PART! FOR BROWN GAME

A special party of students is being arranged to attend the Brown game. The tickets are limited and must be secured by a deposit of $5.00 each. Any student interested should see Captain W. W. Robtson.

WILL THE PROVOST STAY?

Speculation as to the immediate reasons behind the starting announcement yesterday of Mr. Phelps' resignation, although the official date of resignation has been upset to every conversation on the campus for twenty-four hours. Nowhere was the news received with more astonishment and bewilderment than in its suddenness. Whether the resignation will really be accepted or not, whether or not Dr. Harrison can be induced to reconsider his determination to give up his active headship of the College affairs, who is the most likely to be chosen his successor and the names of the men stepping up, are all matters about which everyone seems to be in a state of abysmal ignorance. There is a decided sentiment in favor of a discussion of everything possible to convince the Provost that he ought to stay, there has been so much for the situation to develop beyond what has happened thus far.

In the desurvey mention of possibilities for the Provost's chair in case all efforts to retain him fail, those named as the brightest of the list of possibilities are, in the order of their brilliance, Messrs. Roberts, Strong, Harrington, and G. Wharton Pepper. Speculating. Dr. J. M. Hoston has been almost specifically supported in his favor. Dr. Harrison, he has been said, has told his benefactions were little heard of and only privately known. Mr. Pepper and Dr. Smith will be the Free and Brown Done-gooders, with the chief qualification of the next Provost would have to be the ability to justify Mr. Phelps in his services in the University. Mr. Pepper would probably unite with Mr. Smith. Mr. Pepper is best known to the graduates of the University, and in the community at large in his favor, and the other gentlemen who have so far been mentioned. As evening paper quotes a Mr. J. T. THE PENNSYLVANIAN.

The writing of football gongs is con-ever evoke; you will be a new aud a thi.

Thanks to the comic opera business, the writing of football songs is consored to the task of harmoniously fit-ing a series of gripping, shifting lyrical lines to the already-provided music. Jingles with spirit and fire, we hope, will be heaped on the decks of the Football Parody Editorials. A man who can whistle the late, later or latest air can make himself most useful by putting stirring football words to the rousing notes. Verse-makers, liner-words and satirical innovators, they are myriad. Let them deluge the committee with their efforts and forbear not for four of drawing its members—they can swim.

Frankham to Address Bible Leaders.

Colburn Piskin, Secretary of the National League for the Inspection and Education of Immigrants, is sched-

eed to speak tonight in Houston Hall, immediately after the Bible Leaders have finished the second "Dutch" supper.

The views will be served promptly at 6 o'clock. After Mr. Piskin's address the various groups will gather to continue the sessions begun last week.

Deutscher Verein Meets.

Over thirty members of the Deutscher Verein attended the opening meeting of the society held last evening in Houston Hall. Prof. D. B. Schumway gave a talk on "The Opportunities of an American Student to Learn German in America." Mr. Kressman, the new member of the German Faculty, spoke of his "Imagination of Pennsylvania," and G. A. Betz closed the program with a talk on "A Trip to Haiti." Big things are planned for the "Verein" by the members for this winter.

Swimming Examination Still Going On.

Owing to the large number of Freshmen still to be examined, Coach Kistler will be unable to call the swim-ning candidates this week. Over three hundred freshmen have already been passed upon, but there are still twice that number to pass the required swimming test.

However, Coach Kistler expects to issue a call in a week or ten days, and he is looking for a large turnout. As a matter of last year's squad has not returned, there are a good many open places. The very man that has ample ability is urged to try for either the swimming or the polo teams. A crack polo player from C. C. N. Y. is here this year, and he is expected to prove a valuable addition to the squad.

Dr. Made Compliments Book.

Prof. E. O. Nord, of the Wharton School, has composed the preface of "Corporation Finance," and the book is now in the hands of the printer. The author's aim is to present a textbook that will explain and illustrate the methods employed in all branches of business enterprises. He begins with the investigation of a business proposition as a promoter and follows the natural line of corporate development through to the end.

Medical Dictionary.

Take your choice at Pennock's. Pocket Dictionary, $1.00; largest, complete, $5.50; up-to-date.

Le Cercle Francais Meeting.

Twilight at The Cercle Francais will hold its annual reception to new members on the third floor of the Houston Club. There will be speeches from Dr. Dupont, the head of the French Department, and the officers of the club. Dr. La Boefelle, the new Director General of the organization, will also give a talk. All men who are at all interested in French are cordially invited to attend this reception. Refreshments will be served following the speeches.

Mask and Wig Club Meeting.

There are eight feet of books that are supposed to educate a man, provided he is educated enough to be able to absorb this eight-foot education.

But the biggest lesson in life isn’t found in any one of these books—every man has to learn it for himself. The young man who learns it earliest starts first on the road to success—for he takes care that his appearance is a boost ahead, not a "pull back."

If that wise young man is in Philadelphia or anywhere within reach of Philadelphia he is wise enough to know that the utmost value at the most moderate prices can be secured at 116 Walnut street.

Suitings from as low as $85 up to $47. Fall overcoats from $83 to $40. Qualities better than you would expect at the price, and style, fit and finish guaranteed.
