ticket obtained in Box 21 at 1 P. M. today, from 1 to 3, or from any mem-er of the committee.

In addition to the scheduled list of speakers, several members of the class will probably be called upon to make some remarks. Prominent V. F. Taylor for a few extensive and pronounced remarks. The route has been selected as follows:

DOUBLE BILL NEXT SATURDAY

"Daughter of the Regiment" and "Cavalleria" for Students This Week.
"Louis" Was Well Sung.

"Louis," on Saturday night, with Mary Garden as the great attraction, drew an audience that completely filled the Opera House, and the performance came fully up to the expectations. Deburin sang the part of the Father with hearty relish, and in the last act expressed the整个 tragedy of the situation with touching perfection. Doria was sufficiently supplemented by the young wife and mother. The two loves, Louise and Valentine, sang by Miss Garden and Deburin, although not so excellently done as they have been heard on previous occasions, were in every way satisfactory. Over six hundred student reductions were used.

Next Saturday night, the last but one of the opera season, the bill includes "The Daughter of the Regiment," and "Cavalleria Rusticana," of which the latter was heard by the students earlier in the season. "The Daughter of the Regiment," one of Donizetti's sparkling musical comedies, is in no example of the success. It is the Italian music with comedy, while his mirth fell completely to serve the purpose of the tragedy. "Cavalleria" is by Mascagni, one of the members of the newly risen Italian school, which has been made familiar to Americans through his work and that of Leoncavallo in "Pagliacci."

Owing to the fact that both of these operas have already been the subjects of recitals in The Pennsylvania series, the benefit recital next Thursday will be "Panz," which is to be held on Saturday afternoon for the last time this season. There are several excellent pianists who records from "Panz," and violin and piano selections will add variety to the musical program.

Dr. Holmes Delivers Second Address
Of Series on Character and Conduct.

Prior to the regular Sunday services in Boston Hall yesterday morning, Dr. Arthur Holmes, of the Psychology Department, gave the second of his series of Sunday morning addresses on "Character and Conduct." The earlier efforts were "Imagery and Habit."

"A boy's character is not fixed at any one time," said Dr. Holmes, "but it passes through different stages. In the early period, the barbare stock, he can imagine every stone a soldier or ever everything a bear. Then we say that he is in boyhood. But, children don't play. They work, seriously, at what we call play. Then, there comes a no

FULL DRESS SUITS

If it is conceded that we must dress suits less than any other firm in the city—a fact of which we are justly proud—and we mean to retain that honor by the same means that we won: hard work, quality, price, style and several other things.

If at $35, $40, $45 and $50 they are much better than you usually get at these prices; at $55, $60 and $65 they will equal the high-priced tailors' suits justly

PLEA FOR BIBLE STUDY

Rev. G. A. Johnston Ross, pastor of the Hyn Nancy Presbyterian Church and well-known as one of the prominent leaders of the Northfield Student Conference for several years, was the speaker at the Sunday morning services in Houston Hall yesterday.

In line with the recently inaugurated Bible study movement in the University, Rev. Ross took for the subject of his address, 'The Value of Scriptural Study.' In part he said: "I have been forty years in the ministry, and my experience of life does not allow me to say anything but good of Bible study. The difficulty of obscuring some parts of the Hebrew Scriptures are often offered as objections to their study, and it is true that many of the scriptural thoughts are available in hundreds of other easer read books. But, in all my readings in literature I have never elsewhere found the idea of sin, as I know it, so well expressed as in the Bible.

The Characters of the Scriptures are the foremost war songs, prayed the most exalted prayers and received the most costly poetry. In the Bible we find a mirror of life and there we also have the saint, the character who is not elsewhere to be found. A man cannot study the Bible without being strengthened and made firmer in purpose. We find crime and vice mentioned in other literatures, but sin is exclusively a Bible idea. And then we need this beautiful idea—oppon-ence and redemption. It is surely worth work while for one to lend himself to the study of the Bible and feel the bond of faith." A selection by the University Quartet and a duet by Mr. Smith and Mr. Rick marked the program.

The speaker next Sunday will be the Rev. John David Adams, of East Orange, N. J., a favorite speaker at student gatherings.

LAW STUDENTS PLAN TO ORATE

Emory Lawyers Will Compete for Forensic Honors on April 17

Friday evening, April 17, will mark a very important and interesting occasion in the Law School record, for on that evening the Law School annual contest is to take place in Price Hall, and the prizes in prize will be awarded, $15 going to the first orator, $10 to the second and $5 to the third best. These prizes are made possible through contributions from the Law Alumni of the University. The orators may place a fourth man as worthy of receiving honorable men-

Three judges, who will be either judges or members of the bar, will be selected by Dean Lewis.

There are to be ten contestants, each speaking on one of the following ten subjects of law: Crimes, Constitutional Law, Evidence, Constitutional Law, Property, Association, Bills, and Orders and Courts. The speeches must be at least five minutes in length and not over ten minutes.

In case more than ten student speaking the duration of competing a preliminary contest will be held in Price Hall on March 14, as which the number will be cut down to ten. Choice of subject is optional in this preliminary contest.

Knowledge of the law and the force-fulness of its presentation will count equally in the awarding of prizes in the final contest.
