Senor Honor Elections will be held to-morrow at 2 p.m., and next Monday at 9 o'clock morning. No candidate must be a student transferred to the College, or have committed a crime. The resulting list of candidates will be published in the next number of the "Princetonian."
This opinion of Professor Baker moves us to the thought that it would be a wise undertaking on the part of our English Department if we were to institute a course leading to a proper and scientific knowledge of the drama from a purely dramatic and theatrical standpoint rather than from a standpoint of pure literature. Already Harvard has blazed the path along this line, and, taking her course as an example, we feel sure that the English Department could evolve a course which would prove of inestimable benefit to the students, the drama, the dramatists and the theatre-going public.

"WHAT'S IN A NAME?"

Dr. C. H. Johns to Present a Series of Lectures on Semitic Names.

Dr. C. H. W. Johns will deliver a series of lectures during the next two weeks on "The Religious Significance of Semitic Names." The first is slated for to-day in Houston Hall, on "The Idea Attached to a Name in the Semitic World."

Dr. Johns, President, Saint of St. Catherine's College, Cambridge, is one of the most distinguished linguists of England, and has written several exhaustive works upon that subject, after graduating from Queen's College, in 1866, he became Reader of Semitic Studies, in Cambridge. Last year he received the degree of Doctor of Letters from his alma mater and later was appointed to his present position.

This series of lectures was made possible by the foundation of the late John Bolog, Esq., a former merchant of this city, and lover of Professor P. F. Bohan, of the Law Department.

The remaining lectures will be presented on April 5, 9, 12 and 16.

V. M. G. A. TO ELECT OFFICERS.

Nominations in Order for President and Departmental Vice-Presidents.

There will be a meeting of the college members of the Christian Association on Tuesday, April 12, at 1:30 P. M., in the Houston Hall Auditorium, for the purpose of electing the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Alva M. Vivian, Vice-President, W. G. Williams, Secretary, W. H. Badger, and Treasurer, A. M. Harwood.

The following officers for the coming year were elected: President, John Bohlen, BSaq former merchant of this city; Vice- President, W. H. Badger, Treasurer, A. M. Harwood, Secretary, W. G. Williams, and Treasurers, W. H. Badger, Treasurer, A. M. Harwood, Secretary, W. G. Williams, and Secretary, W. G. Williams, and Secretary, W. G. Williams.

The second and final ballot for the officers of the Christian Association was held today. Such faith has The Pennsylvania in the members of the Class of 1910 that it is certain, in the most positive sense of the word, that the officers will be congratulated in these columns tomorrow morning, and the meeting will be the fourth meeting of the year, and the most for the honor of their classmates. The meeting will be held in the Houston Hall Auditorium, at 7 P. M., and the officers will be elected by the full force of the highest honor that the Pennsylvania can bestow, and the WILD WEST SHOW.

Young Locoshaw came out of the West, and his name is reversed the direction this evening. The idea is to know that our young countryman is just as easily transportable into a box and smoky land. This also applies to the men of the State Capitol, whether their box and stage is bound, that the inhabitants of that city may be thoroughly investigated in a dramatic and musical sense.

"Westward the course of Empire takes its way," and Pennsylvania's representatives are right on hand to join in the grand march. We wish that they might go further towards the Land of the Revolution, that they which wish to rest and let them be left undisturbed, but that Chicago and her sister cities might see and know Pennsylvania as Pennsylvania would be seen and known.

PRACTICAL REMEDIES.

Unhappily the general trend of American dramatic criticism is not of the highest sort, that its exponents are untrained, insincere and trivial. Mr. George P. Baker, Professor of English at Harvard University, gave a most interesting and illuminating lecture in Houston Hall yesterday afternoon upon the theme of "The Critic and the Drama."

William Shakespeare, with his dramatic masterpiece "The Merchant of Venice," has written a large portion of his works to the end of teaching a lesson. Mr. Baker started out with the idea that people are not taught a lesson by Shakespeare, but that he has tried to warn his audience that the evils that are creeping into the English stage are the result of a love of money and a lack of the proper training of the actors. He then reviewed the life of Shakespeare, and the reason why he should be studied. The Shakespearean plays are not to be taken for what they seem, but to be read for the words and the ideas they contain. He then went on to show how Shakespeare's works have been used to teach a lesson, and how they have been used to warn the public against the evils of the time. The lecture was well received and much appreciated by the students who attended it.

Fencers to Tour West

The East and West Cross Fells Tour

The following freshmen baseball candidates will report every day this week for practice at 1:30 P.M.

Dr. H. Lehman will deliver a lecture in the German language before the Graduate School in the College Chapel at 6 o'clock this evening on "Domestic Air and the Stage."

The following freshmen baseball candidates reported to the Tryout Dressing Room of the gym, Tuesday at 10:30 A.M. for the Delaney game: Abel, Bower, Corvell, Donavan, Gorden, Hall, Jones, Krouth, Lehman, McKee, McNabb, Muncie, N. O'Leary, Monner, Pomper, Ruhl, C. F. Rooff, Temple, Wallace.

ATTENTION: All faculty and students are requested to support the Protestant Episcopal Christmas Tree Bazaar to be held this year at 8 o'clock on Tuesday, December 18th, in the basement of the West Memorial Building. The bazaar will open at 5 o'clock and close at 9 o'clock.

For the first time in the history of fencing, the East and the West will meet when Pennsylvania sends its fencers to a Western tour today which will make a three-way series with the University of Cincinnati, Chicago and the Illinois A. C. Nothing is known of the West except that they have never met any of the teams in the Intercollegiate League. With an excellent record behind them, the East and West fencers should be able to carry off first honors unless a dark horse figure appears in one of the Western linesups. The first meet is with Chicago and will be immediately followed by a drive held to honor of the new fencing relations between the East and the West.

On the following day the team will meet the Chicago fencers at Chicago. Saturday night's opponent will be the finals from the Illinois A. C. While in Chicago the team will be entertained at the club rooms of their Illinois opponents.

NOTICES
