When Pennsylvania has a mass meeting ten men are enough, as a rule, to reduce the number of packages to a dozen. When there are few hundred got together, as they did last night in the Union, the packages spring up off into space for all the world to see. So it was there wasn't pulled off quite according to scheme—the mass part of the meeting drifted away, the moving pictures disappeared into a very stationary picture of a dirgible balloon, and the songs remained unmeasured because there was a dump night and all the lyric harangues were afraid to open their vocal mouths—a grous of students for all that. And the season is in the house and the dawn full of Cash. "Mike" is one of the few men who can pass judgment upon the fact that those hit these hundred men in a turnkey speech as a grous of students for all that. He started by inspecting interior chapels and windows and Seabury's pastry and from this beginning proceeded to the conclusion that there weren't any more tenpence in the show. Those and other forceful opinions, with more or less purple expressions, are sure to affect the young in the show.

The other day only served to increase the layer of guarantee and showed the way so a philanthropist in the now rare case of a student can be thought to have missed his chance. The no mander as forceful, the not so good-looking nothing that they were a pretty useless lot.

THE PENNSYLVANIAN

PROVOST SPEAKS TO-DAY

Will Address Monster Architectural Meeting—Vice-Provost, Dean Fisher, and C. L. Bovis Other Speakers.

Professor Laird, of the Architectural Department, is very anxious that every man in the department, especially the freshmen, attend the first and largest architectural meeting of the year. It is expected that at least two hundred students will be present, and if such should be the case, it will be the largest gathering of Architecture students in the world. Parli alone except.

For the first time since his resignation, Provost Garrison will make an address. The other speakers will be Vice-Provost Smith, Dean Fisher, Charles L. Bovis, Jr., who is one of Philadelphia's leading architects, and who has been recently elected a member of the Board of Trustees of this University.

The President of the Alumni Association and some of its most prominent members will tell interesting stories of their years in college, and the experience of practical architects.

The meeting is called for 1:30 P. M. sharp in the Houston Hall Auditorium, and each class will be seated in a separate section of the hall and will be recognized by different colored badges, which will be distributed this morning.

Two More Books for Library.

Two valuable volumes have been added to the collection in the University Library. The first is entitled, "The Cotton Industry in Switzerland, Vorarlberg and Italy," and is the gift of the University of Manchester, England. It comprises the thirteenth volume in the "Economic Series" edited by the institution.

The second volume is the gift of the Carrie Institute of Washington, and is entitled, "The Vulgate Version of the Arthritic Romances." It is edited from the original manuscripts in the British Museum, and is a valuable addition to the University Library.

Zeta to Speak on Opening Night.

The members of the Zeta Sigma Literary Society will open their season in the university evening at 8 o'clock with a smaller in their rooms on the fourth floor of Houston Hall. An interesting program has been prepared and several prominent members will be present as speakers. All new undergraduates who are interested in literary activities are cordially invited to attend. The affair will close with refreshments.

Dinner to Dr. F. A. Cleveland.

A testimonial dinner is to be given to Dr. F. A. Cleveland, a former professor in the Wharton School, next Thursday evening at the City Club. Dr. Cleveland has been appointed by President Taft to investigate the business methods and procedure of the executive department of the national government.

'SARRANTS HAS POOR PRACTICE'

First Eleven Shows Bad Effects of Last Game and Plays Lately Against Freshmen, Who Score.

The result of Wednesday's gruelling game was apparent yesterday when the Varsity lined up against the Freshmen for scrimmage. During twenty minutes of play the first year men scored one touchdown and kept the ball almost continuously in their opponents' territory, while the 'Varsity, on the other hand, was unable to make any headway against the stubborn defense put up by Coach Miller's charges.

All of the regulars badly needed a break and showed it when they could not get their points work that the strain of playing two games a week, under the trying weather conditions of the past few days was proving too much for them.

The back field especially appeared to be considerably benefited by the deadly tackling of the Franklin and Marshall players, for after two minutes of play Mercer, Scott and Harrington retired from the field. Somer was too badly bruised to be inserted.

The Freshmen kicked off to Murphy, who was down on the thirty yard line. Two attacks on the line failed and Scott punted. More kicking followed, during which the Varsity backs fumbled badly and failed to advance the ball beyond their twenty yard line. Finally the Freshmen recovered the ball at midfield and after well executed inside kick recovered the punting on the Varsity's fifty yard line. In two plays Burr smashed through the side of the line for a touchdown.

When the second kick-off went over the goal line the ball was put in play on the twenty-five yard line. Again the Varsity backs failed to gain, the Freshmen pressing, brushing through on every play and throwing the runner. After several minutes of indecisive play, the Freshmen finally gained and carried the ball into their opponents' territory only to lose it on a forward pass. Towards the end of practice large caught the ball on a pass and ran to the twenty yard line. Here again the Freshman defense proved impenetrable to line smashers, and all chance of a Varsity score was lost when Therriault's punt went wide over the goal line for a touchback.

FRESHMEN WILL PLAY EXETER.

Team Leaves at Noon to Clash with New Englanders To-morrow.

Coach Miller and his Freshman squad leave at noon for Exeter where they will clash with the Phillips Exeter Academy school tomorrow. Eighteen men will be taken on the trip.

The team is in the best of condition, and Coach Miller is confident that his proteges will make a good showing. The victory over the Varsity yesterday unmistakably brought out the fact that the first men are here a powerful, well-balanced team. If the men show the same battling spirit which characterized their playing yesterday, Exeter will have to put up a good game to defeat the Red and Blue youngsters. Exeter's strength is at present an unknown quantity, their initial game against Stuyvesant College.

The following games make up the remainder of the schedule:

October 15—Conway Hall, on Franklin Field.
October 22—Hotchkiss School, at Lakeville, Conn.
October 20—Meade Society, at Mercersburg.
November 2—Casden School, on Franklin Field.
November 1—Carmel Institute, on Franklin Field.
November 1—Cornell Freshmen, on Franklin Field.
