The Freshmen will present the same

Spring Handicap Activities

The Freshmen will have their annual Boat meeting on Thursday, at 1 o'clock. The meeting will be held in the Trophy Room of the Freshman Clubhouse, and will be addressed by Mr. Smith, the Manager of the Freshman Clubhouse, who will give an account of the progress of the Freshman club in the past year, and of their prospects for the future. The meeting will conclude with a social hour, when the members of the club will have an opportunity to discuss the various plans for the coming season.

Socialist Chapter Election

At a meeting of the Socialist Chapter of the Freshman Club, held on Tuesday, April 10, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That a Socialist Chapter be formed at the Freshman Club, and that the following officers be elected:

President: E. V. South
Vice-President: E. C. Grimes
Secretary: E. H. Johnson
Treasurer: E. J. Brown

The meeting was adjourned at 10 o'clock.

Combined Publications Banquet

The Combined Publications Banquet, held on Friday, April 12, was a great success. The banquet was attended by a large number of students, and was well received by all. The speeches made by the several officers were highly appreciated, and the banquet was a great success.

Cricket Practice Today

Unless there is news to the con- trary on the bulletin of the Penn- sylvania by 1 o'clock, cricket practice will be held this afternoon. The practice will be held in the new field, which has been recently purchased for the purpose of cricket practice.

Keilty to Lead Gymnasium Team

At a recent meeting of the gymnas- ium committee, it was decided that E. B. Keilty, 1915, will be the manager of the team. E. B. Keilty, 1915, is a member of the gymnasium committee, and has been actively engaged in its work.
we do not know how to treat those whose interests are linked with ours. We deserve no other reputation.

By a clever misdirection, extending through a number of years, a fine patronage of those people who stand for the best in Pennsylvania has been built up for our baseball games. Surely we are not to allow it to be spoilt entirely in an instant by the disgraceful actions of a few who represent the worst element at Pennsylvania. An event which could very happily be dropped from the roles and work no detriment to the University. As the young ladies were heard to say as they blushingly dropped into her seat, "This is the last time I shall ever come out here."

It is no more than natural that this feeling would be shared by a hundred others of the gentle sex who were present. They will not come, because they fear that they, too, may be subjected to the same disgraceful treatment.

We furiously brand all creatures who in any way participated in this scene as "monsters" of the worst type, who in no wise are Pennsylvania men, who are a disgrace and a harm to our University. Yet every gentleman and well-bred man make a firm stand to prevent a recurrence of this shameful scene, and we will render the hearty thanks of those who are the subjects of the disgrace, and of those who are typically representative Pennsylvanians, men polite and well bred, courteous in heart and broad in mind.

CYCO PAPERS
INITIAL TURNER LECTURE
Wisconsin Professor Begins Series
Upon "Western Influences in American History."

"The Upland South; the Colonization of a Province," was the subject of the first of the series of six lectures on "Western Influences in American History," delivered under the George Lath Harrison foundation yesterday afternoon, in Houston Hall, by Frank Eckert Turner, Ph.D., LL.D., Professor of American History at the University of Wisconsin.

Yesterday's lecture, which was exceedingly well attended and instructive, had to do with the settlement in the early part of the eighteenth century of the southern frontier, which then belonged to the French region. "The advance of people there was similar to all later migrations westward," said Dr. Turner, "and it resulted in the opening of another distinct section of country. It is the fact that our country is composed of so many distinct regions which makes our land so enormous. As today, the government of England encouraged Western migration by offering land grants, and then it was that the primitive land-grabbing and stealing began. Then we had the origin of the Picher-Bullinger controversy."

"Because of Indian hostility on the frontier the different colonies were forced to depend on each other and to unite their efforts, a faculty which proved so valuable in the Revolutionary War. Those early Western settlements were made up of Germans, Irish, Welsh and Scotch, and among them were countless religious sects. This combination, the different elements being forced to unite for self protection, caused a spirit of religious toleration and racial union to arise. The frontier settlements were very democratic in contrast to the Atlantic Plain aristocracy, so there we had our first American Democracy."

The second of the series of six lectures by Dr. Turner will be given to-morrow afternoon, at 4 o'clock in Houston Hall. The subject will be "The Revolutionary War on the Frontier."

Track Men Report at Training Table
Manager R. B. Burns, of the track team, wants the fast men in to report to-day at the training table: Paul, Minds, Houph, Levens, Bedley, Baker, Boyle, Church, Bannstead, J. Burdick, Lane, Plater, Smith, Haydock, Blackley, Barker and Masters.

Freshman Baseball Team Notice.
The following freshmen baseball candidates will report to the track and field teams from West Philadelphia for Queen Lane today: Gordon, Moye, Inxas, Jones, Wallace, Koons, Monell, Donovan, Towner, Penzer, Cotrell, Baill, McFalls. (Signed) Coach Curtes.

Instructor Childs Elected Secretary.
Mr. F. A. Childs, of the English Department, was chosen Secretary-Treasurer of the "Association of Phils. Speaking Teachers" at a conference of instructors which was held at Swarthmore College on Friday and Saturday for the purpose of organizing this association.

EXCHANGES.
The Yale News published on Friday a signed statement correcting the impression that Phillips is no longer captain of the Eli baseball team. The nine unanimously refused to accept his resignation, urging that in spite of his injuries, he could easily keep in touch with the team.

The Yale University Dramatic Society has entered the annual prize for the best play written by an undergraduate. This is an attempt only to secure undergraduate plays for the society, but at the same time to encourage the production of higher drama in Yale literary circles.

CROMIE’S CONTINUOUS CIRCUS.
Students Degraded by Having to Gamble Daily in Public Places.

Editor of The Pennsylvanian.

It is my desire to express, through the columns of your paper, a few opinions on the latest phase of the "gym evil," viz., the recently inaugurated practice of holding gymnasium classes on the street, in the Museum grounds, or any other place, except the gymnasium and Franklin Field. To the casual observer, it would appear that this gymnasium person, not sufficiently appalled by the humiliation thrown upon him in the recent circus, has devised a continuous vaudeville performance, "Kromie’s Krazy Kaths," as a means of keeping his name before the public. The cheerfully willing student now has the shame of publicity added to the suffering due to gym class.

If the spirit of cheap solidarity has such a firm grasp on Kromie’s throat, let him, and those of his assistants who are affected with the same distorted point of humor, perform yard drills and fancy steps all day long for the delectation of the South Street Bridge revelers, but leave the students out of the joke.

Such high-handed methods demand some action, but in a few years we have "compulsory circus" added to our movements. It is deplorable that this phase of our University Life cannot be safely administered, so that what is now a burden would become a benefit to all.

Respectfully yours,

George R. Kennedy, Jr., ’08 C.
