Williamson Hall presented a surprise stage setting last evening at the final dress rehearsal of Cromie's Third Act Dance, Arches, strong men, unlike girls, Spanish dancers, specialty acts and "Vanguard" all combined to make up the medley throng, and as they went through their various routines, the privileged spectator, now of the old-fashioned picture moving circus, now of Hammett's, and oftentimes of a different sort.

THE PENNSYLVANIAN

Election

The Pennsylvania announces the election of Owen W. Kennedy, '18, to the Board as Associate Editor.

"TICKETS FOR THE BIG SHOW!"

Punishing the gnomion, after the infectious laughter has run its course, will be absolutely necessary. But what a circus it will be!

The one time of the year when those of us dear faculty have made monkeys of can act natural, or we thieves, knock down all lines, can appreciate the handiness of double the usual number of pedal extremities, when man, the only animal who knows how to dance, can know the phonograph that he is also the only animal that can produce a Comic Crous. No dog exchanges barks with another dog, but a Comic Crous ("it's ferous") can give a ginned in tune in two or an orchestra that devours promenad and solo, a-tactoe fr or a sleeping fever germ. It's a versatile company and a hell time.

Down on all fours, down to the gum, down to your jeans, down with dull care and see what a liberal education really is!

"ACROSS A GOLDEN STREET."

There's a tickety old street piano earning heavily away some new familiar tune just outside The Pensylvania office. As playing "Rings on My Finger" now. Do you recall the purity of the song we sang so enthusiastically as the eleventh swept "By the Light of the Silver Moon." Some day, perhaps, when you're holding some other piano square with our very own at this point, when our son is picking at the top of his lungs as a Pennsylvania team source or is applauding the Mask and Wig—some day, perhaps, you may have these old tunes running through your head.

They'll only be memories then, sweet memories, we venture to say.

The piano has moved on. No one gave the players any of the where-withal. Some one should have done so. It's best sometimes to do all one can to prolong what may be a happy memory in years to come.

CHURCH CLUB FORMED.

To Bring Students and Churches Into Closer Relations.

In an endeavor to draw the students into closer relations with the near-by churches of the city, the Reformed Church students have organized a club known as the Reformed Church Club. Thirty-eight and better streets. The club membership is to consist of all students and members of the University Faculty who are members of the Reformed Church.

The club has been organized with a "social purpose" to meet the needs of the Reformed students to continue in touch with the ministers, congregations and the social side of the Reformed church; and to encourage the members to engage in the social activities of the University Christian Association. While the club's scope only includes student members of the Reformed Church, the promoters hope to influence student and church relations to take another step by writing this to the members.

As a recent meeting the following men were elected to office in the club: Raymond, A. B., Senior; and Philip, Secretary-Treasurer; F. R. Kremer, Tt. Dean; Executive Committee: Warren W. Adams, '15; Walter G. Farley, '15; C. Young, C. A. and A. Osmost, E. C. and the Rev. Benjamin S. Stern.

UNIQUE PROGRAM ARRANGED.

Philo and Zeta Literary Meetings to Be Marked by Novel Features.

In the weekly meetings of Philo and Zeta, whose programs will be far out of the ordinary, as they will be characterized by such novelty, humor and wit.

Meers, Shanahan, Diversity and打入俏的, will entertain their hearers by profound discussions on "Temperance. In Intemperance."

And What the Arrangement Committee "Hates Done." The Subject of the debate is: "Resolved, That although some of the examinations such as French and the affirmative arguments, which will be presented by Robinson, Landman and Berkin, will be spoken in German, the French language will be used by Lay, Wesson and Baldwin in defending the negative. What makes the debate conduct criticism in Chinese.

Deep and argumentative speeches will be produced in Zelo as an attempt to prove that man is influenced more by women than money. On account of their experience along these lines, C. Young, C. A. and A. Osmost have been chosen to uphold the affirmative, while C. Rebula, O. W. Hestman and W. J. Wesson will struggle bravely to support the negative.

The literary program also includes an original story skit.

These retained at the trials on Wednesday and all new augments for parts in the cast of "David Garrick" will meet for further competition at 7 o'clock.

Engineers Meet Tonight.

The regular April meeting of the Civil Engineers Society will be held tonight at 8 o'clock in the rooms of the Rohrback Building. Important business is to be transacted, and discussion regarding the bunner, which is to be held here next Thursday, will be announced. Papers will be read by Orchard, of theSenior Class, in "Hydro Power Plants," and Orchard, of the Junior Class, on "The Road Maintenance of Way." The usual social features are provided.

Phi Beta Kappa Banquet.

The members of the Phi Beta Kappa Honor Society will hold their annual banquet tomorrow night at the University Club. New members will be inducted into the society.

Hold a KEEN KUTTER Safety Razor

"Any Old Way"—You Can't Shave Wrong

That's a great point in favor of the Keen Kutter Safety Razor—it isn't necessary to hold it in any particular way to get a good shave, if you hold it so will shave, it will shave, right.

The Keen Kutter "Safety" gives a true shaving stroke. Goes together with the "clip" in the teeth of a "clip" and works equally well, up stroke or down. It's the one razor made that's perfectly adapted to easy shaving.

 Comes in a neat case, fully guarantee, with 12 ready strapped blades. Silver plated in Genuine Black Leather Case $5.50. Gold plated in Genuine English Pouch Case $7.50.

The best "packet piece" a man can carry is a Keen Kutter pocket razor.

First Boat Wins by Four Lengths.

Varsity Training Table to Open Monday.

In a one-mile race between the first two Freshman crews yesterday on very sloppy water, the first boat, which was beaten by the second boat several days ago in a similar race, crossed the line four lengths ahead.

The men will be kept on their present order for three or four days, and then very probably further changes will be made.

The Varsity was transferred yesterday to a shell which has not been used at all this year, and in consequence of a combination of open cracks and rough water, it shipped a considerable amount of water. It is expected that the training table will be opened Monday, April 19, although the number of crews to be accommodated has not yet been decided.

STUDENTS AID NOBLE CAUSE.

Public Speakers Help Philadelphia Women to Arouse Civic Patriotism.

Many members of the Public Speaking Classes at the University have volunteered to lecture for the Civic Club, which has been organized by prominent women of Philadelphia, with the view of arousing greater civic patriotism in the citizens of this city.

The following women will lecture at schools, churches, and Sunday-school lodges in "Old and New Philadelphia," which is illustrated by lantern slides, which are furnished by the Civic Club.

Any student who wishes to acquire the pleasant and profitable experiences that may be derived from giving such lectures may communicate with Miss Florence Addis, Women's Civic Club, Philadelphia, or see Professor F. A. Child, of the Public Speaking Department.
