VOLUME XXV. — NO. 137

PHILADELPHIA, MONDAY, MARCH 21, 1910

HARD VICTORY FOR VARSITY

Real baseball weather has appeared again and the team, which is now practically in shape for the Holy Cross game, which will be played on the Indoor Field in Thursday. This game is a hard one for the first contest of the season, and a closely contested battle is expected. Last year the New Englanders handed the victory over the Red and Blue. Taking into consideration the fact that this Varsity team is, with two exceptions, made up of the same men as last year, and that the Holy Cross team is just as strong as it was last year, the game will be an exciting one, to say the least.

At the practice held Tuesday afternoon, Plummer in the field, and A. Thrust in the bat were two star performers.

YALE RESIGNATION ACCEPTED

The annual meeting of the Intercollegiate Wrestling Association was held in Weights Hall, following the intra-mural wrestling meet on Saturday night, and the resignation of Yale University from the Association was informally accepted.

The action of Yale withdrawing from the Association, composed of Pennsylvania, Cornell, Yale, Princeton and Columbia, was the result of a meeting of the members of these schools at the end of the current Intercollegiate meet.

The interpretation of the rules reads as follows:

"Varsity men are eligible to wrestle in competition for the collegiate and Intercollegiate meets for two years, and are eligible for the Association only after completing the two years term and men and render its resignation acceptable to the Association and the Executive Committee.

At the annual meeting, Saturday night, President Howe was unanimously re-elected.

"Resigned. That its resignations be accepted.

Following this resolution the voting took place on the question of the election of the next President, the position being declared a won by F. J. McNeney as he was elected President of the Association. This representative from Princeton will probably be elected as the next President.

Princeton was successful in its attempt to secure the presidency of the Intercollegiate Wrestling Association, and the question of the resignation of Yale from the Association was definitely settled at this annual meeting. The resignation of Yale was accepted by the members of the Intercollegiate Wrestling Association.

SOCCER TEAM LOSES

Despite Crockett's superior work red and blue bows down before the Fast Play of Yale.

Pennsylvania met her first defeat in the Intercollegiate Soccer League on Saturday at the hands of Yale at New Haven. Pennsylvania played her hardest, but owing to the sudden formation of the goals' forward line she was forced to a defeat. The red and blue defense entrenched that of her opponent, but due to the badly crippled condition of the forward line her offensive line was the poorest seen this season.

Herbie Goodwin was seen this year in the Yale team due largely to the fact that it has a good coach who has included him in the main pieces of the game, who taught him the advantages of teamwork, so it is to be hoped that next year Pennsylvania will follow this example and have a coach who will be able to form into shape an All-American team. Nothing much, however, was made of Pennsylvania until the authorities take enough interest to devote a piece of ground for the use of the soccer team, instead of the restricted pitch. But just without the right to play the game to the full the team has been forced to make all this season.

Jennings, Gene and Dennis placed especially well for Yale, while Pease, Crockett, Philip, Chester and Gibbons did good work for the Red and Blue. Next season Pennsylvania gives Columbia, which game will, in all probability, decide the championship.

The line-up follows:

Pennsylvania.

Yale.

Bennett [goal] .... Hollister
Marti .........
Chase .........
Graham .........
Crockett ..... center half
Goodfield ....
Phillips inside left
Dennis outside left
Prout ..
Jennings inside right
Thompson.

Goals: Jennings, Mennell, Dunlop. Mr. Wright: Time of halves: 4-minute.

Spalding's Baseball Guide Out.

The thirty-fourth annual issue of this publication, which is recognized as the final authority on all matters pertaining to the National Game, has made its appearance for 1910, and in size and variety of contents surpasses all previous efforts.

The editor, John B. Potter, of New York, who preceded the late Henry Chadwick, "The Father of Baseball," has certainly compiled an attractive and interesting book, the leading feature of the Guide. It begins by a synopsis of the views of the leading baseball writers of the country on the method of accrediting pitchers with the winning or losing of a game and whether some standard form should be devised to aid the scorers in their work. Naturally, the suggestions are diversified and all are interesting.

Hartford Hospital.

There will be an examination of candidates for positions on the resident house staff held at the hospital in Hartford, Conn., on April 16 at 9 o'clock P.M.; six vacancies will be filled. The hospital has in service of three hundred beds. Further information apply to Independent Hartford Hospital, Hartford, Conn.

Lincoln Hospital.

An examination for six positions on the house staff of the Lincoln Hospital, 1101 South Boulevard, Bronx, New York City, N. Y., will be held at the hospital March 31, at 2 P.M. Candidates must send, at least two letters of recommendation to the Secretary of the hospital, Dr. Herbert H. Carter, 60 West Fifty-fifth street, New York City, before March 24, 1910.

Lorens were marrowed by the impetuous dropping of the center in the production of "Gigantes" by the Chicago University Dramatic Club last week. A building also broke loose from his leash and made a mad rush at the audience. Both incidents proved to be important factors in the success of the play.
In the preliminary fencing contest at Amman, Pennsylvania, and the Balters qualified for the finals of the Intercollegiate, which will be held on March 25 and 26, at the Hotel Astor, New York. The Naval Academy won thirteen of their eighteen bouts, Pennsylvania was eight and lost ten, and Columbia, the only other team from six and lost twelve. Princeton's swastika arrived when the bouts were nearly over and did not enter.

Captain Wendel carried off first honors by winning all of his six bouts. His closest call was with Scott of the Navy trim, and it was not until after four ties had resulted that he was able to win the decision. Wendel also forced four ties with Parker, but won in the fifth enfeoffed. As a team, the Midshipmen exhibited the best form of the afternoon. The only bout lost to H. B. was with Wendel, while Merrill and Scott each won four of their six attemps.

The second division of the preliminary, which was decided at West Point, resulted in victory for Cornell and the Cadets. The Army swashbucklers exhibited excellent form and won all of their seven successful bouts. Cornell won fifteen, but the final bouts were not even as far as it was impossible for Harvard and Columbia to win a place. It is generally conceded that West Point will win the Intercollegiate, as they have the highest average of the season. The individual honors will probably fall either to Captain Wendel or Cornell, of the Army. Wendel has won all his bouts this season, but the Naval instructor has a wonderful power of endurance and will make a hard fight for the position.

Hockey Men to Elect Officers

Captain and Assistant Manager to be Named at Tonight's Meeting.

Tonight, at 7 o'clock, in Wilson House, the men who played in the West Point hockey game this season will meet and elect a captain and assistant manager for next year. The following men have appeared to be the men for the meeting:

- Joseph Hayden, DeWitt, Newman
- Harlow, E. Thayer, Wilson
- Young, Ward, Maites, King, Manager Worrell and Getsey.

Only two games were played by the team during the past year, one with West Point and the other with Swarthmore. Both of these contests resulted in victories. No more games were scheduled, as the sport was not recognized until in the season, and the management was unable to get any contests after the Association gave hockey its support.

Schedule-making for next year will begin this spring, and the management expects to have games with the leading college teams next year. Provided the season is successful, an attempt to break into the Intercollegiate will be made. Of this year's team the following men will be eligible for the Dental School next year:

- Swett, Hayden, King, Young, Ward, E. Thayer and Harlow.

Some fast Canadian players are to enter for the Dental School next year.
