SPRING PRACTICE ON-TODAY

Football, Under New Rules, Will Recently Played By Cornell. Far Reaching In Their Influence.

Contrary to the recent announcements, spring football practice will continue to be held on Franklin Field. Notices have only been sent to last Fall's varsity and fraternity players, but through the press of The Pennsylvania, Manage Thompson issues a call to all alumni interested in the game. Those alumni will be provided with full football equipment, including shoes.

Although Andy Smith is generally expected to be sure of the election, the committee has not taken official action yet and in absence of their authorization he will not take charge of the team. The first practice will be assemble later in the day, to be held in Franklin Field at least each, although the remainder of the erst will not be voted upon until the next month's banquet. Coates and Miller will direct the practice, assisted by any members of the alumni who remain present. According to promises made by the practice was to be conducted by a small number of graduates on hand. The first twenty days will be devoted to putting the men in proper physical conditions to stand attacking. The second section will consist in making the men strength.

Other men who have been named to the alumni crews are have been shifted to No. 2 in that boat, while Melchers, who was coxing the third, had taken his place. Mason, No. 2 in the second, is now setting the pace for the third. In the first boat the crew had no difficulty in defeating the Providence crew.

The Sunday race was run by the Pennsylvanians in which the teams from were in a dead heat for the first and second places. The showed great spirit in their race even though the crew boat has started to run.

G.I.V.E.N. ENGINEERS BANQUET—

Fellow of the Rock Chrin in First Annual Gathering.

The Civil Engineering Society held its First Annual Banquet in the Engineering Societies' Clubhouse. It was a success in every way. About one hundred men were present and enjoy the bounteous repast and in varied style.

The ball was tastefully decorated in and blue, and gave quite an effect. The program was by the Civil Engineering Society organized.

Mr. Raymond N. Presteh, the toastmaster, introduced the speakers and announced that the President, who was expected to be present, was in the house and that he was undoubtedly de-

Dr. Smith, the Vice-President,
"My Boys.

Dr. Fisher, Dean of the College, spoke on the "Civil Engineer in College." He said that engineers, more than any other profession, needed cultural as well as practical education, and adthe students to take advantage of their students.

Other speakers were Dr. Marburg, head of the Civil Engineering Department of the University, who the Engineers' Club of Philadelphia, and received the warmth and enthusiasm of the students in the department.

including the 100-yard sprint.

SOCCER TEAM TO CLOSE SEASON.
Red and Blue Players Meet Cornell in Last Game at Old Gym Tuesday.

Tomorrow Pennsylvania's soccer team goes to Ithaca, N. Y., where it will meet the Cornellians in the last game of the season. The red and blue team scored highly from February, who in turn defeated Cornell. Pennsylvania went down sound Yale and Columbia in the early part of its season.

Cornell has only three of its last year's varsity men in the lineup, and has had trouble in finding material to make up a team this season. The blue team has had little difficulty with the minor teams she has met, but finds some of the larger university teams too accustomed to the game. Since her last struggle over practice has been carried on, Cornell is ready to put up a strenuous fight against the red and blue on Saturday.

The following is the intercollegiate soccer standing:

Yale ..... 2 4 600

BIBLE STUDY HAS FIRM HOLD.

Gratifying Increase of Student Groups. Two More Weekly Meetings.

That the recently started Bible study campaign is a permanent move-ment and continues to help the interest of the students was shown last evening when over thirty undergraduates attended the fifth weekly Bible Study Supper, in Houston Hall.

Edward R. Robb, chairman of the Promoting Committee, presided and himself as highly crash-

Fed with the present status of the movement. He stated that he has records of sixty Bible study groups formed among the students in the housing, a field most difficult to reach because of its remoteness from University life. As has been stated before, with few exceptions, each fraternity and sorority has its own group meeting each week for Bible study.

Because of the warm weather and the increased amount of college work in the month of May, the Bible study will shortly be discontinued for this year. There will be but two more of the weekly suppers—next Thursday evening when some prominent Philadelphia citizen will address the undergraduates, and on the following Wednesday evening, April 27, when President Smith will be present.

Following the supper last evening the undergraduates separated, as usual, to meet in groups, to be coached on the subjects for discussion during the coming week.

Student Conference at Parsons Pieses. In response to a demand on the part of college men in the Middle At-ante States for a Summer Christian Conference held at a more convenient date than that of Northfolk, a new conference has been arranged for this year, to assemble at Parsons Pieses, Pennsylvania, June 10 to 19.

The local Christian Association leaders will endeavor to have Philadelphia represented by over one hundred undergraduates, and committees are being appointed to arouse interest in the plan. Parsons Pieses is situated in Northeastern Pennsylvania, and is an ideal place for summer camping.

Camera Club Prepares for Exhibit. All members of the Camera Club are busily engaged in preparing for the pictures which are to be put on exhibit at the Intercollegiate Camera Club exhibit.

Only thirty pictures from one club will be allowed on exhibition. These may be landscape views, photographs of interior pictures of buildings and construction work, or any good cornices which can be taken with a camera.
